

MISS CAROLINE NIXON MRS. VICTOR C. MATHER MRS. GARDNER CASSATT MISS ISABEL FRAZER MRS. CHURCHILL COLEMAN
SOCIETY FOLK APPEAR IN "THE MARRIAGE TAX." THE PLAY WAS PRESENTED LAST NIGHT TO A LARGE AUDIENCE, AT THE ACADEMY OF MUSIC, IN AID OF THE SEAMAN'S CHURCH INSTITUTE

EARL PALMER gives exhibition of trick skating at Lake Placid, N. Y. After he had cleared the three barrels, he turned a somersault, landing on his skates. He says it's a good cure for rheumatism. Ever try it?

REGISTERING TERROR. It would seem that Monte Banks could do with little or no effort, as he hung from a cornice over a Los Angeles street.

EDWIN R. KEEDY talks on the administration of criminal law in interview on Editorial Page

WILLIAM H. CROWN, general secretary of the Germantown Young Men's Christian Association

CAN YOU RECALL THIS BIT OF OLD PHILADELPHIA?

HOW DIFFERENT MARKET STREET LOOKS TODAY! The photographer stood at Fortieth street, looking toward the Schuylkill, when he made this photograph, on February 9, 1898. The photograph was contributed by R. C. Humburger, of 4038 Market street. Have you an old Philadelphia photograph? Send it to the EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER

THEY MET IN A WESTERN CITY. Frank Morrison (right), secretary of the American Federation of Labor, greets Eugene Debs, recently released from the Atlanta prison by President Harding.

"THERE'S A FIRE—GET THE COFFEE HOT!" That must be the order in the Cincinnati fire department when an alarm rings in. The "coffee wagon" is now a part of the fire equipment in the Ohio city. Two men are assigned to prepare and serve.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

MISS DORA CORKRISS, 2713 South Ninth street, operating a machine that closes and clips tubes after they have been filled with tooth paste, for the Wrigley Pharmaceutical Company, 341 North Randolph street

IT WAS A CIRCUS! Some of the folk who took part in the 1921 Richard Club's frolic last night. The girls are Alice Carmen, Jeanne Malle, Agnes Drennen, Betty Melrose. Frank J. O'Beck was Franklin

LOOK RICHARD CLUB HOLDS ANNUAL PILGRIMAGE to the grave of Benjamin Franklin, George W. Norris (left) made an address. Philip C. Staples is holding the wreath

BUSY PHILADELPHIANS

He is married, has one child and lives at 160 Pomona terrace, Germantown. Basketball is his hobby