

THEY ENJOYED THE ICE. An accommodating iceman on Catharine street made a hit with these youngsters.

A PAL WHO IS A PAL. When the thermometer is at the 90 mark a bucket of water doesn't seem enough

MR. AND MRS. CHAUNCEY LOCKHART WADDELL were married in Washington Saturday. The bride is the daughter of Secretary of State Hughes

ARRIVING AT CITY HALL ILLMAR PRIM, of New York City, a Finnish runner, carried away first honors in the American Legion twelve-mile marathon run on Saturday

GOING THROUGH BRYN MAWR

GIRL SCOUTS DECLARE WAR ON FLIES. They are now distributing 100,000 fly swatters in New York city

RUNNING OF THE ENGLISH DERBY. More than a hundred thousand persons attended the 1922 racing classic at Epsom Downs. Donohue, an American jockey, rode "Captain Cuttle" to victory

SHOWING YOU THE "FLAPPER OF 1870." In a Milwaukee fashion show these dresses were worn by way of contrast with the 1922 girl

FOURTEEN SPEEDY SWIMMERS ON ONE DIVING BOARD. This group of mermaids took part in the Philadelphia Swimming Club's opening day in the Schuylkill, at Miquon. At the right is Blanche Drill doing her best in a tub race

ALMA GLUCK is back from Europe after visiting parents of husband, Efram Zimbalist

THE SIGN OF THE LADY FORTY-NINERS. Miss Evelyn Wells, of San Francisco, is shown with her facial decoration

SHE'LL BE GONE SEVEN WEEKS. Elsie Ferguson on the Mauretania as she leaves for business trip

JOE WILSON assisting in making the foundations of Penn's new stadium the best possible

TONY LIKES HAY. The pet elephant at the Franklin Zoo, in Boston, is willing to do tricks for a bit of choice food

PRINCESS ELIZABETH, wife of Crown Prince George, of Greece, in her latest pose

JOSEPH O. CLARK, of Indiana, Pa., new secretary of the Republican State Committee

EVENTS IN GERMANTOWN DURING THE COLONIAL PERIOD were shown in the pageant presented on the lawn of the Manheim Cricket Club, on Saturday

MRS. IRENE CASTLE TREMAN, who has suggested a unique statue for the grave of Vernon Castle

AN AMERICAN STAR on a British tennis court. Mrs. Franklin Mallory took part in the international matches at Chiswick

DR. CLYDE GEARHART, injured in Knickerbocker Theatre catastrophe, saved by marvelous surgery

CHARLES V. VICKERY, general secretary of the Near East Relief, leaves for Europe

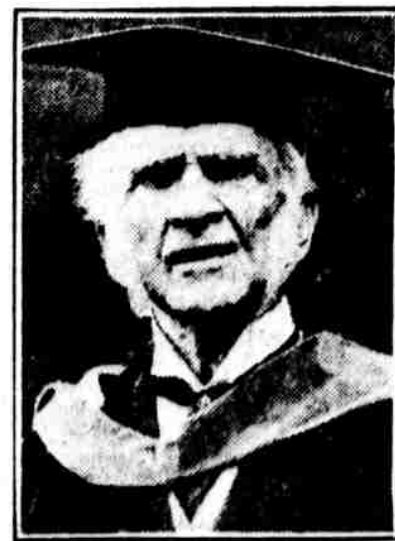

HE PLAYS CRICKET. W. P. Oglesby is a member of the Ardmore Cricket Club

MAJOR GENERAL JOHN BIDDLE makes Memorial Day address at Brookwood Cemetery near London. 450 Americans are buried there

A BIT OF NORTH BROAD STREET IN 1880. Imagine any one trying to buy flour, grain and hay along automobile row today. These buildings were located between Race and Vine streets. Miss Irene E. Dunn is the contributor. If you have an old Philadelphia photograph, please send it to the EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER

100 YEARS OLD. Dr. Stephen Smith, founder of New York City's Health Department, at Columbia University

RESTING IN ATLANTIC CITY. David H. Lane and his close friend, Atwood L. Bliss, State Engineer of Wharves and Docks

HOW WE ENVY THE FAIR BATHERS. Neptune Beach, California, would have suited many Philadelphians yesterday. The girls were drying their hair as they enjoyed aerial waves

NEW PRINCIPAL of Quakertown Public Schools. He is Martin C. Hoffman