HOWORTH'S COMBINATION of Ireland, France and Germany, will give an entertainment at Messenger's Hall this evening. This troupe is said to be one of the best traveling, and is everywhere highly spoken of by the press. All those wishing to be instructed as well as amused should not fail to attend.

A FEW days ago we stepped into the Harness Shop of J. M. Heard, and were shown the largest and best stock of harness, saddles, etc., ever before offered to the citizens of Ridgway and vicinity, and at prices which rival the cheapest of the cheap. As an instance we may mention a gig saddle harness which Mr. Heard is selling at the low price of $25. All kinds of heavy and light harness can always be found at this establishment. Trunks, valises, satchels, etc. kept constantly on hand. Although Mr. Heard has been a sufferer to a large extent by fire since he first opened his shop here, he has, nevertheless, not been conquered by fire, but is still prepared at all seasons of the year to furnish our lumbermen and others with the best harness made, and as the best is always the cheapest it will be to the interest of buyers to give Mr. Heard a call, by doing this you not only save money but have a chance to select your goods from a large stock.

GRAND EXHIBITION AND LECTURES.—Rev. H. Weickel's Grand Spectacle, a Panorama of the beautiful and wonderful, will exhibit in Messenger's Hall three nights, Saturday evening, April 27th, Monday evening, April 29th, and Tuesday evening, April 30th. The first exhibition will be scenes on the Creation of the World—Light, Fishes, Fowls, Beast; the creation of Man; the Fall; the first City; Virtue and Vice; the early Invention; the habits and customs of men then; the cause of the Deluge; the building of the Ark; Noah entering the ark—embracing upwards of 50 most beautiful views, with remarks on astronomy and geology. The second exhibition will be scenes on the Chinese Empire, being a series of interesting views; from original sketches taken on the spot, and displaying the scenery, architecture, social habits, execution of the laws, punishments and costumes. Such as playing shuttlecock with the feet, itinerant barber, a Chinese marriage procession, a Madarin paying a visit of ceremony, the ceremony of meeting the spring, the Imperial traveling palace at Hoo-kew-shan, the Kinshan or Golden Island, etc. As the Chinamen become citizens of our fair land we ought to know something about them. Therefore come see and hear. The third exhibition will be scenes on the Life of Christ, embracing many of the most beautifully colored paintings ever exhibited, on scenes in the Holy Land, miracles, occasions and incidents in the Life of Christ. Every parent teacher and child ought to see and hear this. Admission 25 cents; Children 10 cents. Tickets for the course: Adults, 75 cents; Children, 30 cents. Family ticket for one evening, $1.00.

ONE MILLION OF LIVES SAVED.

It is one of the most remarkable facts of this remarkable age, not that so many persons are the victims of dyspepsia or indigestion, but that so many are cured. Now, we would not be understood to say that any one regards dyspepsia with favor, or feels disposed to rank it among the luxuries of life. Far from it. Those who have experienced its torments would scout such an idea. All dread it, and would gladly dispense with its unpleasant familiarities. Mark Tapley, who was jolly under all the trying circumstances in which he was placed, never had an attack of dyspepsia, or his jollity would have speedily forsaken him.

Of all the multifarious diseases to which the human system is liable, there is perhaps no one so generally prevalent as dyspepsia. There are diseases more acute and painful, and which more frequently prove fatal, but none the effects of which are so depressing to the mind and so positively distressing to the body. If there is a wretched being in the world it is.

CONFIRMED DYSPEPTIC. We have said that dyspepsia is perhaps the most universal of human diseases. This is emphatically the case in the United States. Whether this general prevalence is due to the character of the food the people eat, or to the preparation, or the hasty manner in which it is usually swallowed, is not our province to explain. The great fact with which we are called to deal is this: DYSPEPSIA PREVAILS almost universally.

Nearly every other person you meet is a victim, an apparently willing one; were this not the case, why so many sufferers, when a certain, speedy and safe remedy is within their easy reach of all, would avail themselves of it? But says a dyspeptic: What is this remedy? to which we reply: This great alleviator of human suffering is almost as widely known as the English language. It has always been the property of the human race, and is to-day carried to thousands of others. This acknowledged panacea is none other than DR. HOOPLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.

Would you know more of the merits of this wonderful preparation than can be learned from the experience of others? Try it yourself, and when it has failed to fulfill the assurance of its efficacy given by the proprietor, then abandon faith in it. LET IT BE RE-MEMBERED, that the first of all that HOOPLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS is a pure beverage. They are composed wholly of the pure juice or vital principle of roots. This is not a mere assertion. The extracts from which they are compounded are prepared by one of the ablest of German chemists. Their effects can be beneficial only in all cases of the biliary system. Hoopland's German Bitters stand without an equal, acting promptly and vigorously upon the liver; they remove its torpidity and cause healthful secretion of bile—thereby supplying the stomach with the most indispensable elements of sound digestion in proper proportions.

They purify the blood, cleansing the vital fluid of all hurtful impurities and supplanting them with the elements of genuine healthfulness. Now, there are certain classes of persons to whom extreme Bitters are not only unpalatable, but who find it impossible to take them without positive discomfort. For such Dr. HOOPLAND'S GERMAN TONIC has been especially prepared. It is intended for use where a slight alcoholic stimulant is required in connection with the well-known tonic properties of the pure German Bitters.

HOOPLAND'S TONIC acts with almost marvellous effect. It not only stimulates the flagging and wasting energies, but invigorates and permanently strengthens its action upon the Liver and Stomach thorough, perhaps less prompt than the Bitters, when the same quantity is taken is none the less certain. Indigestion, Bilio-sness, Physical or Nervous prostration, yield readily to its potent influence. It gives the invalid a new and stronger hold upon life, removes depression of spirit, and inspires cheerfulness. But Dr. Hoopland's beneficent aid to the human race are not confined to his celebrated GERMAN BITTERS, or his invaluable Tonic. He has prepared another medicine, which is rapidly winning its way to popular favor because of its intrinsic merits. This is HOOPLAND'S PODOPHYLLIN PILLS, a perfect substitute for mercury without any of mercury's evil qualities.

These wonderful Pills, which are intended to act upon the Liver, are mainly composed of Podophyllin, or the vital principle of the mandrake root. It is the medicinal virtue of this health-giving plant in a perfectly pure and highly concentrated form. The Podophyllin acts directly upon the Liver, increasing its functions, and causing it to make its biliary secretions in regular and proper quantities. The injurious results which invariably follow the use of mercury is entirely avoided by their use. But it is not upon the Liver only that their powers are exerted. The extract of Mandrake contained in them is skillfully combined with four other extracts, one of which acts upon the stomach, one upon the upper bowels, one upon the lower bowels, and prevents any gripping effect, thus producing a pill that acts upon the entire digestive and alimentary system, in an equal and harmonious manner, and its action entirely free from nausea, vomiting or gripping pains common to all other purgatives.

Possessing these much desirable qualities the Podophyllin becomes invaluable as a FAMILY MEDICINE. No household should be without them. They are perfectly safe, require but two for an ordinary dose, are prompt and efficient in action, and when used in connection with Dr. Hoopland's German Bitters, or Tonic, may be regarded as certain specifics in all cases of Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, or any of the disorders to which the system is ordinarily subject. THE PODOPHYLLIN PILLS set upon the stomach and bowels, carrying off improper obstructions, while the Bitters or Tonic purify the blood, strengthen and invigorate the frame, give tone and appetite to the stomach, and thus build up the invalid anew.

Dr. Hoopland, having provided internal remedies for disease, has given the world one mainly for external application, in the wonderful preparation known as DR. HOOPLAND'S GREEK OIL. This Oil is a sovereign remedy for pains and aches of all kinds.
