WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 23, 1864.
SPIRIT OF THE NEW YORK PRESS.

Leading Editorials from the New York Papers this morning.

THE SITUATION.

The movement of General Sherman is... very generally as if it were a perfect independent operation, and as if his fallow or success were to be determined wholly without reference to the conduct of the war at other points.

Rebels were reported that Lee has already... very generally as if it were a perfect independent operation, and as if his fallow or success were to be determined wholly without reference to the conduct of the war at other points.

As for Hood and Beauregard, they are hardly... very generally as if it were a perfect independent operation, and as if his fallow or success were to be determined wholly without reference to the conduct of the war at other points.

SHERMAN'S PERILS.
The Rebels might not be able to send any... very generally as if it were a perfect independent operation, and as if his fallow or success were to be determined wholly without reference to the conduct of the war at other points.

The Nation's Fair at Boston.
A box of arms and trophies... very generally as if it were a perfect independent operation, and as if his fallow or success were to be determined wholly without reference to the conduct of the war at other points.
