NEWS FROM CHURCHES

The Leading Events of the Week in Scranton's Religious Circles.

WHAT THE CITY PASTORS ARE DOING

The Ladies of the North Main Avenue Christian Church Present a Handsome Communion Service to the Church-Rev. D. P. Jones to Deliver His Last Sermon at Tabernacle Congregational Church To-morrow.

Special services will be held at the St. Paul's on Broad street every Wednesday evening at 7:30 p. m. during Lenten season. Rev. K. Kissling will preach.

Next Tuesday afternoon the pastors of the German Evangelical church will meet in the parlors of the church, Rev. Karl Kissling, on South Side. Rev. W. Schmidt, of Honesdale, will read a paper on the Sunday school work.

Rev. Fred Holter, of Christ church, Cedar avenue, is a busy man. During five days of the week he conducts school, having fifty scholars enrolled, and every Sunday he preaches two sermons. To do this he must be diligent in business and fervent in spirit.

Next Tuesday evening the Ladies' Aid society, of the Ballou's church, will give an entertainment in the church.

The Chestnut street German church, will hold special services on Friday evenings, at 7:30 p. m. during Lent, when the pastor, Dr. Popp, will preach.

Baptists. Mrs. Thomas Lewis and Mrs. Eran P. Davies gave tea to the members of the Ladies' Aid society, of the First Welsh Baptist church, last Wednesday.

The secretary of the society had made $503 during the last year. The president, Mrs. B. Hughes, is active, and so admirably has she filled the position, that she has been re-elected for many successive years. The society does very good work and is a substantial aid to the church.

Rev. Dr. Connard, of Philadelphia, will preach tomorrow morning at the Penn avenue church. In the evening at 6 p. m. he will talk in the Jackson street church, and at 7 p. m. he will speak in the Scranton street church.

The Rev. D. C. Hughes, D. D., has begun to deliver a series of sermons at Sunday evening services on the history of the Old Testament.

Rev. T. J. Collins, pastor of the Scranton street church, returned home from Scranton, Pa., Wednesday evening, and a great revival has been enjoyed by the church he visited. Over 100 converts have entered the church, and still the interest has not abated.

The Ladies' Aid society, of the North Main avenue church, will hold a social next Tuesday evening.

The Peckville church has been remodeled and re-seated. It is again opened for public worship. Pastor Guest has moved into the new parsonage, and the church unanimously passed that he would have the use of the same free of rent.

Christian Church. Tomorrow morning Elder John Sutton will preach at the Christian church, North Main avenue. Mr. Sutton preached at Providence fifty-nine years ago, when the place was known as Razorville, and only consisted of about six houses. He has not visited this section for the last fifty years, and has been wonderfully surprised at the growth of our city. It would be interesting if Elder Sutton were to give a chapter of his experiences in these regions fifty-nine years ago.

Last Thursday evening the ladies of the above church gave a free social. At the close of the social they presented a beautiful communion service to the church. The presentation speech was made by the pastor. As soon as he was through A. J. Colburn addressed him and his wife, and in behalf of the church presented them with a purse of $50. This was a very pleasing close to the evening's enjoyment.

Congregationalists. Rev. D. Jones, of Hyde Park, and Rev. D. A. Evans, of Providence, will exchange pulpits tomorrow morning.

Rev. Morris J. Caldwell, of New York, is visiting the churches in these valleys. He will spend tomorrow at Jersey, and will preach next Thursday evening in the First Welsh church.

Tomorrow will be Rev. D. P. Jones' last Sunday in the Tabernacle church, and he will close a ministry of nearly seven years duration. On Monday evening the church will hold a farewell meeting, when many of the pastors in the valley will be present. Mr. and Mrs. Jones expect to leave the city next Thursday for Columbus, Ohio.

They leave to the great regret of the church and a large circle of friends.

Next Monday evening the Sun Day school of the Welsh church, of Providence, will give an entertainment in the church. On Tuesday evening a similar entertainment will be given in the mission hall at Dutch Gap.

The Furman church, of Providence, is especially being completed. Rev. D. A. Evans, the pastor, hopes to hold the dedicatory services next month.

Episcopalians. Next Wednesday evening Rev. A. Ben Ollie, of Jerusalem, will preach at the Grace Reformed church at 7:45 p. m., and on Friday evening at the same hour, Rev. George E. Guild, of Providence, will preach.

Rev. M. H. Mill, of the St. David's church, has issued a card to the members of his church, giving full instructions as to Lenten services. A meeting is held at 4 p. m. each day, save on Friday, when the services will be conducted at 7:30 p. m.

The guild of the Holy Cross of the St. David's church held a very successful social at the rectory last Tuesday evening. The young ladies who took part in the program did very well. The funds of the society were enriched by $3.

The pipe organ donated to St. David's church by the Episcopal church of Towanda, has arrived in the city, and will be erected in the near future.

Rev. Rogers Israel attended the funeral of his brother's wife last Thursday.

Methodists. The official board of the Hampton Street church will hold its annual supper in the parlors of the church next Wednesday and Thursday evenings. Supper will be served from 6 to 9 p. m.

The Epworth league of the Hampton Street church has arranged a series of pleasing and instructive entertainments, which are to follow the regular business meetings for the next three months. A card will soon be issued giving all particulars.

Next Friday evening, Feb. 16, Rev. A. W. Cooper will begin a series of normal lessons on the Bible, which are specially prepared as aids to the teachers of Sabbath schools. The lessons will be given in the Sunday school room of the Hampton street church.

Rev. J. F. Jones, of the Park Place church, has conducted a very successful week of prayer. The meetings will be continued next week, when Rev. S. Simpkins, of Moscow, will aid the pastor.

G. Christian, of Wilkes-Barre, gave a very good lecture, illustrated by stereoscopic views at the Second German church last week. The young people were delighted.

Next Monday evening the board of trustees of the Second German church will meet in the church, when some business of importance will be transacted.

Next Friday evening the Ladies' Aid society of the Simpson church will give an entertainment and social at the parlors of the church.

Tomorrow the Simpson church will celebrate Missionary Day, when Rev. I. O. Peck, D. D., one of the secretaries of the Missionary association, located at New York City, will be present. Mr. Peck is one of the best speakers of the denomination, and will, undoubtedly, be heard by a crowded house.

The young people of the Epworth league of the Providence church will conduct a debate tomorrow Tuesday evening. "Resolved, That evil literature is worse than evil companions."

Rev. M. D. Fuller has organized the men of his church into a temperance circle. The object is to do personal work among men addicted to drink and lead them to a Christian life.

Presbyterians. Rev. August Lange, pastor of the Hickory street church, who is now on his vacation in Germany, wrote a letter to the elders of the church, which will be read to the congregation at tomorrow morning's service. Mr. Lange had a very pleasant voyage and landed at Amsterdam. They are now visiting various places in their Fatherland and will probably spend a few months there.

Rev. George C. Guild, of the Providence church, will preach at Olyphant tomorrow morning at 10:30 a. m. D. Brooks, of Wilkes-Barre, will occupy his pulpit.

The Olyphant church is busily computing its resources to see if they will be able to secure the services of a pastor who will devote his whole time to this church. The church is anxious to follow the lead of the Ashtabula church, with which it was formerly associated.

TEN CENTS A DAY. The Great Educational Work Put Within Reach of All.

The public has shown its appreciation of the liberal offer made by THE TRIBUNE in regard to the edition of the Encyclopedia Britannica by the liberal orders booked since the proposition was put before them. This offer will be kept a short time, however, and those who desire to take advantage of it should not delay. The terms of the proposition are these: On receipt of only $3 THE TRIBUNE will forward to any reader the first twelve volumes, balance payable at the rate of 10 cents per day, or, on receipt of $1.50 cash, the complete set of twenty-five volumes will be sent, the balance to be paid at the rate of $5 per month.

The price of the entire set is only $1.98 per volume for the twenty-five volumes, which is less than one-fourth the price of the original edition. At the same time the edition thus offered is far superior to that produced at Edinburgh, since it is brought down to date, and is provided with numerous maps and illustrations that are not to be found in the original. Every department of research contains the latest developments and information, so that the work is a complete epitome of 19th century facts.

The work is handsomely printed on fine paper, is bound in heavy silk, and in the most substantial manner. Samples may be seen at THE TRIBUNE, Exchange building, 121 Spruce street, where subscriptions may be left.
