The Red Cross Society. The local chapter of this national organization has issued the following appeal to all ladies and gentlemen of the community: "We are in receipt of an urgent request from our Home Office that we should be privileged to send to the New St. Joseph's Church at Ohi Valley, Ohio, a large number of bloomers to be used for the relief of people of all ages suffering from burns. The necessity for this is very urgent and pressing, and we have been informed that the supplies for the whole department have been nearly depleted. Your prompt attention to this request is greatly needed.

"Leawood" is a new article of clothing which has recently been introduced into this market. It is made of a very fine wool cloth, and is of great value in the cold weather. The price is $1.50 per dozen.

An Old Campaign Song.

On Flag Day, Mr. J. P. Palmer sang the following verses of the song "The Flag of Our Fathers," arranged by Mr. E. A. Hunter.

A Whitman tribute.

The Whitman family has many friends who are interested in this great poet and his works. We have been conducting a study of his life and work, and we have compiled the following list of Whitmaniana:

Mr. Whitman was a man of many gifts, and he left a lasting impression on the world. He was a poet, a musician, a painter, and a philosopher. He was a man of great courage, and he never gave up his fight for the rights of the common man. He was a man of great integrity, and he never wavered in his belief in the power of the people. He was a man of great faith, and he never doubted the goodness of the world. He was a man of great hope, and he never gave up his faith in the future. He was a man of great love, and he never forgot the importance of human relations. He was a man of great wisdom, and he never lost his ability to see the light in the darkness. He was a man of great strength, and he never gave up his fight for freedom. He was a man of great dignity, and he never forgot the importance of human dignity. He was a man of great kindness, and he never forgot the importance of human kindness. He was a man of great courage, and he never gave up his fight for the rights of the common man. He was a man of great faith, and he never doubted the goodness of the world. He was a man of great hope, and he never gave up his faith in the future.
