

COME ON WITH YOUR RACQUETS. New city tennis courts were dedicated yesterday near the Dauphin street entrance of Fairmount Park. Hundreds attended the ceremonies.

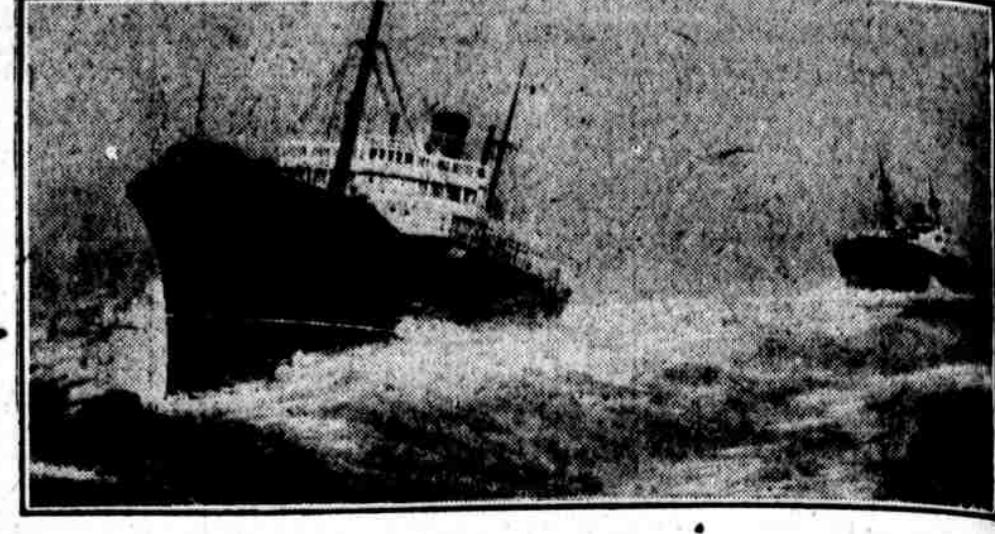

GUS AMSTERDAM (left), of Woodford Tennis Club, defeated Harold Lane, of Cynwyd, in exhibition game SEEN AT THE DEDICATION OF CITY TENNIS COURTS

SERVED IT WELL. Mayor Moore almost lost his "hay lid" in the effort

EARL MENDENHALL (left) and Frederick T. Chandler, Jr., of the defunct firm of Chandler Bros. & Co., leaving Magistrate Carney's office

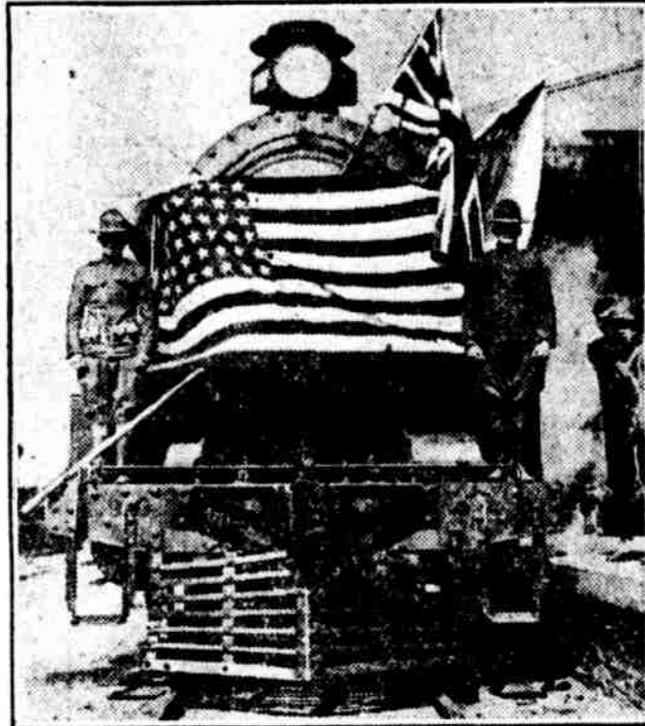

TWO THOUSAND-MILE TOW ON THE ATLANTIC. The American steamship Ala towing the Eastern Dawn, which became disabled 700 miles out of an English port

CORNELIUS COLE, of California, in U. S. Senate during Lincoln's Administration, meets Senator Shortridge, the present Senator from the same State.

SHE'S A "BOOKIE." Garbed as a gypsy, this woman took her stand along the famous Ascot course in England and took bets

AMERICAN FLAG FLIES THROUGH CHINA'S WAR ZONE. Manned by Americans, this special passenger train was run between Tientsin and Peking

BORN ON THE ATLANTIC OCEAN—to live in Philadelphia. Three baby parrots have been presented to the Seamen's Institute by American sailor

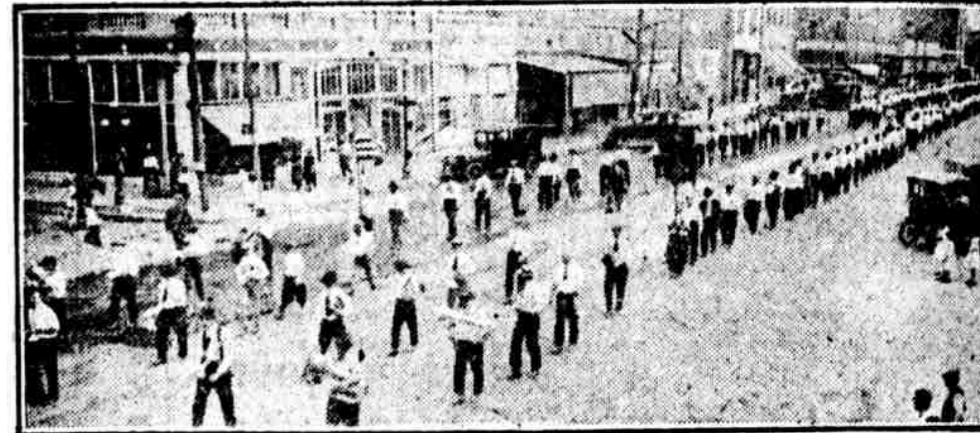

HAS YOUR MAILMAN A NEW CAP? The number plate must also have the name of the carrier or postmaster engraved on it

BISHOP GARLAND, of the Episcopal Church (left), greets the Rev. Dr. Desiderius Baltazar, of Hungary

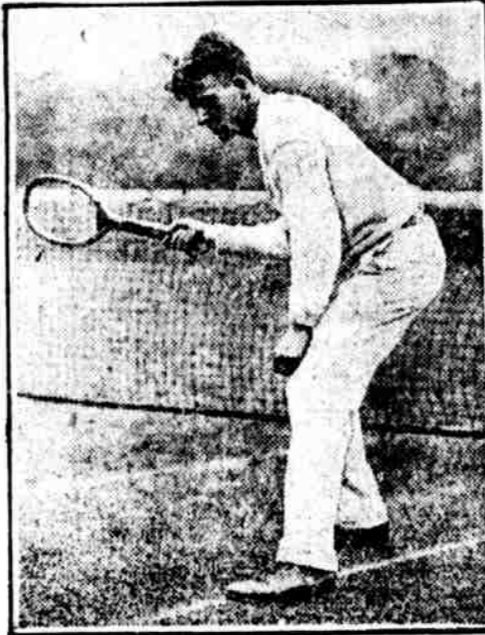

THIS ALL-AMERICAN TEAM of champion swimmers and high divers will compete with the best Canada has to offer in a series of international matches to be held July 10 at St. John, New Brunswick. Left to right: Ethel Baker, Gertrude Ederle, Charlotte Boyle Clune, Joe Moore, Louis Balbach, Florence Briscoe and Aileen Riggins

BURY HERRIN MINE-BATTLE VICTIM. A band led the procession at the funeral of Joe Pitchkovich, a union miner, who was slain during rioting between striking miners and imported workers in the Illinois mine town

AT THE INTERCOLLEGIATE TENNIS MATCHES. Wray Brown, of Washington University, and G. M. Wheeler, of Yale, in a snappy contest on the Merion Cricket Club courts. Brown won. To the right is Phil Neer, of Leland Stanford. He is the present titleholder

PRINCE YOROHITE HIGHASHIFUSHIMI, Japanese admiral, is dead

JUNIORS IN BATTLE FOR GOLF CHAMPIONSHIP. James Kennedy and Irvin Swope, both of Merion Golf Club, were going toward the sixteenth hole. The Torresdale Golf Club's last green is shown, with the clubhouse in the background. The boys are at it again today

CAN YOU RECALL THIS BIT OF OLD PHILADELPHIA?

ONE OF THE OLD CENTENNIAL BUILDINGS. The Finance Building as it looked in 1876. W. H. Eckenbrine, of 5318 Larchwood avenue, contributed the photograph. Send us your old Philadelphia photographs

DONALD D. CONN investigating the Nation's transportation facilities

CAPT. L. A. BOSTWICK, new assistant chief of operations in the U. S. Navy

CHINESE MERCHANTS VISIT MAYOR MOORE. They protested against unjust raising of homes of reputable Chinese. Left to right: Luther Lee, Young Foon, Jung Shu Nin

"THE LADY FROM MINNESOTA." Mrs. Anna D. Olesen, Democratic nominee for the United States Senate, caught with her daughter Mary

TWO ELECTRICAL WIZARDS MEET. Signor Marconi leaves yacht at Schenectady, N. Y., where he visited Dr. Chas. P. Steinmetz

CAPTAIN METCALF, the Prince of Wales and Lord Louis Mountbatten on the deck of the battleship Renown. They are wearing Japanese costumes

A FETE is being held this week at the Lu Lu Temple in aid of service men's hospital work. Mrs. Robert Smith (left) and Mrs. William Burk sold flowers

GEO. R. PUTNAM, Commissioner of Light-houses for twelve years

MRS. HENRY A. WALLACE, of Iowa, visiting in Cabinet circles in Washington

DOWNTOWN KIDDIES GET FLOWERS. At the College Settlement, 433 Christian street, representatives of Art Alliance distributed flowers gathered at Reading Terminal from commuters. James Bovoss and Lillian Mendelson were pleased with their share. Miss Marion Pharo represented the Art Alliance

