"Saturday's Lewistown Sentinel says: Several Lewistown people are anxiously awaiting the return of I. F. Bilger, a man who has been doing considerable business in this vicinity as general agent of C. C. Seebold, piano and organ dealer of Sunbury. On September 14, Bilger appeared at the establishment of Emerson Potter in Valley St. and made arrangements for opening an office. As agent he did a very nice business in selling pianos and organs. Chester E. Stewart, who boards at the Central House, was employed as sub-agent, and is a loser by several dollars. Sales to the amount of $17.50 have been made and $43 of this has been collected by Bilger. His office furniture was purchased of H. A. Barr of Reedsville, but it is claimed by Mr. Stewart, this furniture is unpaid for.

The last seen of Bilger was last Saturday, when he left his office, carrying a dress-suitcase and accompanied by his wife. He told Mr. Potter he would be absent for a "couple of days." When he failed to put in an appearance this week, a search was instituted, revealing the fact that Bilger had presented two checks drawn on Wm. Russell & Son, Bankers, one for $10.50 another for $2. Mr. Potter found that no deposit had been made by Bilger at the bank, that he is minus his rent, and J. J. Morrow is shy $2. Bilger boarded with his wife, who conducted a boarding-house in Yeagerstown, and where he worked as a carpenter a few weeks before coming to Lewistown."

Letter to Jacob Paulusz
Middleburg, Pa.

Dear Sir: The Trustees of Fair Ground, Gallekill, N. Y. were glad to pay 15 cents a gallon more for Devco and no wonder. Two other paint agents said it would take 150 gallons of their paint to cover the buildings.

Our agent put it at 125 or less. It took 115.

We saved them 35 gallons of paint and painting (worth $4 to $5 a gallon, as the painting costs two or three times as much as the paint less 15 cents a gallon on 115 gallons. Say $140.

That's how to count the cost of paint. The cost of putting it on is $3 or $4 a gallon. You see what that means. Go buy Devco.

Yours truly,
F. W. DEVCO & Co.,
