Oh! Let Me Be Your Boy Again.

[The following lines were suggested, on hearing of the sudden death of a young man of great worth and refinement, and beloved by all who knew him, who, on the night of his death, laid his head on his mother's lap and said:—"Let me be your boy again, mother; let me be your little boy again; kiss me, dear mother." Continuing this strain of pure emotional sentiment for a few minutes, he suddenly rose, threw back his head, and died on the instant.]

Roll back, ye years of youth's bright joys—
Roll back, proud manhood's riper years;
Roll back, e'en let my childish fears,
Come to me with these pleasant toys;
Which wiled my happy hours away,
When dawned my early childhood's day.

Steal o'er me once again, those dreams,
Of childhood's pure and holy love,
Which lighted from the realms above;
My path shown clear as limpid streams,
Which, sparkling in the noon-tide sun,
My life reflected—as they run.

Kiss me, my Mother dear, once more,
Oh! let me be your boy again—
Let me but hear that soft, sweet strain,
And soothe my spirit as of yore;
Now fold me in your loved embrace
From my sad soul each shadow chase.

Am I, dear Mother, loved by thee
As well, as when in childhood's time—
My love was purely, fondly thine—
I knelt in prayer beside thy knee?
And asked for mercy, grace, and light,
To guide my youthful steps aright.

He rose, and stretched his hands towards heaven
With upturned face:—he gasped for breath,
While on his brow the seal of death
Was fixed:—the vital cord was riven;
And his pure spirit rose above,
To th' Angel world of light and love.

Thus do we see, through all life's way,
That mystic cord, a MOTHER'S LOVE,
Unchanging as the powers above,
Which points the soul to endless day.
That holy love, which, felt from birth,
STILL lives, when earth returns to earth.

The New York Musicians' Strike—Mixed-Up Condition of Affairs.

From the New York Times of yesterday.

The "Musical Mutual Protective Union" does not seem to be a prosperous organization. Its best members are dropping from it with a steadiness which in the end will leave nothing but the scum. Recently the Union has endeavored to conciliate the theatrical managers. It requested that a committee might be appointed to agree upon terms for the coming season. In a commendable spirit of conciliation three representative managers met and consulted with three members of the M. M. P. U.

It was found impossible, however, to submit to the claim asserted by the Union, namely, that the latter should suggest the list from which the various theatres should select their artists. In other words, that none but members of the Union should be permitted to play. Mr. Wheatley, the President of the Managers' Association, represented this difficulty to the President of the M. M. P. U., and the following final letters were then exchanged. Mr. Wheatley's letter strikes us as being rather hefty:—

No. 84 LUDLOW STREET, NEW YORK, May 21.—W. Wheatley, Esq., President Managers' Association.—Dear SIR:—Yours of the 19th, signifying the determination of the Managers' Association, with regard to the Association of which I have the honor to be President, is at hand. I regret very deeply that our respective committees could not accomplish the object for which they met. And that they could not, in my opinion, is owing to the misconstruction your Association puts upon a certain article in our constitution. That article has existed since the formation of our society, and was never intended as a menace to any person or persons who employ musicians, but as an obligation upon ourselves to prevent the system of undermining which prevailed so extensively in our profession when the society first came into existence, a system which is carried out even now by a very numerous class, who, having a mechanical business during the day, find it a very profitable source of amusement to have a convenient place of resort during the evening, well satisfied to keep the orchestral seats warm at any price chance may bestow.

It is such as these who have brought our branch of art—esteemed by the ancients as the first—down to what it is, almost a reproach. We have had some such among us, and may have still, but they are not, and never have been, welcome members. Our Society is not for the protection of these, but for those whose whole life is devoted to the art I so humbly represent on this occasion.

Our members cannot earn a living out of philharmonic concerts, nor by six months' engagement at the opera, nor yet by a nine months' engagement in a theatre, at the rates now given. It is therefore necessary that we look out for such good-paying jobs as may chance to come along during the year, to enable us to see the end safely. It is for the latter kind of business that our article of agreement binds us not to play with non-members. For they are the rats who have gnawed almost the lives out of us by taking our business second-hand, and at lower rates than first charged by us.

I admit at the same time it covers the performers in theatres, not as a menace, however, but as a necessity, consequent upon the various interests we are brought to protect.

With this explanation, I trust your Association will better understand why we consider it absolutely necessary to retain the before-mentioned clause. What we have asked of the Managers is, that we agree upon a minimum price for the season that will be satisfactory to both parties, for which we will give a guarantee that our members, if engaged, shall fulfil their engagements to the end of the year. We do not, and have not attempted to exact a promise that you will engage our members in preference to all others, but leave it open to you to engage or not as you choose. Leaving other matters to take care of themselves, and still hoping that a better understanding may exist between our respective associations, I have the honor to subscribe myself, very truly, yours,

D. L. DOWNING,
President Musical Mutual Protective Union.

NIBLO'S GARDEN, NEW YORK, June 7, 1866.—D. L. Downing, Esq., President Musical Mutual Protective Union.—Dear SIR:—I have received your favor of May 21. There can be no possible misconstruction of the article to which the Managers' Association objects, however exalted may have been the motives of your society in framing it. It distinctly compels every musician of your Union not to perform under any leader or with any artist who does not derive a privilege of employment from you, and would have the effect at this moment of obliging any manager who engaged the services of any of your body to part with his present leader and orchestra, an alternative which the Managers' Association respectfully declines.

It also respectfully declines to arbitrarily dictate the maximum or minimum amount which any artist is to receive for his services.

For the rest, without venturing to question the correctness of the very unflattering estimate which you, with such unequalled opportunities of judging, have expressed of the character of many members of the Musical Union, of which you are the President, and of the motives which influence them in the practice of their art—which, I may observe, more than justifies the unfavorable view which the public have taken of many of the recent proceedings of your Association—the managers cannot but feel, that had the fact occurred to your recollection that the leading members of your body, by forsaking, when employed in the orchestra, often for many nights in the week, the duties they had undertaken to discharge, and committing them to substitutes from the very class now so severely reprobated, encouraged, and sanctioned for their own advantage all those evils to which you attribute the deterioration of your profession, you would have spoken of brother artists with somewhat more forbearance and moderation.

In closing our correspondence, which, as a matter of justice to both parties, the Managers' Association deem it but proper to publish, permit me to renew on my part, and that of the Association of which I am President, the expression of good feeling, with which I remain yours, very truly,

W. WHEATLEY,
President Managers' Association.

Gossip of the War in Europe.

Dr. Nelaton, the physician who extracted the ball from Garibaldi's foot, has declared that he has great doubts of Garibaldi's fitness for going through a campaign, or indeed undergoing any great fatigue.

The sons of Don Juan de Bourbon have taken service in the Austrian army as captains of artillery, and several old Carlist emigrants have left Paris to enlist under Francis Joseph.

A letter from Gleiwitz (Prussia) relates this incident:—"The men of the landwehr were on the point of starting; the train was ready, but the wives of the soldiers opposed its departure, throwing themselves in their despair on the rails in front of the locomotive. Recourse to violence could not be had. What was to be done? The station master proposed to the women to accompany their husbands, but in separate carriages. The poor creatures consented; but when the train started, the carriages with the women did not move. The station master had had them detached. He took care to get away before the discovery was made."

The Austrian authorities at Cracow have received instructions from Vienna to prepare valuations of upwards of two hundred houses in the town, which it is proposed to pull down in case Cracow should be besieged by the enemy.

A Florence letter to the Chicago Tribune contains the following:—

"There are many moving incidents in the volunteering. Yesterday a wealthy citizen stood looking on at the departure of several hundred young men from the station at Milan. Just as the train whistle began to screech out its warning that the hour of departure had come, a familiar voice cried out from a third-class car, 'Good-by, papa.' He looked up, and there was his oldest son, in the full glory of the red blouse, going off to the war. The father was dashed for a second, but there was no time to lose. He rushed up to the car, kissed the boy, and handed him his purse, with only one reproof:—'Had you told me, Johnny, there would have been more money in the purse.'"

DR. HYLTON'S
Constitutional Renovator
FOR THE RAPID CURE OF
Incipient Consumption, and all Diseases Pertaining to Consumption,
SUCH AS
Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, and all Diseases of the Lungs and Respiratory Organs, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Loss of Appetite, Nervous Debility, with Great Lassitude of the Muscular System, etc.

The success of this medicine in the cure of disease has withstood many critical tests in this country and elsewhere; its salutary effects on disease are widely disseminated, and require no effort to parry the prejudices of the skeptic.

"DR. HYLTON:—I take this opportunity to inform you that I consider you the greatest doctor on diseases of the lungs in the country. I had a spitting of blood, with large lumps of green matter; a violent pain in my breast and shoulders, a straining cough; and several of the most eminent physicians gave me up as a hopeless case of consumption. I tried all the remedies of the day and gained no relief but grew worse; when a friend advised me to try your Renovator, satisfying me that you were a regular graduate of the University of Pennsylvania and not a self-styled doctor. I used but nine bottles of your Renovator, and to the surprise of my friends, I am now a well man, and able to attend daily to my business.

"Any one needing further particulars of my case can call on me and be satisfied.

DR. LESSEY'S VEGETABLE PILLS CURE Dyspepsia, Diarrhœa, Rheumatism, Sick Headache, and all derangements of the Liver. They purify the blood and make the skin soft and fair. For sale by Dr. LESSEY, No. 733 N. NINTH Street, Philadelphia, and by Druggists generally.

CAMDEN, N. J., September 2, 1865.—Dr. Lessey—Dear Sir:—It gives me great pleasure to add my testimony in favor of your "Vegetable Liver Pills." I had been afflicted with deranged condition of the Liver for ten years, and, during that time, suffered intensely from acrid discharges from stomach and bowels, seriously prostrating my physical and mental energies for weeks at a time, so much so that my life was despaired of. But, through a kind Providence, I was introduced to you, and by the use of your Pills I have been wonderfully restored, not having had an attack of my old complaint or lost a single Sabbath service. They act like a charm. Had it not been for them, I have no doubt I should have been laid aside from the ministry.

I must add a few lines in favor of your "Life Preserver," or Vegetable Liniment. I have used it for Erysipelas, Scalds and Burns and Inflammations; it produces remarkable results. I was cured of a very bad sore by its use. Many of my neighbors are using it and it gives universal satisfaction. It should be in every house. Yours,

PROPOSALS FOR MATERIALS TO BE SUPPLIED TO THE NAVY YARDS, UNDER THE COGNIZANCE OF THE BUREAU OF STEAM ENGINEERING

NAVY DEPARTMENT,
BUREAU OF STEAM ENGINEERING
WASHINGTON, D. C., June 19, 1866.

Sealed Proposals to furnish Materials for the Navy for the fiscal year, ending June 30, 1867, will be received at this Bureau until 10 o'clock A. M. of the 18th of July next, at which time the proposals will be opened.

The proposals must be addressed to the Chief of the Bureau of Steam Engineering, Navy Department, Washington, and must be endorsed "Proposals for Materials for the Navy," that they may be distinguished from other business letters.

Printed schedules for any class, together with instructions to bidders, giving the forms of proposal, of guarantee, and of certificate of guarantors, will be furnished to such persons as desire to bid, on application to the commandants of the respective navy yards, and those of all the yards on application to the Bureau.

The commandant of each navy yard and the purchasing Paymaster of each station will have a copy of the schedules of the other yards, for examination only, in order that persons who intend to bid may judge whether it is desirable to make application for any of the classes of those yards.

The proposal must be for the whole of a class; and all applications for information or for the examination of samples, must be made to the commandants of the respective yards.

The proposals must be accompanied by a certificate from the Collector of Internal Revenue for the district in which the bidder resides, that he has a license to deal in the articles for which he proposes; and he must further show that he is a manufacturer of, or a regular dealer in, the articles which he offers to supply. The guarantors must be certified by the Assessor of Internal Revenue for the district in which they reside.

The contract will be awarded to the person who makes the lowest bid and gives the guarantee required by law, the Navy Department, however, reserving the right to reject the lowest bid, or any which it may deem exorbitant.

Sureties in the full amount will be required to sign the contract, and their responsibility must be certified to the satisfaction of the Navy Department. As additional security, twenty per centum will be withheld from the amount of the bills until the contract shall have been completed, and eighty per centum of the amount of each bill, approved in triplicate by the commandant of the respective yards, will be paid by the Paymaster of the station designated in the contract in funds or certificates, at the option of the Government, within ten days after the warrant for the same shall have been passed by the Secretary of the Treasury.
