Freedom, national: Slavery, sectional!

FROM WASHINGTON.

In Senate, after a long and complicated discussion, as to routes, &c., the Pacific Railroad Bill passed in this shape, to wit: Three thousand dollars were appropriated to advertising for Proposals and Plans for the work—proposals to be open for one year, so that the next Congress may have light upon the subject, and act in re intelligently and energetically. This is perhaps the wisest course. It is a good and necessary work, but nothing will be lost by a little more knowledge of plans and routes.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—The Democratic Senators held a caucus this morning on the subject of the Tariff. Mr. Hunter, of Virginia, offered a resolution declaring it inexpedient to change the law at the present session. Mr. Bigler proposed a substitute, as follows: "Resolved, That the revenue being insufficient to meet the expenses of the government, it is wise and expedient to increase the import duties to meet the deficiency." Mr. Bigler's substitute was voted down. Mr. Hunter's resolution was adopted by a large majority.

Jan. 29.—The President has prepared a special message to Congress, showing that an increase of revenue is needed, and that twenty millions of dollars will be required to meet the deficit of the present fiscal year.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30, 1859.—The decision of the Senate Democratic caucus against the Tariff, seems to have put an end to all expectations of any change during this Congress. I learn that the Southern Democrats in the House are nearly unanimous in their opposition to any modification. They consider Pennsylvania as irretrievably lost to the party, anyhow, and deem it useless to try to regain her. The President, however, expresses much indignation at the action of the caucus. Secretary Cobb being asked last night what was the difference between him and Mr. Buchanan, replied that "The President is opposing the Administration." Mr. Bigler declared in the caucus, that the vote not to modify the Tariff surrendered Pennsylvania to the Republicans. Mr. Douglas participated in the caucus, and voted with the majority.

The refusal of the Commissioner of Patents to extend the McCormick reaper patent for seven years, is a matter of importance to industrial interests.

The Committee on Elections decided in favor of Bird B. Chapman as the rightful delegate from Nebraska Territory, in place of Mr. Ferguson, the sitting member. This contested case has been pending from the commencement of the present Congress.

The Senate Democratic caucus, at the meeting yesterday, agreed to support the increase of the rates of letter postage to five cents.

The opinion is expressed that the Spanish Government will refuse to receive our Minister, Mr. Preston, in consequence of the indignation at the President's proposition to buy Cuba.

Feb. 1, in the House, Mr. Grow, of Pa., called up his motion to reconsider the vote by which the Homestead Bill was referred to the Committee of the Whole on the state of the Union. Mr. Grow stated that the bill had been discussed for the last eight years, more or less. The motion was agreed to. Mr. Hughes, of Ind., moved to table the bill. The motion was negatived; yeas 76, nays 113. The Homestead bill then passed by a vote of 120 yeas, to 76 nays. The bill provides that any person who is the head of a family, over twenty-one years of age, and a citizen of the United States, or who has filed his intention to become such according to the naturalization, laws shall be entitled to enter a quarter section of any vacant or unappropriated land, and hold the same on condition of actual settlement and cultivation. The bill has been a favorite with Mr. Grow for many years, and its passage in his own branch is a great personal triumph for him. The Republicans, we believe, all voted with him—most of the Americans—and a few Democrats.

The Democrats in the House from the North are beginning to kick against their Southern masters! The Republicans as a body will vote against supplies unless they know where the money is to come from. The Southerners, however, remain firm against the Whig Tariff policy, and expect to "whip in their Northern dogs" so that they can have their own way as usual! The poor "Democrats" from Pennsylvania are down on their marrow bones, begging for a Tariff to save them and their party from ruin, but their rulers so far appear to be heartless and inexorable, and think they can fool Pennsylvania by a cry of "Slavery and the Tariff of '42," in the campaign of 1860. We shall see!

Although there is evidently a majority in the House in favor of the passage of the Senate French Spoilation bill, its reference and er the decision of the Speaker, to the Committee of the Whole on the state of the Union, may be regarded as a conclusive evidence of its defeat.

J. M. Spullock has been confirmed as U. S. Marshal, for the district of Georgia in place of Mr. Stewart, who was removed on the ground of not having used sufficient vigilance in the yacht Wanderer case.

NEW YORK, Jan. 31.—Importers and merchants here are generally perplexed with the rumors from Washington, relative to the tariff. Under the impression that the duties upon certain articles would be raised, some heavy orders have been sent from here during the past fortnight, which would not have been forwarded but for the belief that that impression would be realized. As it is too late to countermand all of the orders, the result will be a supply of certain descriptions of merchandize next summer, for which there will be no market.

BOSTON, Jan. 30—The British Brig Brill has arrived from Gibralter, having been ninety days out. For six weeks of the voyage the crew had but one biscuit [illegible]

Where the Money Goes.

The grossest frauds, in connection with the Oregon and Washington War Debt, have been brought to light by the House Committee on Military Affairs, through the efforts of Mr. Faulkner, the Chairman. The whole debt, as reported by the Government agent, is about $6,000,000, of which the Committee assert that not more than about one million is justly due. Some of the charges by which this difference is made, are most outrageous. Pistols are charged at $35 each; muskets at $125; oats at $5 a bushel; hay at at $120 a ton, and other things in proportion. At the last session of Congress, when the debt was first brought to the notice of the committee, the War department recommended its payment, but Mr. Faulkner caused action in the matter to be deferred, in order that it might be fully investigated. By this delay and investigation, the somewhat considerable sum of from four to five millions will be saved to the Treasury.

☞That is just the manner in which all our Indian wars have been made so costly—gross overcharges and shameless robberies—and, heretofore, Government officers have connived at these frauds. Mr. Faulkner is a Virginia Whig, who acts with the Democrats on account of the Slavery issue, but he deserves the credit of men everywhere for this exposure of the way our people have been robbed under pretext of Indian wars and appropriations for military or naval outlays.

BOGUS EMIGRATION COMPANIES to Cuba are now being formed, in the South, and in some of the principal Northern cities. These companies are a part of the same policy which was pursued so disastrously, a few years ago, in reference to Nicaragua. Fillibusterism is assuming all kinds of shapes and names. Should President Buchanan have placed in his hands thirty millions of dollars, might he not have fitted out quite a number of emigration companies to Cuba? By doing so, he would but be acting in accordance with the published declarations of the Ostend Manifesto. Young men! beware of these schemes to fleece you, and make of you catspaws for Slavery!

The Republicans of Congress, it is stated, have opened a subscription paper, which was speedily filled up, for the purpose of raising between five and six hundred dollars to purchase a service of plate to be presented to the Hon. Joshua R. Giddings, as a testimonial of their appreciation of his public labors in the councils of the nation.

John Mitchell, who left Ireland for her good, and who, during his sojourn at the South has advocated the revival of the African slave trade, threatens to come North and turn Abolitionist unless the South "wake up" to sustain his paper within a time specified. It is hoped that the South will wake up.

[illegible] blooded fire eating Democrat, declared the other day that if a Republican President was elected in 1860 he would advocate secession from the Union. All this we suppose is preliminary to another "union saving" campaign.

Talk about buying Cuba with an empty Treasury! It is proposed to sell the District of Columbia as the only way to raise to pay present debts.

Last year, over 12,000 letters, containing $60,000, were missent in the U. S. mails, nine tenths of which have been restored to their owners.

The circulation of Parson Brownlow's debate on Slavery in Philadelphia with Mr. Pryne, is prohibited in the South.

A gentleman was referring, in presence of Thaddeus Stevens, to the possibility of Mr. Buchanan turning against the South, for the pupose of retrieving his lost fortune in Pennsylvania, and asked Mr. Stevens what he thought would be the result? Mr. Stevens replied that there would be no trouble about that, as the South could reclaim him, any time, under the Fugitive Slave Law! The inquirer seemed perfectly satisfied.

FROM HARRISBURG.

TONNAGE TAX.—The Philadelphia Press states that the Pennsylvania Railroad Company refuse to pay the tonnage tax, imposed by their charter, to the Commonwealth, and intend to test its constitutionality in the courts, as advised by their counsel, in an opinion recently published. The amount due at the present time, for the last six months, is over $100,000.

In the House, Mr. Patterson presented petitions from Centre, Clinton and Union counties, in favor of the Schreyer's Gap, M'Call's and Rangler's state road.

Jan. 31, Mr. Wagonseller presented nine remonstrances from 872 citizens of Union county, against said road.

In Senate, Mr. Gregg read in place a supplement to the act incorporating the Lewisburg, Centre & Spruce Creek Railroad Company—(to extend the time for its completion we suppose.)

Mr. WAGONSELLER read in place a bill to pay the claim of Charles Fisher.

Also, one to refund Michael Kleckner, and others certain monies wrongfully paid by them as bail for Henry Rodarmel, of the Susquehanna Division of the Penn'a Canal.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company have commenced the improvement of the Main Branch of the canal from Columbia to the Junction, giving it such a depth as to admit five feet of water.

HARRISBURG, Feb. 1.—In the Criminal Court, this morning, C. M. Donavan, an ex-member of the Legislature, convicted of an assault and battery on J. M. Church, a member from Philadelphia, was sentenced by Judge Pierson to undergo an imprisonment of three months, to pay a fine of two hundred dollars and to give security in the sum of one thousand dollars to keep the peace.

☞Some of our exchanges are in gross error in stating that none of the Editorial fraternity participate in the honors of official station in the organization of the Legislature. We know not how it is in the Democratic Senate, but in the House—our branch—Mr. REA, the Chief Clerk, has been long connected with the Philadelphia press, and Mr. RAUCH, one of the Transcribers, has been a hard working printer and editor from his youth up, in Lancaster, Northampton and Carbon counties. Thus our fraternity have their full share according to their number, if not according to their deserts. Those who were disappointed, do themselves no credit by repining—"better luck next time."

Burning of the Steamer North Carolina---Loss of Life ---The Mails Destroyed.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 30.—The Mail Steamer North Carolina, of the Norfolk line, was totally destroyed by fire, yesterday morning, in the Chesapeake Bay, near Smith's Point.

All the passengers and crew were saved, with the exception of the Rev. Mr. Curtis, of Chester, S. C., who, with the steward, a man by the name of Waters, was burnt to death. The boat is insured for $70,000, and the loss valued at over $100,000.

The consternation was so great among the passengers, when the fire was first discovered, that it is miraculous that more lives were not lost. So rapidly did the flames spread, that it was found impossible to save the mails or any portion of the boat. Many of the passengers saved nothing but what they stood in.

FURTHER PARTICULARS.

It was near the mouth of the Potomac, about 2 o'clock in the morning, when the fire was discovered, and although—as all testify—the officers and men did all they could to save her, the boat ultimately burnt to the water's edge and sank. The passengers were rescued by life boats, and all the men were saved, except Rev. Mr. Curtis, and it is impossible to account for his loss. The purser saved only his papers, and until the roll was called Mr. Curtis was not missed. The fire was discovered in the clothes press, on the upper saloon. The clothes press was forward of the machinery, and the berth occupied by Mr. Curtis was aft, and it is supposed that he was in a sound sleep, and rather hard of hearing; consequently did not know anything of the disaster.

Mr. Crapon, of Wilmington, N. C., with his wife and infant, were in one of the staterooms, the egress from which through the door had been entirely cut off by the flames. He first got through the window to the deck, and then assisted his wife and child. When he had reached the lower deck, he asked his wife to hand him the child, but, with a true mother's affection, she held it to her own heart, and only consented to yield it to the father after she had got to the lower deck. Mr. C. then threw the infant overboard, and, quick as thought, sprang into the water and caught it in his arms. Mrs. C. followed, and all three were then in the water. Fortunately, one of the boats was under the guard, and after he had safely [illegible] the boat, got in himself. It is said by those who [illegible] the infant, through all, did not shriek or cry. Before they reached the boat, Capt. Fitzgerald, one of the passengers, plunged into the water to aid in the rescue of the mother and child, and assisted in the task.

All the boats were now in the water, and there only remained Capt. Cannon, Mr. Parks, the first mate, engineers, firemen and crew, on board. The raft was then launched, and all, except the Captain and Mr. Parks, nine persons, got on it. Then Mr. Parks got into one of the boats, and Captain C., the last to leave, got into another. It was soon found that the raft could not support so many persons, and five were taken off, leaving only four, all of whom were partially under water. After having been towed out a short distance, the remainder were taken into the boats. It was then supposed that all were on board the boats.

There were seven ladies on board the boat, all of whom barely escaped to the small boats in their night clothes, not having an opportunity to get even their shoes and stockings. The exception was a lady, whose nervous condition would not allow her to sleep, and she was in full dress, as she had not gone to bed.

PITTSBURG, PA, Feb. 1.—Last night about 11 o'clock, a frame house on the outskirts of Allegheny city, occupied by Mr Rodgers, a carpenter, was totally consumed by fire. Mr. Rodgers, his wife, and three children, were burnt to death in the flames; only one of the family, a boy, eleven years of age, being saved. The fire originated in the lower story, while the family slept above, and the flames spread so rapidly that it was impossible to save the inmates. Their charred bodies were recovered from the ruins to-day, and a Coroner's inquest has been held, but nothing was elicited from the evidence to indicate the origin of the fire. The father was intoxicated when he retired to rest.

AUGUSTA, Jan. 31.—Adams' express car was robbed on Friday last of about $40,000, somewhere between Montgomery, Ala., and Atlanta, Ga. The money was mostly in five and ten dollar notes, on the Georgia and South Carolina banks. A reward of $5000 is offered for the recovery of the money.

Marion Crop, recently convicted of the murder of police officer Rigdon, in Baltimore, Md., has been sentenced to death, and at once removed to the Baltimore jail.

LOTTERY GAMBLING.—The Boston Herald mentions the case of two men, who recently left that city, one of whom lost about $12,000, and the other nearly $40,000, by gambling and purchasing lottery tickets.

Christian Jacoby, and David S. Evans, both convicted of wife murder, will be executed on Friday, May 20, in Pittsburg.

The coolest place we have yet heard of is in Bangor, Maine. During the cold snap in January, as we learn from a local journal, the noise of the nails drawn out by the intense frost resembled the discharge of fire arms! The editor says he was afraid to pass a wooden building or a board fence.

A series of Douglas resolutions has been voted down in the Missouri Legislature. Yet Missouri is claimed for Douglas. Queer!

Are your Deeds, Mortgages, &c., Recorded?

I desire to call the attention of the people of Union county to the importance of the subject involved in the above question—a subject upon which very unbusiness-like carelessness, in some quarters, and gross ignorance in others, largely prevails. I will put before you, in as short form as possible, the Law on the subject, and then offer you an additional inducement in a reduction of the fees now allowed by law.

What Instruments may be Recorded.

All Patents from the Commonwealth; all Deeds of sheriffs, coroners, marshals, and treasurers; all deeds made in pursuance of a decree of any court; releases evidencing the payment of any legacy, or given to any executor, administrator, assignee, trustee, or guardian, as well if made without the State as within, if the lands charged lie within; all deeds of county commissioners; all assignments of mortgages and powers of attorney authorizing their satisfaction; all receipts for taxes on unseated lands, and for money paid for their redemption; all contracts concerning land, provided they be in writing, and whether under seal or not.

The Time of Recording Deeds.

That all deeds and conveyances, which from and after the publication hereof, (March 18, 1775,) shall be made and executed within this province, of or concerning any lands, tenements or hereditaments in this province, or whereby the same may be in any way affected in law or equity, shall be acknowledged by one of the grantors or bargainers, or proved by one or more of the subscribing witnesses to such deed, and shall be recorded in the office for recording of deeds in the county where such lands lie, within six months after the execution of such deeds and conveyances; and every such deed and conveyance so made and executed, and which shall not be proved and recorded as aforesaid, shall be adjudged fraudulent and void against any subsequent purchaser for valuable consideration, UNLESS such deed be recorded before the proving and recording of the deed under which such subsequent purchaser claims. The Law is the same with reference to the recording of deeds made out of the State, conveying lands within it, except that the time is extended to one year.

Of the Recording of Mortgages.

No deed or mortgage, or defeasable deed in the nature of mortgages, hereafter to be made, (May 28, 1715,) shall be good or sufficient to convey or pass any freehold or inheritance or to grant any estate therein for life or years, unless such deed be acknowledged or proved and recorded within six months after the date thereof, where such lands lie, as hereinbefore directed for other deeds. All mortgages shall have priority according to the date of recording the same, without regard to the time of making or executing such deeds. No mortgage shall be a lien, until such mortgage shall have been recorded, or left for record.

The proposed Reduction in the Fees is this:

Instead of legal fees—one cent for every ten words written, beside the certificate, 37½ cents, and the tax, 50 cents—I will charge, upon every paper left for record for the space of three months from and after this date, one cent for every twenty words written, the other costs to remain the same as by law, reserving the right to demand and receive the 50 cents tax invariably in advance.

ERYSIPELAS.

The editor of the Daily News speaks in the following terms, in that paper of January 31st, 1852, concerning Dr. Davis' Depurative, which cured him of Erysipelas:

DR. DAVIS' DEPURATIVE.—We are not in the habit of commending to our readers the use of panaceas, depuratives, and nostrums, which may happen to be advertised in our columns. Having, however, used Dr. Davis' medicine and found it to be really possessed of excellent curative qualities for Erysipelas, we take great pleasure in saying so, and commending the Purative to others thus afflicted.

RHEUMATISM.

Philadelphia, August, 1852.

In January, 1851, my daughter, then in her nineteenth year, was attacked with Inflamatory Rheumatism. All her joints were much swollen, and she suffered the most excruciating pain for three months or more. I called in a physician, who continued to attend her without any improvement. Getting much discouraged, I concluded to try Dr. Davis' Depurative; the first bottle seem produced a decided change for the better. She continued the medicine for some time and it effected a perfect cure; she has remained free of Rheumatism and her health good ever since, being upwards of two years.

THROAT DISEASE.

This large class of diseases, including Ulcerations, Inflamations, Bronchial Irritations, &c., is most successfully treated by the use of Dr. Davis' Depurative and Dr. Davis' Throat Application. Read the following case of speedy cure after long continued suffering:

East Town, Chester Co., July 2, 1855.

DR. DAVIS—Dear Sir:

About five years ago I was attacked with a disease of the throat, which came on gradually, but at times when I would take cold the pain and suffering would be very distressing, accompanied with loss of voice to such an extent that I could not speak above a whisper. The disease continued getting worse, notwithstanding I was under the medical treatment of four different physicians. Becoming alarmed at my condition, I concluded to go to Philadelphia and consult you, which you recollect I did in the winter of 1851, when you recommended me to take your Depurative; and by the use of four bottles of it, in connexion with your throat application, I was entirely cured, and have remained well. It is now more than a year since the cure was effected. Respectfully, your friend, MARGARETTA F. BISHOP.

☞DR. DAVIS' ANTI SCROFULOUS OINTMENT and THROAT APPLICATION should accompany the Depurative in cases of Scrofulous Ulcers and Ulcers, &c., of the Throat.
