

—Charleston, August 19. With everything apparently in good order over the giant seaplane Sampaio Correia, flying from New York to Rio de Janeiro arrived here from Southampton, N. C., at 3:40 this afternoon. Lieut. Hinton said the Sampaio Correia will take the air at sunrise tomorrow, heading direct for Nassau; an overseas flight of 750 miles. He said that he plans to leave Nassau at sunrise Monday for San Juan 420 miles. He appeared to be confident of reaching Rio de Janeiro in ample time for the opening of the centennial celebration of Brazilian independence. Mr. Hinton and his associates seemed confident the Sampaio Correia was functioning splendidly. They were disappointed over the double delay in reaching Charleston, Thursday at Manteo, N. C., and yesterday at Southport, near Wilmington, N. C. The craft took two hours and thirteen minutes for the afternoon flight and was in radio communication all the time. Besides Mr. Hinton, the others aboard the plane are George T. Ewe, a reporter, E. Pinto Martins, assistant pilot; John Wilschauen, mechanic and J. T. Baltzell, camera man for a cinema news concern.

Notice.

To the Patrons of the Clover Schools: The Clover Public Schools will begin the 1922-23 session on Monday, September 4th. It is very important that, as far as possible at least, every student should begin with the opening of the school.

The building program interfered considerably with the school work last session. Although unavoidable the confusion and noise the first part of last session were very distracting. Happily, the conditions now are very favorable. The trustees have been very zealous in their efforts to secure competent and trained teachers.

The law requires that all children attending a public school shall be vaccinated. In order that there should be as little interruption as possible after school has started, all children who have not already been vaccinated should be vaccinated at once. There is every indication that the coming year will be one in which good work will be accomplished.

W. S. Reid, Superintendent.

Card to the Voters.

To the Democrats of York County. I am approaching you by this method, because there is no other way available to me at this time.

As you are aware, I am a candidate for the office of County Treasurer for the term beginning with the expiration of the term of Mr. H. E. Neil on July 1, of next year, or as soon thereafter as Mr. Neil can be checked out of office, probably in August or September.

I was late in entering the race because of circumstances with which most readers of this paper are familiar, and except for which circumstances I would not have entered at all.

Being thoroughly familiar with the complicated responsibilities of the position, I was reluctant to enter, but finally yielded to the persuasion of numerous friends and well-wishers, who insist that my long experience in the office, and my wide acquaintance with the many good people with whom I have come in contact during that experience would make my services especially useful and valuable to the fiscal affairs of York County.

I have no doubt of my ability to fill the position, and since I have entered, I naturally want to win; so to that end I want to ask for the help of every friend I have who feels that he or she can help me without injustice to themselves or to any of the other candidates.

Of course I am not in position to make promises; but as to whether or not I am capable of discharging the duties of the office along the same efficient lines on which they have been discharged heretofore, most readers of this paper are in a position to judge for themselves, and there will have no difficulty in finding out by making inquiry of those who are in a position to know.

If it were so that I could I would be glad to talk this matter over with each of you in person; but as that is not practicable I can only leave the case with you. If you see proper to give me the recommendation, such an evidence of your confidence and esteem will make me the proudest man in the State; but if, on the other hand you cannot see your way clear to favor me with this high honor, I shall continue to consider myself rich in the memory of the courteous consideration that you have always been according me heretofore.

Respectfully, Lucile Ewart Quinn.

Look Before You Leap!

WE HAVE USED the above expression in our advertisements in the Enquirer during the past twenty-three years scores of times, and very likely you have read it, but failed to act, because you had the idea, as many have who have never looked, that "All life insurance companies are about the same." NOW, HONESTLY, do you think we would be so silly as to claim that the Mutual Benefit is in a class by itself, if we did not KNOW that it was? It is a fact that there are not less than 200 companies in the United States that would settle with you according to THEIR contract, but there is not a single solitary one that guarantees in its contract (policy) to treat you as well as and as liberally while you are living as the Mutual Benefit.

The Mutual Benefit has a record covering a period of 77 years that is as white as snow.

It was organized in 1845 by a few high class men for the sole purpose of furnishing the BEST there was in life insurance at a minimum cost to its members (policy holders) and has always done exactly that. "Look Before You Leap."

FOR Probate Judge

To the Voters of York County:—

In seeking the suffrage of the voters (men and women) for the important office of Probate Judge of York County, I would respectfully submit that I am fully capable of attending to the duties of this important position.

I am 27 years of age and a native of the Sharon section of York county, where I have resided practically all of my life.

I was educated in the public schools of York county and at Clemson College.

Upon my return from the World War, in which I served overseas with the Twenty-ninth Division, I resumed my work of teaching and farming.

Prior to my entry into the military service I was executor for the estate of my father, the late Henry Cain, and am still in charge of said estate.

I hold that my experience as a farmer and teacher and business man has fully equipped me to attend to the duties of the office of Probate Judge if nominated, and I promise faithful and conscientious service.

I am making this race upon my own merits and not upon the demerits of any of my opponents.

I have conducted a clean campaign and propose to continue doing so.

Your vote for Probate Judge on Tuesday, August 29, will be appreciated by no candidate more than it would be appreciated by
