

HOT FOR LIBERALS.

Party Rancor in England Is So Intense That the Parties Won't Pair.

TORIES HATCH TROUBLE

For Gladstone's Cabinet, in Amendments to the Queen's Speech

FULL EIGHT WEEKS IN ADVANCE.

A Bill to Prohibit Priestly Interference Will Be Pushed.

RELIEF OF THE FARMERS A PROBLEM

(Copyright, 1910, by The Associated Press.)

LONDON, Dec. 2.—Although the opening of Parliament is still eight weeks distant, the Conservative party is already on the scene with three amendments to the address in reply to the speech from the throne.

One amendment attacks the Irish Eviction Tenants' Commission; another relates to the distress of the agricultural classes, and the third relates to the wavering policy of the Government in regard to Uganda.

Although the general run of the amendments must depend upon the announcements made in the Queen's speech, it is evident that those will prolong the discussion on the address, thus obstructing the work of Parliament, and that the object is to test the strength of the Government.

A prominent Liberal member of Parliament said today: "We expect the warmest time any Parliament has seen since the discussion of the reform bill of 1832."

What threatens to make it worse for members personally is the fact that the relations between the parties are so embittered that the party "whips" decline to try to arrange pairs.

Constant Vigilance Necessary Now. In the last Parliament the Gladstonians refused to pair with Liberal-Unionists, but they assented to arrangements with Conservatives.

Now the Liberal whips find neither side in the opposition will pair with Liberals. The result will be that every member will be kept in constant attendance in the House of Commons, for fear the Government's narrow majority may be submerged by some snipe vote.

The whole Irish party, many of the members of which have been in the habit of absenting themselves unless specially whipped up to vote on an Irish question, will be obliged to remain constantly on the defensive.

If they persist in their former custom of going to Ireland on the excuse of urgent personal business, the Government is certain to be defeated within one month after the opening of the session.

The unrepentant, accurately represents the attitude of the Ministerialists, who, however, continue to be confident of weathering the divisions on the address, and even hopeful of passing the home rule bill.

The Irish Still Believe in Gladstone. The inquiries made by the Associated Press in regard to the "bogus home rule speech" published in American papers a few days ago, show once more the solid confidence of the Irish leaders in Mr. Gladstone, and also the absolute unity of policy among the McCarthys. There is, therefore, reason for the belief that the party whips will bring every man to the House on the opening of Parliament, and will keep all these unflinching rule "is decided one way or the other.

The Conservatives, apropos of priestly intimation in Ireland and the unmeaning of Mr. Fullan, intend to introduce a bill making it illegal for priests to act as agents for illiterates or otherwise at polling stations. The Parrellies are counted upon to support the bill, but probably the Conservatives will be found to be mistaken in this expectation.

Prodigious! Immense! Another trouble for the Government, is the renewed agitation of the Irish tenant farmers for an abatement of the land tax rents fixed four years ago. The tenants declare that the fall in the prices of live stock and of farm products generally makes a revision of rents imperative. A temporary clause of the act of 1887, empowered the Land Commission to reduce rents in the ratio of the decline in agricultural prices. The clause was operative for only three years, and expired at a time when it would have done the most good. The Government will ask Parliament to restore the clause exactly as it was.

McCricket Claims Nearly Everything. John E. McCrickert, Recording Secretary of the Randall Club, made a statement early this morning in which he declared that the party headed by him had won all that it was worth fighting for in the election on Thursday. He gave to the opposition George S. Fleming, President; Christ Kote, Corresponding Secretary, and Louis Gellie, Jr., one of the seven trustees elected. All the rest he claimed his party had won, according to the corporation laws of the State.

Fooled Many Foreigners. Eugene Brown, who was charged by Inspector McKelvey with obtaining money under false pretense in selling to ignorant foreigners bonds on the European Obligation Company, was given a hearing before Magistrate McKenna last night and was held for trial at court. Detective Shore, who has been working on the case, has found a number of persons who were victimized and other suits will be lodged against the prisoner.

Discussing Ward Candidates. The Wallace Republican Club, of the First ward, Allegheny, held a meeting at Boyle's Hall, on Federal street, last night to discuss the candidacy of the three candidates for Select Council in that ward, Arthur Kennedy, William Josephous and R. J. Baxter. Mayor Kennedy and others addressed the meeting. There was a large crowd present and plenty of refreshments on hand.

Wanted to Go to the Penn. Fred Leise is charged with cruelty to his wife who is an invalid. It is claimed that he doesn't provide proper medicine for her and refused to build a fire to keep her warm. At Alderman Kerr's office, Leise asked to be sent to the penitentiary. He said his wife had been out of the house. The police think he is demerated and is reported to have remained in his front yard all night.

County Democracy to Indorse Somebody. A meeting of the County Democracy will be held at the Diamond street headquarters Tuesday night, when it is probable some one will be indorsed for Mayor and Controller. The nominations for officers of the association will also take place. Wm. J. Brown, the present Chairman, and all the other officers will probably be renominated without opposition.

The Dynamos Started. The new dynamo of the Pennsylvania road, intended to light the line to East Liberty, were started last evening. The plant consists of two powerful engines, with room for a third, and will soon be put in. The engineer claims the outfit is the finest in Pittsburgh. The machinery works nicely.

CAPTURED A CAVE.

Braddock Officers Descend Upon a Den of Thieves and Take Four of Them.

BRADDOCK, Dec. 2.—(Special.)—Headed by Chief of Police Spangler, three officers of the borough on hand tonight made a descent this afternoon on a gang of supposed thieves in a hollow near the works of the Corey Coal Company, near Edgewood. They brought in four men, who gave the names of Thomas Gallagher and James Clark, of Johnstown; Joseph Kennedy, of Pittsburgh, and Joseph Lawler. The place has long been known as a rendezvous for thieves and crooks. The four men arrested are members of a well-organized gang numbering more than a dozen, and they are supposed to be the parties who have been operating in this vicinity during the summer and fall.

They were quartered in the storied-roofed fashion, occupying a cave in a remote part of the hollow, and their den was stocked with food enough to keep a score of men during the greater part of the winter. The incident, the first of the week, which destroyed the coal company's engine house, is charged to these men. It is believed that there is a great deal of stolen property secured during the greater part of the winter. The men were taken to the station and held until they could be searched, but they found revolvers, knives and other cutlery.

AN OLD, OLD STORY.

Once More the Washah and Reading Roads Are Coming to Pittsburgh.

Once again the story is revived that the Washah and Reading Railroads are seeking an entrance into Pittsburgh over the Baltimore and Ohio line. The latest is that the Washah agents have been in the city for some time purchasing options on property along the Southside, and that a tract at Second avenue and Try street is to be secured for terminal facilities. As usual, no names are given. Fred Triaman, the central passenger agent, and W. L. Bowler, the commercial agent of the Washah, were seen last evening, but they don't know anything about it. They scouted the story.

ANARCHY OF CAPITAL.

A Dramatic Denunciation of the Reading Combine Made BY JERSEY'S ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Wherein the Law Officers When Applied to Workers and Wealth.

THE RAILROAD UNMERCIFULLY COERED

THEATON, N. J., Dec. 2.—During the Reading combine here to-day the argument closed with a speech by Attorney General Stockton, who at times became dramatic in his denunciation of the alleged conspiracy to plunder the people. He said that when merchants and laborers combined for self-protection, the order was, shoot them down; but when capital combined to squeeze wealth out of the public's necessities, every resource of the law was called forth to shield the conspirators. The Attorney General argued the technicalities of the case at great length under three heads, as follows:

First—The Chancellor has power to appoint a receiver, and should do so if it necessary to enforce a decree and prevent an abuse of corporation franchises.

Second—The supplemental information, with affidavits attached, proves conclusively that the order and injunction has been wilfully and deliberately violated.

Third—The affidavits of the defendants admit the disobedience of the injunction. The facts stated deprive the associations of literal obedience of all probative force.

The Attorney General analyzed the affidavits of the defendants to prove that they were disingenuously constructed. He said: No better example of an arbitrary increase made under the natural law of demand and supply, can be imagined than an increase made from time to time by a meeting of the agents of those interested in mining and transportation of coal. The increase was made, not by the law of demand and supply, but by the arbitrary order of a coal combine.

The Attorney General, in conclusion, said the injunction has been wilfully and deliberately violated by the use of the Central Railroad, the Pennsylvania Railroad, and to carry its own coal by means of the disguise of the agreement between the coal companies and by preventing legitimate competition. The question is whether the court would permit its orders to be defied with impunity, or whether the anarchy should prevail in the State of New Jersey.

A COSTLY CITY HALL.

The Philadelphia Building Has Cost $16,000,000, and Is Still Unfinished.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 2.—City Councils have resolved that no money whatever for the construction of the public buildings shall be appropriated out of the proceeds of the annual tax levy for 1893, unless the commission shall within ten days furnish Councils with a statement exhibiting item by item the manner in which the appropriation requested is to be expended, and also an approximate statement of the sum necessary to complete and furnish the buildings in accordance with existing plans and specifications.

This action has long been looked for. The Public Building Commission, which has sole charge of the erection of Philadelphia's big city hall, was created by the Legislature over 20 years ago, and has so far defied all attempts of the city officials to inquire into its affairs. It has demanded certain sums each year, and the money has been cruditly handed over. The amount asked for this year is slightly over $2,000,000. When the erection of the building was begun it was to be finished in a few years at an estimated cost of $5,000,000. Over $16,000,000 have been spent on it. Nobody knows how much more will be required, and no one believes it will be finished before the beginning of the next century.

THE COST TO THE STATE. Adjutant General Greenland Figures the Homebased Expenses at $450,000.

Adjutant General Greenland now estimates the cost of the recent troubles at Homebased to the State for the pay, maintenance and transportation of troops, etc., at $450,000. Of this amount warrants have been drawn in the aggregate amount of $575,223.49. The claim of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company for $52,000 for transportation and other claims not yet paid are not included in this amount.

To Clear the River Channel. Major Sweeney, of Cincinnati, the United States Engineer for the Ohio river, has ordered that Grassy bar, at Logstown, be dredged, so as to clear the channel. The work will save the way for the new dyke which will soon be built at this place. Little work will be done before next spring.

Found a Box of Brasses. H. C. Johnston yesterday found a box of 500 cents of brasses in the rear of Oliver's foundry, on the Southside. The find was taken to the Twenty-eighth ward station house, where they await identification. The master of the foundry has complete equipment for a 10-horse mill.

Struggling With Assessment Appeals. Commissioner Beale spent yesterday hearing testimony in the appeal of the Phillips property in the Twenty-second ward which was before the commission on Wednesday last. The assessment on the property was $107,000 and this was reduced to $50,000.

A LIVELY MEETING.

Colored Voters Meet to Discuss Fire Department Postions—A Few Interesting Episodes—A Free Fight Prevented by a Minister—Resolutions Adopted.

About 200 colored voters of the Eighth, Eleventh, Twelfth and Thirteenth wards and the Southside gathered in the basement of the Franklin School last night. The meeting was for the purpose of forming an independent political association to secure more representation for the colored people in the city offices.

Ajax Jones called the meeting to order and acted as Chairman. "Colonel" Bob Smothers interrupted the meeting and was promptly set upon by Ajax. An uproar began at once, and all the members were on their feet at one time. Ajax drew off his coat and offered to lick any man who disputed his authority. For a time a free fight was imminent, but Rev. Terry came to the front and quieted the disturbance.

Mr. Jackson then spoke in favor of Mr. Beinhauer for Mayor. At the conclusion of Mr. Jackson's speech another fight of ten minutes ensued, during which Ajax managed to shake his fist under the nose of every man in the room. It was finally settled by firing him out of the chair and installing Mr. Jackson in his place.

A number of speeches by Abraham T. Hall, the colored editor of the Weekly Mirror; Moses Watson, R. H. Allen and others followed. It was decided that a committee of three be appointed from each ward to attend a mass meeting in the city Council Chamber next Saturday evening.

R. H. Allen offered a set of resolutions which were adopted unanimously declaring that as $225,000 a year is expended on the fire department the colored citizens should be given the privilege of manning one fire company. In order to get this recognition the resolution provides for a committee on which each ward having colored voters shall be represented, to act with Councilmen and to secure the signatures of all colored voters to a proper petition. In event of the petition being granted an impartial representation on the company is provided for, and a record will be kept of any Councilman who fails to act in harmony.

How's This?—A consignment of men's extra fine calf welt shoes, in lace or congress styles, either tip-top or plain, sold everywhere else at $4.50; they are at $3 per pair.

IS THE GRIP COMING?

Everything Indicates Its Speedy Approach—What the Indications Are Concerning It Ahead.

Reports from Europe which are appearing in the papers show that the grip has broken out in a most violent form in England, and the indications are that it is commencing its fourth annual tour of the world. The physicians here in America report many people suffering from symptoms which indicate the coming of this terrible scourge. While there may not as yet be an epidemic, there are enough cases and enough serious cases to demand the greatest care and caution.

The proverb, "In time of peace prepare for war," is one of the most valuable sayings ever uttered. The grip, with all its unpleasantness, with all its seriousness, with all its danger, can be prevented, if taken in time, and if people properly prepare for it. There is but one way to prepare for the coming of the grip and that is to tone up the system, build up the energies, strengthen the life, and thus avoid its attacks by being thoroughly prepared for them. This can, however, be done except in one way: That way is by the use of some pure stimulant, which will help the vital forces, increase the circulation and strengthen the life generally. There is, however, but one pure medicinal stimulant known to the medical world or the American people. That stimulant has been before the public for years, and it is exceedingly popular with both men and women. It is Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey. It is not an ordinary whiskey, but a pure medicinal stimulant. Its popularity is wonderful, and it is due entirely to the fact that it is so superior in every way. For prevention of the coming of the grip it is unequalled, for it fortifies the system to withstand its attacks. Care should be taken that no cheap or grocer's sell you some other whiskey which he may claim to be just as good. There is nothing which can take its place.
