 John B. O'Neill, Newberry.

In Philadelphia, the whole edition of a primer was published, containing the following ludicrous mistake, in consequence of the omission of the letter c:
 "When the last trumpet soundeth,
 We shall not all die—
 But we shall all be (c)hanged,
 In the twinkling of an eye."
 "It's well enough for you to name your boy Elias," said Aunt Hepzibah, but for gracious goodness sake, don't name him Alias, 'cause the Alias are always a cuttin' up bad. Here's Alias Jones, Alias Brown, Alias Thompson, Alias One-Eyed Jack, all been took up for robbin' and stealin'."

It is proposed that everybody—man, woman and child—plant an elm, oak, maple or some other good tree on the ground where he lives this year, as a centennial offering to those who may come after them and sit in the shade of the same.

The papaw tree is said to possess the curious property of rendering exceedingly tender any kind of meat that is hung amid its branches, and Smith is very anxious to know what it would cost to transplant a papaw tree to the back yard of his boarding house.

Dilemma in England—they cannot get men for the army, and the Government dare not suggest conscription.

The cures performed by using Heintz's Queen's Delight should be known all over the land.

AN ORDINANCE RESPECTING DEATHS OCCURRING IN THE CITY.

SEC. 1. Be it Ordained by the Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Columbia, in Council assembled, and it is hereby Ordained by the authority of the same, That the City Physician, in addition to the duties specified in an ordinance regulating the duties of the City Physician, ratified on the 9th May, 1871, shall be required to keep a public registry of the deaths occurring in the city; and shall submit to the City Council at the first regular meeting in April of each year, a report showing the performance of his duties, the state of the public health in the past year, with such recommendations as he may deem expedient and proper.
