

CAN YOU RECALL THIS BIT OF OLD PHILADELPHIA?

WHERE LAND TITLE BUILDING STANDS TODAY. Etching shows office building that stood on the southwest corner of Broad and Chestnut streets. It was torn down in 1897 to make way for the present structure. At the left is a glimpse of old Lafayette Hotel. Have you an old Philadelphia photograph? Send it to the EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER.

A WONDERFUL PET. Eugene Eisten, of East Orange, N. J., photographed with a blue-ribbon White Brahma rooster at a Newark poultry show. Keystone View

MAYOR BUYS CHRISTMAS SEALS. After making an appointment to see Mayor Moore, Miss Evelyn Dimmick appeared as a representative of Philadelphia Health Council

DAUGHTERS OF BRITISH PREMIER. Mrs. Cary Evans (front) and Miss Megan Lloyd George at Bournemouth, Eng.

IN AMERICA'S FIRST POGO RACE. It was staged on Fifth avenue, New York, on Thursday. The winner, Madge Merritt, is at the left. The other contestants are Dolores Rousee, Sherley Vernon, Blanche Mehuffey and Gertrude Mitchell. Central News Photo

MME. CATHERINE BRESHKOVSKY, known as the "Grandmother of the Russian Revolution." She is now living at Prague

STARTS ON NEW DUTIES. John G. Williams, president of the Philadelphia Real Estate Board, was photographed at his desk

MISS MARY CARROLL, RO-LIN. She's selling Christmas seal stamps. It's a busy life

WILLIAM MURPHY, captain of the Central High School soccer team

TO FACE SHIPBUILDING INVESTIGATION. Charles W. Morse agrees to sail from Havre to New York on Monday if not arrested. He's under guard

AT THE LEFT—WHO IS IT? Charlie Chaplin had to remain quiet a few hours while Mrs. Clare Sheridan, English sculptress, worked

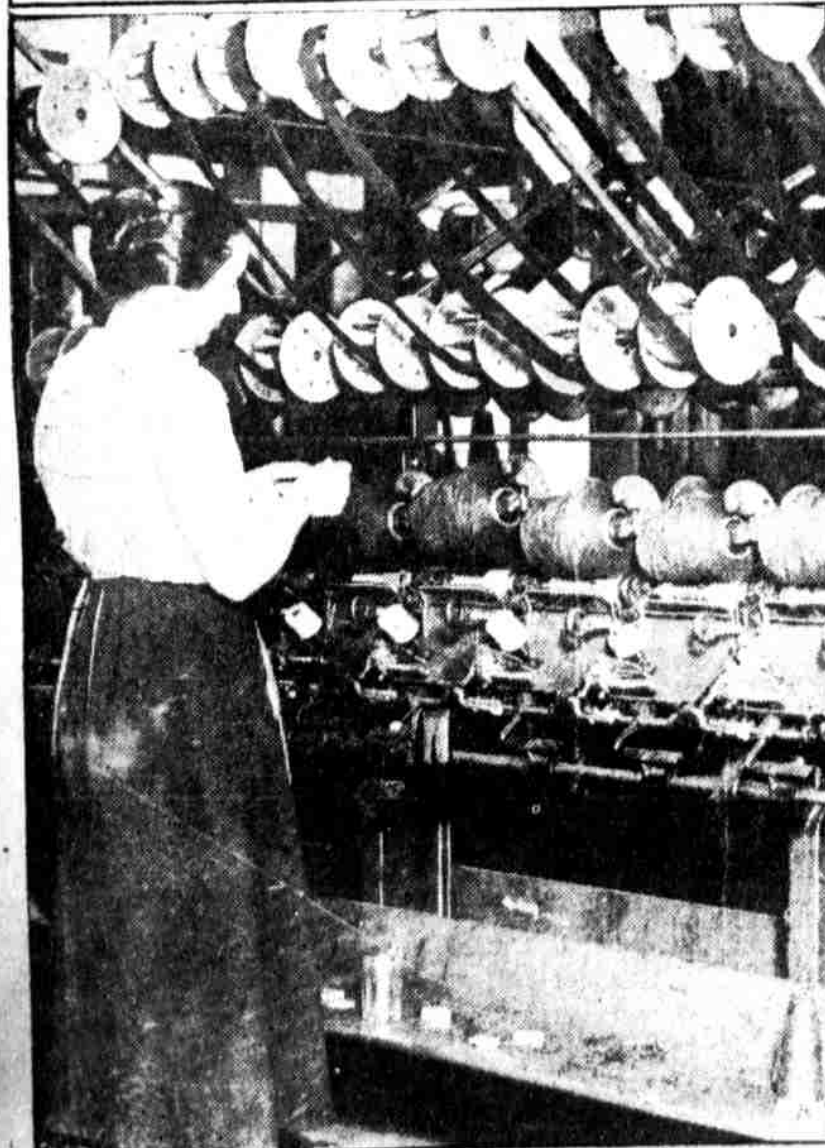

IN SCHOOL CAST. Miss Mary Steir as a court musician in show given by the Dramatic Club of the Germantown High School. A number of productions have been given this term

ELMER D. BALL, of Iowa, representative of the Department of Agriculture at Arms Conference. Central News Photo

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

MISS MAY ROGERS, 3677 Stanton street, operating a machine at the Alberta Knitting Mills, Twenty-second street and Lehigh avenue. The yarn is being transferred from skein to cones

GETTING READY FOR DR. LORENZ. At the Samaritan Hospital yesterday were many Philadelphia children who want the famous Austrian surgeon to help them. They braved the rain to make their applications. Dr. Lorenz will visit Philadelphia soon

BUSY PHILADELPHIANS

IN TOWN. Bishop Charles L. Mead, Denver, is attending Methodist home mission sessions

SAMUEL T. HOLT, a teller at the Corn Exchange National Bank, where he has been for eighteen years. He is married, has three children and lives in Chew street, Germantown