

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 20

The Christmas trade this year was phenomenal, every merchant doing a larger business than he did the year previous, which up to that time was a record breaker.

Sundries in this case means combs and brushes, toilet accessories, pocket books, fine stationery, perfumery, books, toys, etc., and the famous LOWNEY candies.

—This sentence tells more than one story, according to the way you punctuate it: "Woman without her man is miserable." —When you're ready for a carpet, or when you are ready to look at a fine line of samples, call here. We've got the goods, Hopkins'. —As old Bill Allen would put it—the ordinance requiring the cleaning of sidewalks of snow accumulations "is a barren ideal" in many spots. —Tionesta's crows law is in full operation every night. Hope the "kids" of Editors Wook and Muse won't get "scurfewed." —Warren Mail. We'll see that ours don't.

—Never fail to read the advertisements in the REPUBLICAN. There are always bargains to be had any one of which may save you double the price of a year's subscription. —It is a pretty settled opinion that the girl or woman who keeps her hat on at a place of amusement is a relic of the nineteenth century. Twentieth century ladies take them off. —Following is the list of letters remaining uncalled for in the Tionesta, Pa., post-office for the week ending Feb. 20, 1901: Mr. P. G. Names. D. S. Knox, P. Special attention given to photographing babies. —Liveryman Canfield is keeping up to the times as usual and has added a handsome new two-seated open trap to his already finely equipped livery. Just the thing for pleasure parties of four people. —The Heckathorn chureh building located not far from Coal Hill, in Venango county, was destroyed by fire last Wednesday night, the loss being a total one, the insurance policy being allowed to lapse some weeks ago. —The question of improving the Allegheny river was before the proper committee at Washington last week. It was decided to recommend one additional dam which will carry the slack water to the mouth of the Kiskiminetas. —There's a chance for some one to get a bargain in a set of the new "National Dictionary Encyclopedia and Atlas" by calling at this office. The set is fresh from the publishers, and contains 18 volumes. Drop in and see what a bargain you can secure. —Hurry-up orders receive quick responses when sent to Amser. Either 'phone orders or when you've got him you always get the best of the market affords in groceries, canned goods, vegetables, tropical or domestic fruits, oysters, or anything for the table. —A Buffalo man committed suicide the other day by hanging himself in the henhouse. He probably thought the place was an appropriate one from which to make his final egg. —There's a solemn Lenten season we'd swear that was intended for a joke. —Court convenes next Monday for the February sessions. But three cases are down for trial on the civil list, which, however, are of sufficient importance to keep the court busy several days if tried. A number of criminal cases of the minor class are also likely to be disposed of. —Remember the box festival to be held by the A. O. U. W. Lodge at their hall next Friday evening. The invitation is general, and, as the ladies never fail to do their part, it is hoped the gentlemen will be on hand to bid on the delicious lunches which are always in evidence on such occasions. —The Valentine social at the home of Mrs. Jennie E. Agnew last Wednesday evening was well attended, and proved a very pleasant occasion to all who were present. The W. R. C. netted a very nice sum, for which they gave a good equivalent in the nice lunch and pleasurable evening's entertainment furnished. —Messrs. Scowden & Clark disposed of their last sleigh last week, and the parties who got them secured real bargains for they went at cost. A little judicious advertising with a good deal of snow will accomplish much in the way of moving things. These gentlemen will be ready for the break-up when it comes, having on hand a number of very excellent buggies of the latest styles. —Percy Shoemaker and David Blum, have set up for the spring campaign of painting, papering, calicoing, etc., and have over 700 fine samples of paper for which they will take orders, and if customers desire will hang it for them in artistic style. All work guaranteed to give satisfaction. Consult them either in person or by postal card and your wants will be quickly supplied. —Nathan Salsgiver, of Onberg, Indiana county, and Miss Minnie Salsgiver, of Tionesta, Forest county, were married Friday by legal acknowledgment before Clerk of Courts Clark, at Meadville. Although the names of the bride and groom are so similar as to suggest relationship they stated that so far as known there was no connection between the two families, a fact most remarkable as the names are so peculiar. —Many railroads are adopting a new rule which will prove of convenience to the traveling public and also to the trainmen. The passengers on leaving the train are directed to leave by the rear platform. Those entering the cars are to do so by the front platform. The agents of the companies are directed to inform all passengers of the new rule. It is hoped this will obviate unnecessary delays at local stations, especially delays where traffic is heavy. —The Ladies' Aid Society and Epworth League of the M. E. church have arranged a series of lectures to be delivered in Howard's Hall, which is being seated and fitted up for the purpose. The first lecture will be delivered next Monday evening, Feb. 25. The subject will be Abraham Lincoln and the speaker, Rev. Wm. P. Murray. Mr. Murray has delivered this lecture over 50 times in a half dozen states and has some flattering press notices given unsolicited by leading newspapers. The admission charged for each lecture is 25 cts., 15 cts. for pupils of the public schools.

—For the information of young men and older ones who kiss young ladies without the consent of the kissed, it may be stated that the act is legally classed under the head of assault and battery. Charles Dieter, of Shenandoah, Pa., is under bail in the sum of $900 to answer to the charge of kissing, in a forcibly affectionate manner, Miss Hattie Hooser of that place. The trial will take place at the next Court of Quarter Sessions. It is probably all right to place an embargo on the habit of kissing a girl when she don't want to be kissed, but the trouble is to determine, when she says "nit," whether she really means it or not. —J. G. Bromley at his residence at Stewarts Run, Pa., will dispose of a large list of personal effects at auction next Wednesday, Feb. 27, as follows: Two fine mares 5 and 7 years old, 3 milch cows, 2 year-old registered Holstein bull, 3 calves, brood sow, 5 fall pigs, 40 hens, set heavy double harness nearly new, set double driving harness, set single harness, light grain drill, new grain corn drill, new plow, harrow, cultivator, Johnston mower, 2-horse wagon, light surrey, buggy, hay ladders, cutting box and power, blacksmith press drill, bellows, bench screw crosscut saw, fifty 1-lashed apple crates, scythes, forks, 40 bushels good wheat, hay, straw, horse hay fork, tackle block and line, lot of land roller wheels, light 1-horse bobs, 2-horse bobs, household goods, etc. Also farm of 135 acres for sale or rent. Recent Deaths.

WAGNER. Mrs. Della Wagner, wife of Adam Wagner, died at her home in Tionesta township, about 6 miles from this place, Friday morning, Feb. 15, 1901. She was the daughter of the late William Davison, of Richland township, Venango county. Previous to her marriage to Mr. Wagner, she was one of Forest county's most efficient school teachers. She was always held in highest esteem by all who knew her, and the news of her death will be received with sorrow by them. Besides the husband she leaves three small children, an aged mother, three sisters and three brothers to mourn her early demise. Mrs. Wagner was aged 35 years. Her disease was consumption. Funeral services were held in the new Lutheran church at Newmansville at 11 o'clock Sunday. Interment was in the Newmansville cemetery.

She was the third daughter of John Henry who settled at Eagle Rock in 1797 in company with Patrick McCrea, who settled at Eagle Rock in the same year, being at that time the only white settlers between Franklin and Warren. The deceased is survived by an only son, M. C. Willings, with whom she lived. Her husband, Jacob Willings, died three years ago. Interment was in the family cemetery at Eagle Rock on Tuesday at 2 p. m.

The deceased was born and reared in Venango county, residing for many years at President. She was a devout member of the M. E. Church and one who was highly respected by all who knew her. She is survived by the following children: J. M. and P. J. Gayette, of Oil City; William M., of Colorado; F. M., of Sistersville, W. Va.; Mrs. William Richards, of Mayburg, this county, and Mrs. George Nicholson. Many of our older class of readers remembered the deceased as a most excellent woman. The funeral took place on Thursday afternoon last.

NOLF. Mrs. Christina Nolf, aged 83 years, died at her home at Salem Tuesday evening Feb. 12, 1901, at 9:30 o'clock. She is survived by one son, D. H. Nolf, of Du Bois, Pa., and four daughters, Mrs. J. R. Downing, of Salem; Mrs. D. H. Coffman, of Oil City; Mrs. J. Conger, of Tionesta, and Mrs. Samuel Hilliard, of Hawthorne, Pa. E. church for 40 years. Funeral from the house Friday morning at 10 o'clock; interment in Brandon's cemetery. Will, James and Miss Ella Conger, of this place, grandchildren of the deceased, attended the funeral. Rev. B. F. Feit conducted the services.

OVERLANDER. Mrs. Elizabeth Overlander, wife of Jesse S. Overlander, died at her home in this borough on Saturday night last, Feb. 16, 1901, aged 49 years. She was the eldest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Casper Elser, and was born on German Hill, where she resided with her parents until her marriage with Mr. Overlander. The deceased was a kind and affectionate wife and mother, greatly devoted to her family and ever ready to make any sacrifice for their comfort. A little more than three weeks ago she was taken sick with typhoid fever, and about the same time three of her children were also prostrated with the disease, while the husband and father was confined to the house with a severe attack of inflammatory rheumatism. Near the hour of midnight of last Saturday her spirit took its flight amid these sad surroundings, relieving her of the suffering which she had borne so patiently. Besides the husband there are left to mourn her death four daughters—Minnie, Martha, Maud and Mildred. The latter three being still confined with the fever. Two sisters—Mrs. James Emert of German Hill, and Mrs. Eli Salsgiver of Tylersburg, also survive. Funeral services, which, owing to the nature of the disease were private, were conducted by Rev. W. P. Murray at the home last Sabbath afternoon, the interment being in Riverside cemetery. The sympathy of the whole community goes out to this stricken family.

Question Answered. Yes, August Flower still has the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your mothers and grandmothers never thought of using anything else for Indigestion or Billiousness. Doctors were scarce, and they seldom heard of appendicitis, nervous prostration, or heart failure, etc. They used August Flower to clean out the system and stop fermentation of undigested food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the nervous and organic action of the system, and that is all they took when feeling dull and bad with headaches and other aches. You only need a few doses of Green's August Flower in liquid form, to make you satisfied there is nothing the matter with you. Get Green's Price Almanac at The Davis Pharmacy, Tionesta.
