PITSTON.

The Democratic primaries of the Fifth Legislative district were held Saturday and were the liveliest in the history of local politics held in years. From the opening of the polls at 4 o'clock until the close the contending factions fought desperately, particularly the supporters of Hon. J. T. Flannery. In the First, Fifth, Seventh, Ninth and Eleventh the contest was particularly bitter and in some instances lessons in physical culture were resorted to. As foretold in these columns a few weeks ago, Mr. Flannery carried a majority of the wards in the borough and sufficient in the outlying districts to give him first hold on the nomination. In the borough the following Flannery delegates were elected: First ward, Charles Curry; Fifth ward, Patrick Pender; Second district, Sixth ward, Anthony Kennedy; Seventh ward, George F. Bass; Eighth ward, John McGrath; Ninth ward, Thomas Corcoran; Eleventh ward, John Mullin; in Pittston township, 3; Jenkins township, 1; Avoca borough, 1; Lehigh, Honesdale, 1; Plains, 1; Bear Creek, 2.

Two youths named Walter Carpenter and John Johnson had a narrow escape from instant death Friday evening. The lad residing on the West Side during the day broke open a store house owned by Lymington & Perrin in which was stored all their apparatus for the blasting of rock therein and among the contents was a box of dynamite cartridges. They repaired to the foot of the mountain the Forest Castle brewery and proceeded to make an examination. They placed the cartridges on a stone and struck it with a hammer. The report was heard for some distance. As the smoke cleared away, loud cries of pain were heard, and these caused some of the neighbors to hasten to the spot. On the ground with his face covered with blood, and his clothes torn in places lay the Carpenter boy. Johnson was also on the ground, but it was seen that his injuries were not of a serious nature. They carried the boys to a house and attended to their injuries. Carpenter was unconscious. His face is badly burned and torn, one of his eyes is almost blown out of the socket. It is thought that cannot recover. Johnson was burned about the legs and face.

Policeman William Kearney, who conducts a store at the corner of Mill and Searle streets is suffering from blood poisoning. In company with another policeman on Friday he took Paul Wentzell, of this place, to Danville. Wentzell has been temporarily unbalanced for some time and of late became so violent that it was necessary to remove him to the asylum. The officers with their charge had no sooner reached their destination when Wentzell, without notice, instantly broke away and started for the river. Kearney, the more athletic of the two, succeeded in overtaking him when the crazy man, with the ferocity of a tiger at bay attacked him. He dealt Kearney a kick in the abdomen. Kearney becoming weak, let go his hold. Before having done so Wentzell sank his teeth in his right arm. Becoming free he ran to the river and, jumping into a boat, escaped by taking to the woods on the opposite shore. Kearney was removed to his home and a physician summoned. Inflammation has set in as a result of the bite and fears are entertained that he will lose his arm.

Right Rev. Monsignor Patrick J. Toner, missionary apostolic and honor oratory chaplain to his Holiness Pope Leo XIII, preached an eloquent and instructive sermon at the late mass in St. John's beautiful new church at Pittston on "Charity as the greatest of theological virtues." The right reverend speaker took his text from the 13th chapter of St. Paul's first Epistle to the Corinthians. "And now there remain faith, hope and charity, these three, but the greatest of these is charity." Monsignor Toner said there are three virtues that regard God as their immediate and primary object, and are named theological because they tend directly to the honor and glory and worship of God. All other virtues are merely human virtues, and these three are essentially divine. All other virtues may be performed, and practiced by a pagan. Many of the ancient pagan philosophers practiced all the natural in an eminent degree but it is only a Christian who believes in the sacred deposit of divinely revealed truth, as defined and explained by an infallible authority, namely, the church of God upon earth, who can perform or practice these three, faith, hope, charity, but the greatest of these is charity. Faith without charity is dead as the body is dead without the soul. Hope without it is merely presumption. Hope is the root and the foundation of our justification, as the council of Trent teaches us, and without faith there can be no supernatural virtue or supernatural reward; but charity is greater than faith, yes, than faith, that miracle working virtue without which an inspired apostle declares that it is impossible to please God. Charity is greater than hope, which is the anchor of our souls and holds us safely on the stormy ocean of life from drifting into the gulf of despair on the one hand, or that of presumption on the other. All our natural good actions must be stamped with the impress of divine faith in order to rise from the natural to the supernatural order. We might explain this more fully by the following illustration: A piece of coin may be of much value in itself, but if it has not on itself the impress of the sovereign of the state it is of no value in the common intercourse of trade. So in like manner our natural good actions may be excellent in themselves and may win the world's applause, but if not stamped with the impress of divine faith they cannot pass from the natural to the supernatural order or merit eternal life. And even when elevated to the highest degree of perfection by faith, yet even to the wondrous miracle power of removing mountains, as the apostle says, "Yet without charity we could not be saved." Faith points out the way for us as did the pillar of fire in the olden time point out the way to the Israelites on their journey to the promised land. Hope sustains and consoles us during our earthly pilgrimage as did the heavenly manna sustain and console them during their journey to the promised land, and charity alone entereth the true promised land, the kingdom of heaven. Salvation is shown to faith, prepared for hope, but only given to charity. Our Holy church defines charity to be a divine virtue, whereby we love God above all things and our neighbor as ourselves. And by the word neighbor is meant all mankind of every creed, and of every color and of every country, and the proof that we keep the first part of this definition the love of God is that we observe with scrupulous fidelity the second part to love our neighbor as ourselves. Monsignor Toner will preach next Sunday in St. Basil's church, Dunmore, Sullivan county, of which Father Raier is rector.

Burglars effected an entrance into George Foster's office at Daryea some Friday night, blew open the safe and carried off all the contents of value. They gained an entrance by prying open a rear window, and evidently were old hands at their work. They drilled a hole between the dial and handle, and filled it with dynamite, then exploded it. The report if heard, was not noticed. The conspiracy tore the safe to pieces, rendering it entirely useless for future use. Within its confines was nearly $100 in cash, some jewelry, a revolver and some stamps, all of which were carried off. There is no clue to the thieves, but suspicious points strongly to two characters who were observed alighting from a car in the early part of the evening of the day previous.

George Fischenorick, who was burned by molten iron at the Riverside foundry seven months ago, and who has been a patient at the hospital since that time, was discharged Saturday.

Daniel D. Jenkins, an old and respected citizen of Pittston, died at his home on Welch Hill Saturday morning at 8 o'clock. He has been a resident of this place since 1863, and was 59 years of age. He has been sickly for some time, but the immediate cause of his death was pneumonia. He was a member of Tristis Lodge, Independent Order Old Fellows. The funeral services will be held at the Welsh Baptist church tomorrow afternoon, June 12. The remains will be laid to rest in the Pittston cemetery.

This evening the following delegates will leave via the Pennsylvania railroad for Pittsburg to attend the convention of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, Board of America, which will be held there this week: Division 23, John McGinley; division 4, Dolph Glennon and James Heffron; division 15, James Gibbons and E. J. Burke; division 11, J. P. Kearney; division 13, T. J. Miles, and Captain J. F. Flannery, county delegate.

Yesterday was "Children's day" at the West Side Presbyterian church and special services prepared for the occasion were tastefully decorated with pretty flowers and shrubbery tastefully arranged. The services being held on the West Side at 8 o'clock, Mr. Moody and his corps of assistants cooperated to grow in interest daily. The evangelistic interest manifested in the evangelistic services at the large tent on the West Side led the management to make a change in the proposed arrangement for holding meetings on the east side this week and the work will continue as heretofore.

"Daddy" Walsh had one of his periodical encounters with the police late Saturday night. He was arrested by Officers Frank Padrick and Jesse Phillips. Jeweler T. E. Staley went to their assistance only to be a sadder but much wiser man today. The officers succeeded in getting Walsh as far as the lockup when he let drive two or three blows with such force as to completely knock his captors into a dazed condition. In the melee he made his escape and has not been captured up to the present.

The Agenda Literary society held a very interesting meeting at their parlors last Friday evening and discussed a popular subject, it being: Resolved, that Coxey's army is a benefit to this country. The affirmative was handled by Messrs. A. B. Richards and P. H. Kennedy, and Michael Dixon in a very able manner, while the negative was discussed by the Miss Anna and Ella Walsh and Miss M. E. Kennedy. After a heated discussion, in which Jacob Coxey received some glowing tributes, the debate was finally awarded to the ladies. The society announces the following programme for a public meeting to be rendered Friday evening, June 22: Opening address, Mr. M. Dixon; instrumental music, Miss M. Cleary; recitation, Miss Ella Walsh; debate, Resolved, that monopoly is detrimental to our country. Affirmative, Mr. McGraw, Miss Annie Walsh; negative, Frank Clark, Miss O'Hara; vocal duet, Miss White, Miss Webber; oration, Thomas Curry; comic paper, P. H. Kennedy; instrumental music, Miss Lizzie Kennedy; trio, P. J. Gilboy and party; chorus by the society.

HONESDALE.

The Wayne Independent is authority for the statement that the Wells Fargo Express company has issued a circular stating that none but married men will be employed by them for 1895, or at least so far as positions can be filled by them. When interviewed by THE TRIBUNE reporter, Wells Fargo & Co.'s Honesdale agent stated that he would endeavor to retain his position here. In the words of the Independent, "A word to the wise is sufficient." The Erie railroad ran an excursion to Port Jervis from Honesdale on Sunday for the benefit of those who desired to witness the laying of the corner stone of the new St. Joseph's church at Mufson, Pa. There was a procession of the various societies in the afternoon. Music was furnished by the Emmott band.

A farce entitled "Rice Pudding" was given by the Presbyterian chapel Friday night and was witnessed by a large audience. After the play ice cream and cake were served.

Months of Suffering—Hood's Sarsaparilla Cured

Mr. Noah J. Horner, Stahtstown, Penn.

"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.: "Gentlemen: Four years last January I was taken down, with sub-acute rheumatism which located at the base of the brain. It was eight weeks less one day before I was able to walk out of the house and after months of suffering and much pain I feared

I would Never Be Well. My physician advised me to use Hood's Sarsaparilla. After taking it in half doses for two weeks I felt better, so at different times afterwards I used it until during the last year I have again been restored to invigorated health by it. I attribute my restoration to health to the use of Hood's Sarsaparilla. My son has had catarrh since quite young and last summer while attending school he used two bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla and said it did him more good than he realized from $100 for prescriptions. R. R. R. RADWAY'S READY RELIEF.

FOR INTERNAL AND EXTERNAL USE. In using medicine to stop pain, we should avoid such as inflict injury on the system. Opium, Morphine, Chloroform, Ether, Cocaine and similar stop pain by destroying the sense of perception, the patient losing the power of feeling. This is a most destructive practice; it masks the symptoms, shuts up, and instead of removing trouble, breaks down the system, liver and bowels, and if continued for a length of time, kills the nerves and produces local or general paralysis.

There is no necessity for using these uncertain agents when a positive remedy like RADWAY'S READY RELIEF will stop the most excruciating pain in a quicker, without endangering the least danger, in other infant or adult.

It instantly stops the most excruciating pains, always inflammation and cramps, rheumatism, whether of the Lungs, Stomach, Bowels, or other organs or muscular membranes. FOR SPRAINS, BRUISES, BARK ACHES, PAIN IN THE CHEST OR SIDES, HEADACHE, TOOTHACHE OR ANY OTHER PAIN, a few applications of this magic causing the pain to instantly stop.

CURES AND PREVENTS Colds, Coughs, Sore Throat, Inflammation, Bronchitis, Pneumonia, Asthma, Difficult Breathing, Influenza.

Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Sciatica, Lumbago, Swelling of the Joints, Pains in Back, Chest or Limbs.

The application of the READY RELIEF to the part or parts where the difficulty or pain exists will afford ease and comfort.

ALL INTERNAL PAINS, PAINS IN BOWELS, COLIC, CHOLERA, STOMACH, SORE THROAT, NAUSEA, VOMITING, HEADACHE, NEURALGIA, SLEEPLESSNESS, SICK HEADACHE, BRUISES, COLIC, FLATULENCY, FARTING, BELLS are relieved instantly and quickly cured by taking only a quantity of a teaspoonful of Ready Relief in half a tumbler of water.
