The Allegheny river is frozen over at Lawrenceburg, for the first time in ten years and heavily loaded teams are crossing on the ice with perfect safety.

Titusville enjoyed another stabbing sensation, yesterday morning. Henry Hopkins, a colored man, aged about 45 years, was stabbed in the head with a hunting knife, by Wm. Prim, a colored boy 14 years old. The blade of the knife entered Hopkins' temple directly over the left eye and broke off, leaving about 4 1/2 inches of steel in the man's brain. Hopkins is not likely to recover. Prim has been arrested and held to bail in the sum of $2,000 to answer.

The following table, which we copy from the Tidouze Journal, shows the dolly production of the West Hickory oil field:

New Post Office.—The Post Office Department has informed Hon. G. W. Schofield of the establishment of a Post Office at Fagundes, Warren county, and the appointment of Joseph W. Senes as Postmaster.

Well No. 86, Columbia farm, struck the 27th day of November last, has averaged 130 barrels per day ever since. No. 89, same farm, struck on Friday last, continues to produce 55 barrels of oil daily. This farm now has upon it several of the largest wells in the oil regions.

Slighting is good and cutters are in active demand.

HOW BRAVE MEN DIE—Both French and Germans have men of heroic mould in their armies. A late letter to the Cincinnati Gazette mentions two, as follows:— General Renault is dead. Amputation could not save him. As his breath shortened a Sister of Charity said, "shall we pray for you?" The dying soldier replied, "Pray for France." These were his last words. They were as earnest as death.— The scene was touching. But there was a more touching one at the American ambulance. One of the Saxon wounded died.
He had dictated a letter to his parents, in which he said, "I fell in the battle of the 31st before Paris. I hope my wound is not serious, but I am in God's hands. I send my love to all my brothers and sisters, and pray God to take care of you. Everything has been done for me, and I am very thankful for the kindness of these people. Your affectionate Gustave." In the delirious moments he exclaimed: "How beautiful the Spring time. O, the flowers, the flowers, how I should like to have some." Somewhere brought. All in the large tent were deeply affected. Soldiers sobbed on their pillows. All were melted and impressed by the pathos in the death of this simple-hearted and devout Saxon soldier. He died talking in his beautiful delirium of the Spring time and the flowers, and his soul passed out of our sight to where the flowers never wither, and where there is but one season, and "that one season an eternal Spring."

As will be seen by reference to the advertisement in another column, the firm of Lammers & Alden, clothing dealers, has been dissolved, Mr. Lammers retiring from the business. This firm has been in business in this place for nearly four years, and by strict attention to the wants of their customers and fair dealing have succeeded in building up an extensive trade, in addition to making hosts of friends who will regret to learn that it is the intention of Mr. Lam-mers to leave the oil regions for other fields of labor, the best wishes of whom will attend him wherever he may locate. The business will be continued at the old stand by Mr. Alden, who is well known as a young gentleman of rare business qualifications and sterling integrity, and proposes to keep a full line of clothing and furnishing goods which will be sold cheaper than ever. "Good goods and fair prices" will be his motto, and under his management we predict that the Jamestown Clothing Store will lose none of its old-time popularity.— Success to the new proprietor, say we.

On Saturday last the shingle, lath and saw mills, owned by A. S. Wilson, and situated on the Lake branch of Sugar Creek, about four miles from Cooperstown, this county, were totally destroyed by fire. Loss $6,000; no insurance.

There being a slight misunderstanding existing in regard to the social hop at the Oil Exchange Hotel, we are requested by the proprietor, Mr. Johnson, to state that the party to-morrow evening is the first of a series of four to be held at that hotel.— Tickets for the series are put at the exordinary low price of $5.00. Tickets to single party $2.00. Supper will be furnished to those desiring it. A pleasant time may be expected.

The Supreme Court of Pennsylvania has decided that the mere name of a person on the back of a promissory note does not hold such indorser responsible for the payment of the same. He must write over his signature "I guarantee the payment of the within when due," or something to the effect.
This, however, does not apply to the person to whose order the note may be drawn.

A Georgia paper is in luck. Twenty-four "heaven Chinese" walked into the sanctum the other day, and through the medium of an interpreter paid cash down for twenty-four subscriptions to the paper.
The editor wondered greatly what they wanted of an English paper, not being able to read it, and was informed that they took it for the pictures in it, the paper having Costar's rat cut, a catarrh cut, a guano trade mark and an umbrella "picture."

A QUEER COMPLIMENT.—A young lady with a very pretty foot, but a rather large ankle, went into a San Francisco Shoestore to be measured. The admiring clerk, who was of Gallic extraction, complimented her in the following queer way: "Mad-am, you have one bootiful foot but ze leg commone too immediately."

Philadelphia street preachers complain that when they try to convert boys in the streets they say: "Put a head on him," and when he talks to them about hell, they say, "You know how it is yourself," and when he passes around the hat they ask, "How does the old thing work?" He is going to resign.

New York, Jan. 9.
This morning tar still No. 1 of the Olephine oil works, Greenpoint, L. I., exploded, and set fire to the still. In about thirty minutes the fire was communicated to still No. 2 and at present a great conflagration is in progress. The fire department of Brooklyn is out in full force, and doing what it can. The works are owned by Isaac Bernheimer, Jacob Goldsmith and Isaac Sternman. No insurance. In all probability the entire works will be destroyed. The loss will amount to a million of dollars.

Ritualistic matters seem to be approaching a culmination in New York city.— Bishop Potter, of that diocese, requested last week, the rectors of St. Albans church and of the Sacrament Mission, to cease wearing colored vestments during the administration of the communion. They complied, and appeared on Sunday, for the first time, in white. These vestments they will continue to use until the bishop rescinds his order, or until the matter can be brought before the Episcopal convention in October.
If the order should then be confirmed, the ritualistic churches of the diocese will probably combine into a new denomination.— According to all accounts, it is not likely that they will join the Roman Catholic church. The rectors of the two above mentioned churches are quite reticent upon their intentions, when questioned, but are evidently determined, in the end, to persist in their past mode of worship.

A new show which is to "eclipse anything of the kind in the country," will take the field in the spring. The curt title of the wonder is "Rosston, Sprigler and Henderson's Great Mastodon Caravan, Circus and Menagerie." According to the Buffalo Courier it embraces no fewer than 160 men, 160 horses, 23 dens of living wild animals, a troupe of Bedouin Arabs numbering twenty men, 16 children equestrians, 3 original clowns, 20 educated ponies, 50 performers of acknowledged artistic eminence, a corps of volunteers, acrobats and pantomimists, selected from the best known to the arena, 6 premiere equestriennes, the smallest elephant in the world, and the greatest variety of animals ever got together in any zoological collection on this continent.— The new show starts from Philadelphia in April en route for the Oil Regions.

It is reported of a young married couple in Massachusetts, that, having quarreled, they separated, and subsequently went to work in the same mill and boarded at the same house. Having adjoining rooms in the latter, they pleasantly spent their leisure time talking about each other to companions in a voice loud enough to be heard through the thin partition, varying the programme occasionally by kicks against the intervening wall, and cries of, "I wish it was you."

The Titusville Courier's monthly report which appeared this morning, puts the daily oil production at 16,431 barrels.

The State of Maine owns more shipping than any state in the Union except New York, its tonnage being 516,299, which is 46,000 tons more than is owned in Boston and all other ports of Massachusetts. The city of Bath ranks as the fifth in the United States in the amount of shipping it poses sea and Belfast and Waldeboro each own thousands of tons more of vessel property than the important city of New Orleans.

Crocker's Medical Compound and Liniment.

Patented August 20th, 1870, is one of the best remedies in the market for internal and external purposes. It removes more pain and does it quicker than any other medicine. It cures all ordinary cases of consumption. It is no equal for febrile, cold, and all diseases of the throat and lungs; it is a sure cure for pain in the stomach and bowels, bilious colic, cholera morbus, phthisis and diarrhoea.
It is the best remedy known for rheumatism, is a sure cure for neuralgia in the face, toothache, sprains, bruises, stiff joints, a swelling, fresh cuts, chilblains, scalds and burns. It is warranted to cure croup and diphtheria.

In bringing this medicine before the public, I would say that I have tested its merits for a number of years, and might append a long string of certificates of what it has done; but it is unnecessary for it will recommend itself. No family should be without it. It is not got up to humbug the public, and all persons buying this medicine will have their money refunded if not satisfied with the result of its use.

All drug and dealers in patent medicines are solicited to send in their orders, which will be promptly filled. A liberal discount to dealers and agents. Agents wanted in every county in the United States.

Price 50 cts. in and $1 per bottle.
