

The List of Premiums as awarded by the Judges of the late county Fair appears among our new advertisements.

The Electoral Ticket, is now printed and ready for distribution, at the office of the "Columbia Democrat."

The Draft Board of enrolment, &c., will commence their work at this place next week. The drafted men in the county, are to report here on the 3d of November.

The friends of the Soldiers have taken their Hospital in this place for the Headquarters of the Home League. We suppose the friends of Education have sent the soldiers to some school house.

Thomas Downs one of the Bloomsburg election day victims, is reported to be confined in Georgetown, D. C., with his case still unaltered. He has his certificate of having paid commutation money still safe.

Mr. Jonathan R. Leacock, of Troy, Luzerne county, formerly of this place, was the successful horseman that won the two highest prizes for fast trotting at our late county Fair. His two animals owned and trained by himself a number of feet and hard to beat.

Can you tell us of a single traitor in the North, who would not rejoice in the election of McClellan?

Yes Doctor we can. There is a certain man in this town known as Thomas Dunn the local descendant of Tories, who would not do so.

Any more questions, Doctor? Messrs. H. W. Creamy & Co., the gentlemen merchants of Light Street, announce through our columns the arrival of a large and well selected assortment of Fall and Winter Goods. This frills cheap, a fact proven by the numerous crowds that daily visit their establishment.

Does there is a man, neither any fish. A very pretty story for an Editor to tell. The above is an extract from an unpublished poem and is applicable to the abolition Editor in this place, and yet has nothing about piety and christianity. Would it not be well for Thomas to give his readers a chapter on morality and advise his clergy to preach sermons against the sins condemned by the Bible, such as Fornication, Intemperance, Profanity and the bearing of false witness against their neighbors.

David Lowenberg, our enterprising fellow-citizen has recently returned from the eastern cities, accompanied by a large and beautiful stock of fall and winter clothing. Mr. Lowenberg has long since gained the reputation of being one of the most fair and honorable dealers in our county. This together with his experience as a clothier, who cuts and over-sees his work and misrepresents no article, has gained him a host of friends and customers unexcelled by any similar establishment in northern Pennsylvania.

The new method of introducing politics in the church is by carefully prepared prayers. The "loyal" clergy, after telling God what a wonderful being He is, then devote the questions of national politics and invoke special providence in order to carry the "northern sympathizer" to Seesania. Rev. Wilson has given the public some very rare evidences of his political devotion, not only in his political speeches delivered in our county, but as well in his own pulpit. Oh! how he hates "Copperheads!" How he tells the Almighty of that virginal hatred, and how they may go to Rebidon, &c.

There is great and just complaint against our mails and post offices. A letter is dropped into our office there is no certainty it will ever reach its destination. Several gentlemen have complained to us lately that important letters and papers of theirs have never been heard of after being entrusted to the mails. We believe there is a systematic arrangement among the spies of the Administration for opening letters, and that every one believed to contain important matters, political or otherwise, is examined and stopped. The Post office Department, if not a party to this espionage, had better have the thing corrected.

Abraham at Washington has issued another proclamation for thanksgiving and prayer on the last Thursday in November next. This is all right and proper in itself. It is the season usually set apart by the different Governors or religious societies. But every thing nowadays is merged in "the government." If the historian had no other date to make up the history of Mr. Lincoln than his proclamation for prayer and praise, he might be set down in the pages as a great christian. But unfortunately his "all day" anecdote obscenity before the committee of clergy and his ribald song on the gory field of Antietam, where our soldiers were dying all around him are still fresh in the memory and already on the pages of his story.

The Union is the condition of peace. We ask no more.—McClellan's Letter.

SEND TICKETS TO THE SOLDIERS—Let every citizen who writes to a soldier in the army, inclose in his letter a Democratic ballot. A majority of the soldiers from this State will vote for General McClellan, if they get an opportunity. Five sixths of those who have been enlisted are Democrats zealously attached to the cause. They will gladly support it by their votes, if they are properly instructed as to the method of voting, and furnished with the requisite ballots. Tickets are ready for distribution at this office.
