The New-England. — Watch in charge of the private mail-box at the Buttes, on the 24th, was recovered in the Boston post-office. The box was found by Mr. H. E. H. Deane, of Boston, and the box was delivered to the proper authorities. The box was opened and found to contain a large quantity of tobacco, belonging to the Boston and Providence railway company. The box was placed in the post-office, and a reward of $200 was offered for the recovery of the box. The box was finally returned to the proper authorities. The box was opened and found to contain a large quantity of tobacco, belonging to the Boston and Providence railway company. The box was placed in the post-office, and a reward of $200 was offered for the recovery of the box. The box was finally returned to the proper authorities.

The New-England. — Watch in charge of the private mail-box at the Buttes, on the 24th, was recovered in the Boston post-office. The box was found by Mr. H. E. H. Deane, of Boston, and the box was delivered to the proper authorities. The box was opened and found to contain a large quantity of tobacco, belonging to the Boston and Providence railway company. The box was placed in the post-office, and a reward of $200 was offered for the recovery of the box. The box was finally returned to the proper authorities. The box was opened and found to contain a large quantity of tobacco, belonging to the Boston and Providence railway company. The box was placed in the post-office, and a reward of $200 was offered for the recovery of the box. The box was finally returned to the proper authorities.

The New-England. — Watch in charge of the private mail-box at the Buttes, on the 24th, was recovered in the Boston post-office. The box was found by Mr. H. E. H. Deane, of Boston, and the box was delivered to the proper authorities. The box was opened and found to contain a large quantity of tobacco, belonging to the Boston and Providence railway company. The box was placed in the post-office, and a reward of $200 was offered for the recovery of the box. The box was finally returned to the proper authorities. The box was opened and found to contain a large quantity of tobacco, belonging to the Boston and Providence railway company. The box was placed in the post-office, and a reward of $200 was offered for the recovery of the box. The box was finally returned to the proper authorities.

The New-England. — Watch in charge of the private mail-box at the Buttes, on the 24th, was recovered in the Boston post-office. The box was found by Mr. H. E. H. Deane, of Boston, and the box was delivered to the proper authorities. The box was opened and found to contain a large quantity of tobacco, belonging to the Boston and Providence railway company. The box was placed in the post-office, and a reward of $200 was offered for the recovery of the box. The box was finally returned to the proper authorities. The box was opened and found to contain a large quantity of tobacco, belonging to the Boston and Providence railway company. The box was placed in the post-office, and a reward of $200 was offered for the recovery of the box. The box was finally returned to the proper authorities.

The New-England. — Watch in charge of the private mail-box at the Buttes, on the 24th, was recovered in the Boston post-office. The box was found by Mr. H. E. H. Deane, of Boston, and the box was delivered to the proper authorities. The box was opened and found to contain a large quantity of tobacco, belonging to the Boston and Providence railway company. The box was placed in the post-office, and a reward of $200 was offered for the recovery of the box. The box was finally returned to the proper authorities. The box was opened and found to contain a large quantity of tobacco, belonging to the Boston and Providence railway company. The box was placed in the post-office, and a reward of $200 was offered for the recovery of the box. The box was finally returned to the proper authorities.