EFFORTS are on foot looking toward the organization of a new county, to be composed of parts of Washington, Westmoreland, Fayette, Allegheny and Green counties.

THE Senate committee on pensions at Washington on Monday voted to report favorably the Rutledge general pension bill, which already has passed the house. This practically means that it will pass the Senate and become a law at this session, thus putting many a worthy veteran on an easy strait of his days.

AMONG the bills which have been introduced in the state legislature is one which will permit amateur baseball on Sunday, if it becomes a law. The bill will have some support from the city members of the organization, but will be generally opposed by the members from the country districts, and stands small chance of passage.

LAST year Irvin Chapin, of Columbia county, who owns 100 acres of land, gathered from 8,000 trees 15,000 baskets of peaches, 1,500 baskets of plums, 6,000 quarts of cherries, 500 bushels of pears and 300 bushels of apples. After paying all expenses he had $5,000 to put in the bank. That is more creditable to Mr. Chapin than holding down a job at $5,000 a year, and he is a more independent and happier man.

MEMBERS of the house at Washington, D. C., today by a party caucus, decided to support their fight for an increased representation in the lower branch of congress under the census of 1910. They would down the Republican caucus bill to maintain the membership at 391, as at present, and they passed the original Chamberlain bill, fixing the membership at 445 and after March 3, 1913. If Arizona and New Mexico should be admitted to the union, they will be given one representative each, bringing the total up to 447. Today's action of the house must be ratified by the senate. The house leaders believe that the senate will follow the same course. Under the Chamberlain reorganization plan no state gains a member. The following states gain a member: Alabama, 1; California, 2; Colorado, 1; Florida, 1; Georgia, 1; Idaho, 1; Illinois, 2; Louisiana, 1; Massachusetts, 2; Minnesota, 1; Missouri, 1; New Jersey, 2; New York, 2; North Dakota, 1; Ohio, 1; Oklahoma, 2; Oregon, 1; Pennsylvania, 1; Rhode Island, 1; South Dakota, 1; Texas, 2; Virginia, 1; Washington, 1; West Virginia, 1.

PRÉSIDENT TAFT's reciprocity agreement with Canada was ratified by the house at Washington, Tuesday night, by a vote of 221 to 92, and the bill now goes to the senate.

THAT the Plymouth Rock breed ranks as the most popular fowl in the United States is shown in the monthly secretary of the A. M. Leg. Association for the Grand Reds and that in the next in order. It there exhibit entries are fairly good, one of the total number of several varieties kept in the count.

AT the age of 130 years, and undoubtedly the oldest white woman in the world Mrs. Lucy Owens is dying at the home of her daughter, a centenarian, a few miles west of Longview, Texas. Mrs. Owens was born in North Carolina, when the Revolutionary war broke out and three years later saw George Washington. She is the only living person who has seen the first president. Many have questioned her age, but investigation of records shows that she gives it correctly. Up until a year ago she could see and hear exceptionally well and could walk about her room with the aid of a crutch. Until recently stricken she sewed without the use of glasses.

THROUGH the courtesy of Hon. T. S. North we have received photographs of the Barnard statue, which is to adorn the Capitol at Harrisburg. They are beautiful figures of the human form divine, male and female, just as God made them, without any fig-leaves or other impediments. The idea of draping the figures of any of these magnificent groups strikes us as absurd—almost sacrilegious. It would be to proclaim ourselves a generation of Pharaohs—Pharaoh's Spirit. When we hear the mellifluous voice of such a connoisseur as Mr. Smith raised in protest against this drapery business, we somehow feel inclined to agree with him that the beauty of the statues would be greatly marred by putting dresses on the figures.

THE growth of the automobile business during the past two years is foretold by the figures of the highway department. In 1908 all non-residents were compelled to take a license and there was no distinction made between motor cycles and automobiles, owners or employed drivers, and the grand total for that year was 25,179. Of this number about 3,000 were to non-residents, about 1,300 to motor cycles, and about 6,000 to employed drivers, leaving about 4,000 owned in the state. During 1910 the grand total was 55,933. As non-residents (excluding N. J.) required no license, less than 1,000 were issued out of the state. The drivers totaled 13,816 and motor cycles 8,311, leaving the net total of Pennsylvania-owned cars at 35,253 or an increase of nearly 20,000 since 1908.

A BILL abolishing all fees of county officers and substituting salaries therefor based upon population has been presented in the house at Harrisburg. Should it become a law the fees in counties of less than 25,000 population would be as follows: Sheriff, $2,000; Prothonotary, $2,000; Clerk of Courts, $1,500; Register of Wills, $1,500; Recorder of Deeds, $2,000; County Treasurer, $2,000; County Commissioners, each, $1,000; County Auditors, each, $1,000; Coroner, $400; County Solicitor, $300. In counties where one person holds the office of Prothonotary and Clerk of Courts, or of Register of Deeds and Register of Wills, as is the case in Forest County, he is to receive the salary for Recorder or Prothonotary and $1,000 additional. The counties affected by this scale are those: Cameron, Forest, Fulton, Juniata, Monroe, Montour, Perry, Pike, Snyder, Sullivan, Union, Wyoming.

SENATOR BURTON, in his address in the former case last Tuesday, got down to the gist of the matter when he said: "We must emphasize the responsibility of the elector and of the lasting necessity for the purity of the ballot in all elections. The real source of power, the security, the determining factor which shall decide whether this Republic shall exist in its strength and retain that splendid position of progress and leadership it has enjoyed is the voter. If we strike at the ballot box, if we allow corruption, with its ominous head, to creep into the legislature of any state, then clouds hover over our future. It is for the senate of the United States, from its seat of honor and power, to declare that its record must be free from taint and to register its judgment for the principle that nowhere shall a dishonest vote or a dishonest count be tolerated." If the voter is honest, and insists upon honest representation, the whole fabric, "from turret to foundation stone," must be sound and secure.

FINIS UTILITIES COMPANY.
As a climax to the Northern Utilities company phase, commercial tombstones, in the shape of constatable sale notices, have been posted by Constable P. B. Tari, for the disposition through legal process of the property of Charles E. Wellborne, the man heralded about a year ago, as about to gridiron this part of Pennsylvania with steam and trolley railroad lines, the sale to take place on Feb. 15. The judgment was obtained against Wellborne by E. T. Rotaris, and the property to be disposed of includes among other things of greater or lesser value, mostly lesser, a plaster-of-paris doll; a map of Pennsylvania and one of Crawford county, probably used to mark out the several lines of railroads, the promoter promised to build from Erie to Tionesta, Meadville, Oil City, Franklin, and other towns in northwestern Pennsylvania; several bundles of surveyor's stakes and some loose ones, left over after some of the parts of the route to Erie and Union City were surveyed, tables, stools, etc. According to all accounts the staff will not be very much at forest sale and will be mostly paid for the judgment and costs. When the promoter was last in Tionesta he was going east to get the money to build his railroads, falling to get the support he expected for this section. But he evidently failed to make good through the crossing the ocean and the few million dollar mortgages in Cleveland and Erie counties to guarantee an amount of bonds he had printed.—Tionesta Couriers, 7th.

Whig Hill.

Henry Patterson spent the past week visiting his brother, Wm. Patterson, Bradford, Pa.
Mrs. Carrie De LaFontaine, of Erie, Pa., visited her father, Dr. E. W. Smith, a part of last week.
Mrs. Bert Berlin, of Warren, was on the hill Saturday.
The numerous gripe victims of our locality are all on the road to recovery, we are glad to report. S. M. Galbreath seems to be the last on the list, yet is improving.
Misses Marjorie Miller and Mary Henderson, of East Hickory, accompanied the Rev. George A. Barnard to his appointments here Sunday last.

MRS. CRIPPEN'S ESTATE

Judge Awards It to Half Sister of Murdered Woman Who Resides in Brooklyn.
London, Feb. 14.—In the probate court the judge handed down a decision awarding the estate of the late Mrs. Hawley Harvey Crippen, known on the stage as Belle Elmore, to Mrs. Theresa Hunt of Brooklyn, N. Y., a half sister of the murdered woman.
The estate consists of jewelry, furs and cash amounting in value to about $575. Counsel for Mrs. Hunt argued that Dr. Crippen, who left all his property to Ethel Clara Leneve was barred from leaving any of his wife's estate to her because of his crime.
The judge in handing down his decision said he could in the special circumstances pass over the representation of a felon—in this case with Miss Leneve. He therefore decided that Mrs. Hunt was entitled to her murdered sister's estate.

FAIL TO PASS EXAMINATION

Thirty-nine Midshipmen Tender Resignations to Navy Departments.
Annapolis, Feb. 14.—As a result of failing to pass his semi-annual examinations, Harold B. Sampson, youngest son of the late Rear Admiral William T. Sampson, has forwarded his resignation to the navy department and there is no doubt but it will be accepted. There are 39 midshipmen in all who will go and 119 will be turned back in the next lowest class.
Another member of the first class who was compelled to resign was Charles B. Carroll of Baltimore, a descendant of the noted Carroll family, one of whom was Charles Carroll of Carrollton, a signer of the Declaration of Independence.

JAPANESE WAR TALK

Mr. Numalo Blames Certain Element in United States With Trying to Provoke War.
Los Angeles, Feb. 14.—Mr. Numalo, general secretary of the South Manchurian railway, who was here on his way back to Japan after a European tour, blamed a certain element in the United States with doing all it can to provoke war.
"Japan will do all in her power to avoid war with this country," said Mr. Numalo, "but if the agitation—the constant talk of war and anti-Japanese legislation—is kept up, it may cause unpleasant conditions to arise between the two nations."
