NEWS OF THIS VICINITY

TUNKHANNOCK.

Clarence I. Asheld has been appointed a naval cadet, and notified to appear at the Naval academy at Annapolis not later than September 2, or such other time as the superintendent of the academy may designate. He is a young man of fine physique and good education, and we doubt not that he will pass muster. His father was a naval apprentice in his early years, and spent many days on board ship, cruising about New York harbor, and up and down the coast.

The many friends of Rev. W. M. Hiller are rejoicing that he is to return to Tunkhannock for another year. He is a deep thinker, a sound theologian, and has done a grand work in Tunkhannock. Himself and wife are spending the week with their daughter, Mrs. Charles N. Skinner, at Port Jervis, N. Y.

W. H. Whipple was down from Mehoopany yesterday.
Theodore Stroeter has his new furniture delivery wagon out of the shop. It is a dandy.

Miss Lettie Woodhouse, of Elk Lake, is visiting friends here. She will go to Wilkes-Barre May 1 to take a position as seamstress in the city hospital.

Judge Dunham charged the jury in the Wall case on Monday, and they went out at about 7.45. Sometime before midnight they agreed upon an acquittal, scotched up their verdict and went to bed at the hotel. The verdict was opened in court yesterday morning, and after being announced the prisoner was allowed to walk out of the court room a free man. As there was no more convincing evidence against Bert Pratt than against Wall, it was agreed to dismiss him also. His attorneys would not allow a nolle prosequer to be entered, however, but insisted that a jury be drawn and a verdict of not guilty regularly entered so that the case might not be taken up against him at some future time. This was done as a mere matter of form, and he was also allowed to go. Thus ends one of the longest and most expensive trials that ever took place in the Wyoming county courts.

Ziba Billings, who has been sick all winter, is worse again.
A horse attached to a two-wheeled cart broke loose from its moorings in front of the furniture establishment yesterday and floated around the square. The craft was boarded on the way around and safely towed into port. It belonged to a farmer from out in the township.

The decision of the lower court in the case of John B. and Mary Fassitt vs. N. H. Davison & Co., and Shaker & Clark has been reversed by the supreme court. The controversy was over the proceeds of the sheriff sale of the real estate of H. C. Frost, which when in the hands of the auditor, was claimed by both parties to the suit, each holding judgments against the said Frost. Several complications entered into the matter, but the decision of the lower court was in favor of the defendants.

O. S. Kinner, of Nicholson, has entered the office of Charles E. Terry, esq., to finish his course in the study of law.
Mrs. Warren Kasson is reported much worse.

Mr. Deback Brungen, who has been sick at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. R. Scouten, at Wilkes-Barre, is much improved, and hopes to be able to come home before long.

Miss Lucy Shelp, who has been at the home of her sister, in Exeter township, for some time, has returned to town.

The jury in the Wall murder case, with its verdict, presented to Newman Fitch, proprietor of the Keeleer house, a handsome rocker, as a token of their appreciation of the courtesies extended to them during their stay at the house. The presentation was made by D. A. Knuppenburg, and gracefully received by the genial landlord.

A S. Wintermute will stock the store at Lake Carey and run it this season.
Dr. A. C. Brundage comes forward with the first catch of trout for the season, one of which measured ten and a half inches in length. He lured them from the waters in Kern's Glen, near Lake Carey.

A short session of court will be held this morning, and then an adjournment to June 28 made, when some cases for argument will be taken up.

Rheumatism Cured in a Day.
"MYSTIC CURE" for Rheumatism and Neuralgia radically cures in 1 to 2 days. Its action upon the system is remarkable and mysterious. It removes at once the cause and the disease immediately disappears. The first dose greatly benefits. 75 cents. Sold by Carl Lorenz, Druggist, 418 Lackawanna avenue, Scranton.

FACTORYVILLE.

C. C. Clay and son, A. B. Clay, of Elmhurst, were in town on Tuesday, attending the funeral of W. J. Whitney.

Dr. John Wilson drove down from Montrose on Sunday to attend the Easter services at the First Baptist church and visit his parents at this place. He reports the roads in a bad condition.

A. W. Lyons, of Montrose, spent Sunday and Monday with friends in town. The funeral services of W. J. Whitney were held from his late residence on Academy street. Rev. M. J. Watkins, of the First Baptist church, officiated. Interment was made in Evergreen cemetery.

Mrs. D. D. Gardner is confined to her room by sickness. Charles Brower is also very ill.
Miss Bertha Knapp, who has been visiting relatives during the winter at Chicago, returned home Friday evening.

Dr. Richard Henwood's new residence on Maple street is nearly completed.
Rev. Anna Shaw, of Scranton, will deliver a temperance lecture at the First Baptist church (Wednesday) this evening. The Woman's Christian Temperance union invite all to attend. No admission will be charged, but a collection will be taken.

The Easter services at the First Baptist church were very interesting. The choir were drilled by Professor W. N. Manchester.
Miss Nancy Hinds is entertaining her cousin from Windsor.
Miss Reta Snyder, of Nicholson, spent the week with friends in town.
Rev. H. H. Wilber will return to

ARCHBALD.

The "Social Glass" was presented before a very large and appreciative audience at the Opera House on Monday evening. The cast consisted entirely of young ladies and gentlemen of this place, who played their parts almost perfectly, and the performance, as a whole, was easily among the best amateur entertainments ever presented here.

Miss Mary Duffy was an admirer of Eva Thorne's interpretation of the role of Nettie Nettley could scarcely be improved upon. John R. Melvin was a very capable Charles Thornley, and Charles B. Eaton was equally successful as Dr. Slaton. John A. Reilly's impersonation of John Farley was one of the most creditable features of the evening, and John J. Langan, as the scheming Squire Hollis, acted his part with rare skill. T. W. Loftus, as Harold Hadley, looked the picture of good nature and benevolence that the character proved to be. John A. Reilly, as the most creditable features of the evening, and John J. Langan, as the scheming Squire Hollis, acted his part with rare skill. T. W. Loftus, as Harold Hadley, looked the picture of good nature and benevolence that the character proved to be.

At 10 o'clock yesterday morning M. J. Kearney, of Main street, and Miss Katie Corcoran, of Church street, were married in St. Thomas' church. The ceremony was performed by the rector, Rev. T. J. Comerford. The bride was attended by her cousin, Miss Early, of Pittston, and Dr. P. H. Kearney, of Scranton, a brother of the groom, was groomsmen. After the ceremony a breakfast was served to the relatives of the wedded couple at the home of the bride's father, James Corcoran, of Church street. In the afternoon Mr. Mrs. Kearney went on a tour, which will include a visit to New York, Boston and Philadelphia.

Among those from out of town who attended the entertainment on Monday evening were: C. P. Powderly, Frank and Joe Battle, and Miss McNamara, of Carbondale; Misses Madden and Canavan, of Hyde Park; Misses Mame and Clara Grier, of Dickson; Misses May Moran, Winnie Hoban, Alice Kelly, Aggie Martin, of Olyphant.
The funeral of the late Mrs. Archibald Blair, who died at the home of her daughter, Miss Early, of Scranton, on Saturday, took place this morning. The remains were laid out at 10:30 train and a high mass of requiem was sung in St. Thomas' church. Rev. Dr. Lucas, the celebrant, delivered an eloquent and impressive funeral sermon. He referred in terms of praise to the excellent character of the deceased and her devotion to her religion and her family. The remains were laid to rest in the Catholic cemetery. The pallbearers were: Joseph Sharpless, Richard Keogh, Edward Murray and Patrick Moran, of this place, and T. F. Gilmartin and John Tonney, of Scranton.

Miss Mollie Gilgallon, of Archbald, is visiting Miss Bridget McDonald, on Oak street.
Miss Della Mackin, of Grove street, is visiting in Dunmore.

Rich Red Blood

In the body of an adult person there are about 18 pounds of blood.
The blood has as its most important elements, small round corpuscles, red and white, in proportion of about 300 red to 1 white one.
If the number of red corpuscles becomes diminished and the white ones increased the blood is impure, thin, lacking in the nutrition necessary to sustain the health and nerve strength of the body.
Then That Tired Feeling, Nervousness, Scrofula, Salt Rheum, or others of the long train of ills, according to the temperament and disposition, attack the victim.
The only permanent remedy is found in a reliable blood medicine like Hood's Sarsaparilla, which acts upon the red corpuscles, enriching them and increasing their number. It thus restores the vital fluid to healthy condition, expels all impurity, cures Nervousness, That Tired Feeling, Scrofula and all other diseases arising from or promoted by low state of the blood.
That these statements are true we prove not by our own statements, but by what thousands of perfectly reliable people say about Hood's Sarsaparilla. Read the testimonial in the next column from a beloved clergyman. Then take
