(Out of town correspondents of this Tribune should call their names in full to each new letter, not for publication, but to guard against deception.)

ARCHBOLD NEWS NOTES.

Events of a Day Compiled by a Live Correspondent.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

ARCHBOLD, April 16.—Tomorrow the Scranton traction company will begin work on the extension to its line in this borough. Three gangs of men will be set to work at once and the work will be hurried to completion. Mr. Caffrey will have charge of one gang and John E. Ryan, who was injured in a street car collision at Jermy on about a year ago, will have charge of the other. It is the intention to have the road in complete operation before June 1.

Mr. O'Rourke who was appointed postmaster early in the present month, received his commission yesterday and will at once assume his duties. It is a consolation to know that the excellent service which was given by Mr. Cosgrove will be continued by his successor who is admirably qualified to conduct the office in a business-like manner.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Summers, of Hill street, are mourning the loss of their 7-year-old boy who died this morning. The little fellow was bright and cheerful, and was the joy of the household in which he moved. The funeral arrangements have not yet been completed.

A 3-month-old child of Mr. and Mrs. John Sheridan, of Monroe street, died today after a brief illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Cawley, of Main street, are visiting friends in Carbondale.

At the meeting of the Presbyterian congregation, held on Friday evening, C. A. Battersby and C. A. Samson were appointed a committee to go before the Presbytery with the formal call for a pastor.

Mr. Thomas Morrill is visiting friends in Pittston.

The auditing committee of the congregation of Saturday evening and approved of the same presented at the last regular meeting of the council.

Beware of Frauds.—Be sure you get the genuine Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. It cures Colds, Croup, Asthma, Deafness and Rheumatism.

THE HONESDALE CONTEST.

More Evidence Introduced in the Osborn Voight Case.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

HONESDALE, Pa., April 16.—The contested election case was called up again at 10 o'clock this morning.

William Porle recalled, produced tax receipt dated August, 1891, but swore positively it was paid in 1892, which was corroborated by Tax Collector Bailey, 1891 was printed on receipt.

Patrick Coghlan was away from Honesdale part of 1893 clerking at Rondout during canal navigation; returned to Honesdale immediately afterward; was temporary occupation; home with sister at Honesdale Charles A. McCarty and C. J. Brown called to prove going to Rondout was only temporary arrangement.

W. A. Wood gave evidence to show that absence of W. F. Weston in 1893 was only temporary.

William Flannigan, of Carbondale, voted a February election. Has resided here since March, 1893. Produced receipt for tax signed by Mrs. Driggs, of Carbondale, paid in 1892. On cross examination was considerably mixed up.

Evidence closed except as to that contained in the ballot box.

Names conceded to be illegal by counsel. Supposed to be for contestants: W. W. Ham, Joseph E. Griffin, Jacob Timonich, Jr., Charles D. Mahoney, Carl Schneider, Lorenzo O. Grambs, William J. Schiessler, Frank Herzog. Supposed to be against contestant: T. Frank Ham, Charles Leary, Fred Schiessler, George Barnes, E. F. Torrey, Jr.

Names submitted to court by contestant to decide legality—John A. Brown, Nelson E. Bigelow, William F. Weston, Rufus W. Goesser.

Names submitted to court by respondent—William Pople, Ferdinand Kroll, James J. Bracey, William Flannigan, Patrick Croghan.

Now that the testimony of witnesses is all in, it looks very much as though the respondent, Daniel C. Osborn, would win the case and be collector by a very small margin.

Court adjourned election case to 10 o'clock Thursday morning when argument of counsel will be heard.

The matter of opening up Upper East street will come up in court tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock, and decision will undoubtedly be given shortly.

M. L. Blair, Alderman, 34th ward, Scranton, Pa., stated Nov. 3, '88. He had used Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil for sprains, burns, cuts, bruises and rheumatism. Cured every time.

After Typhoid and Malaria

Hood's Sarsaparilla Purified and Built Up the System.

"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass."
"Gentlemen—Two years ago I was taken with a very severe illness, beginning with erysipelas, and then had typhoid and malaria fever. After I got up and out of bed I thought I was cured, but was mistaken. In a short time a humor broke out on my face, at first causing the skin to be rough and lumpy and gradually developing into sores, which spread until

My Head Was Covered with them. No one can imagine how I suffered with the great itching and burning. Prescriptions had no effect. A friend advised me to take

Hood's Sarsaparilla Cures

Hood's Sarsaparilla, so I concluded to try a bottle, and I soon found a great change in my condition. The sores began to disappear and I was soon entirely cured. My general health has improved and I feel like a new man altogether. I sleep well at night and have no trace of that itching and burning sensation." JAMES J. WALSH, Creighton, Pennsylvania.
