

WEST CHESTER FAIR EXHIBITS VARIED

Many Farm Products Seen as Agricultural Association Display Begins

READY FOR RACING EVENTS

Special Dispatch to Evening Public Ledger—West Chester, Pa., Aug. 30.—With good weather the attendance at the fair of the Chester County Agricultural Association today vies with that of some "big days" of former years, and everything is in shape for the week.
The track was never in better condition for the races. A big feature is the exhibit of cattle, which is the largest seen here.

The country boys of the hog and corn clubs have some excellent displays, and in canning, embroidery, housework and other accomplishments, the girls show remarkable skill, their exhibit being a feature.

The exhibit of farm produce is a big one, and some remarkable results are shown in growing, considering the early season. The show of peaches, apples and other fruit occupies an entire building with the flowers, and this feature is a special point of interest to visitors.

West Chester is the dahlia center of this section of the State, and the exhibit occupies a large space with wonderful effects in bloom.

It was announced that William Jennings Bryan will talk from the grandstand, Thursday at 1 P. M., as an added attraction.

Women are playing an important part in the fair. The Chester County Co-operative Council, which is composed of twenty-two distinct organizations, including the grange and many welfare societies, has one of the largest exhibition buildings.

In one corner the County League of Women Voters holds sway and instructs all interested in the use of the ballot. The Republican Women's Organization, by the way, has a separate tent covered with pictures of Gifford Pinchot.

Another corner of the co-operative building is given over to health work.
A new traveling dental clinic outfit which has just been acquired for the county is on exhibition. Miss Mildred C. Carl, a dental hygienist, is in charge. Soon she will visit schools in the county to examine and clean the teeth of pupils. While the State already has a traveling dentist, Chester County is one of the first counties to take up such work as a community enterprise.

The grange exhibit is extremely fine.
The unusually good year for crops has brought out immense ears of corn, cucumbers, squashes and fruits.

MRS. HELEN PYOTT WINS BEAUTY PRIZE AT SHORE

Fifty Get Awards in Parade of 600 at Bradley Beach

Bradley Beach, N. J., Aug. 30.—The first annual beauty parade was held here yesterday in presence of thousands of persons along the Boardwalk. Six hundred contestants wore in line and prizes were awarded to fifty.

Every conceivable costume was noted in the parade, which started at the Fourth avenue bathing group and continued past the judges' stand at the pavilion, where it counter-marched.
Bobbed-hair beauties were in vogue, and although the occasion was advertised strictly as a beauty parade, there were more than 250 babies in line.

The grand prize was awarded Mrs.
Helen Pyott, of Bradley Beach and Palm Beach, who was attired as a modern bathing beauty. Thelma Gorman, of Newark, two and a half years old, was awarded the first prize for the prettiest child under eight, and Miriam Svet, also of Newark, the first prize for bath costumes. Gwendolyn Babb, nine years old, of Scranton, took first award for the most attractive child.

Marion Grace Kirns, six years old, of Bradley Beach, got first award for unique bathing attire, and John J.
Woods, of 110 Clark avenue, Ocean Grove, first award in the funniest man class.

Choir Friends to Wed While singing in the choir of the Church of the Annunciation, at Twelfth and Diamond streets, Frederick W.
Holzwarth, of 1227 Dauphin street, met Miss Amanda Troxel, of 3309 North Sixteenth street, a soprano singer in the choir. They are to be married at 8 o'clock tonight in the same church by the pastor, the Rev. Daniel L. Odell.
A reception will follow at the Hotel Majestic.

The future of your wife and daughter

THE qualities that so endear your wife and daughter to you do not equip them to withstand the rude shocks of life.
It has been your pleasure to develop and prize these qualities, but in so doing you have assumed a solemn obligation.

You have builded an estate sufficient to care for them. But think. Is it your property alone that gives them financial assurance to-day? Your property without your management might fall far short of your intentions.

The officers of this Company can appreciate your anxiety about this question. They suggest that you call and discuss with them a way in which you can be assured a competent, sympathetic manager for the estate you leave.

We would like to send you a copy of our new booklet "Protecting the Family", an interesting explanation of what your will can be made to accomplish. Write to either office, or call in person.

Today and Tomorrow Best and Busiest Days of the Sale

Best, because the opportunities are the greatest of the month. Busiest, because thousands will take advantage of the final reductions.

From the very start of this Sale we brought our Furniture prices down to the lowest level in years—surpassing in values and eclipsing in display any of the great Furniture events that went before. We know of no Sale that can compare with it in either particular. Now additional savings on many Suites and Pieces cap the climax of this incomparable opportunity.

Moreover, the heaviest selling we ever experienced has left many Odd Suites, Suites in discontinued designs, parts of Suites and great quantities of Single Pieces, all of which represent economies that will make brisk buying to the last hour of the last day of this wonderful Sale. And just when conditions in the industrial world indicate an almost inevitable rise in prices.

ILLUSTRATED FROM OUR SALES FLOORS

A rich rendition of a handsome solid Mahogany Queen Anne Dining-room Suite, designed in our own studios and made by the Master Craftsmen of our own factory. From the selection of the lumber to its conversion into Furniture and final finish, no detail has been omitted to bring this Suite up to the high standard that has given Van Sciver Furniture a vogue throughout the nation. The drawers, and the Buffet, China Cabinet and Serving Table are handsomely veneered with white mahogany, giving that rare and pleasing two-tone effect so much desired. One of the many classical Suites marked at incomparable savings on our sales floors.

THE MOST BEAUTIFUL HUDSON

The New Sedan is Here $2295

The De Luxe Car of the Year

It excels even those beautiful Hudsons which were counted matchless values at above $4,000—the Limousines, Town Cars and Landaulets, famed for their distinction.

No other Hudson so completely sums the body-builder's art. It blends richness and luxury with a simplicity that is the hallmark of Hudson enclosed car charm. And the promise of its beauty is borne out in the unusual personal comfort and serviceability this model affords. It seats seven amply. The lustrous, lasting finish reveals the unhurried and painstaking-care given every detail by master workmen, who have always specialized on the finest, costliest cars.

Of course it has the new Hudson motor, which won such instantaneous admiration everywhere. It is the top step of seven years' development of the patented Super-Six principle. It is equally a revelation to Hudson owners.
