THE CAMERA MAKES CLEARER THE NEWS OF THE DAY FROM HOME AND OTHER LANDS

TUESDAY
May 18, 1916

"THE PARLIAMENT OF MAN" IN ACTION
A picture taken from above of the "cabinet" which is deciding the fate of nations, in front of the Ledger building. As each piece of news is assayed the decision remains as it. The debates are often surprisingly well informed in matters political and military.

A GREEK PLAY IN A MODERN STADIUM
Granville Barker and his company of players gave Euripides' "Iphigenia in Tauris" at New Haven Saturday. This picture shows the full stage in the middle of the Yale bowl, and the crowd in the foreground. The same play will be presented by the University of Toronto within a short time. The 86 will be in the Sherman Gardens.

TORPEDOES AND TORPEDO TUBES AS MOUNTED READY FOR ACTION ON DECKS OF BATTLESHIP TEXAS
A model of a typical torpedo of the short, blunt type favored by the Americans.

PREPARED FOR GAS GOGES
The pad of pictures shows how the dead torpedoes have been so treated that they présente the introduction of extraordinary gases which the Germans are using to overcome the British at Zeebrugge.