HOLD ON TO YOUR PAPER

You say it is "hard times." You will find many to agree with you. It is undoubtedly a time calling for genuine economy; not a time to waste money. But do not be seduced into a false economy and stint yourself of things that are of so much value to you as a really good newspaper.

WAIT FOR HER, BOYS!

The girl who is unkind to her mother isn't worth a tinker's dog-gone. This isn't written in any part of the Bible, but it's written in the history of thousands of mistreated homes.

OUR DAILY POEM

The True Santa Claus. "There's never a home so low, no doubt. But I in my flight can find it out. Nor I but so hidden but I can see The shadow cast by the lone roof-tree, There's never a home so proud and high.

"What is my name? Ah! who can tell, Though in every land 'tis a magic spell; Men call me that, and they call me this. Yet the different names are the same, I'm the Gift-Bearer to all the world am I, Joy-Giver, Light-Bringer, wh'er I fly; But the name I bear in the Courts above, My truest and best name, is Love." Sunday School Times.

BELGIANS AT HOME.

We stated the other day that there were some Belgians nearer home than across the pond, and that there would be as much need of financial assistance at home as abroad. There is in Anderson a widow woman who has three children. Two of them are languishing on beds of fever—typhoid. The third is a little boy just old enough or just large enough, to work in the cotton mills. Yesterday the little fellow went bravely to work, at an hour which we call "beastly early," and after laboring till noon went home to dinner. "But when he got there, the cupboard was bare," and the little fellow had not a bite to eat. He went back to his work hungry as only little growing, overworked little boys can be, and suffered in silence the long afternoon. Fortunately some of the neighbors heard of it and furnished them with supper.

The point we wish to make is this: It is not necessary for us to yearn for some one to help, they are at our door. The spirit of charity is lovable in anyone, but, in Heaven's name, let us prevent such suffering at home, and if we have anything left send it across the waters where the devil's work is being done by the inhuman rulers who claim to be chosen of God. Let us see how large a purse will be raised for the widow, whose children are ill at home of typhoid fever, and whose only support is a little boy who should be where our boys are, in the school room.

The Intelligencer will receive contributions for this worthy cause, and will be glad to head the list with a contribution of one dollar. Who will be one of the fifty we hope to have on this by Christmas day?

WILL VOTE TODAY

A resolution to submit the question of an amendment to the Constitution prohibiting "the sale, manufacture for sale, transportation for sale, exportation for sale, and importation for sale, of intoxicating liquors for beverages in the United States" will be voted on today in the national House of Representatives. The nation is awaiting with much interest the result of the vote. What shall it be? Sections of the country have been trying to have prohibition, but their efforts have been thwarted because the federal government has been opposed to it, or rather has not prohibited the manufacture and sale of the stuff. This vote will show how the representatives of the people stand.

LEVER'S BILL

Representative Lever has been working hard since he has been in Congress for the interests of the agricultural classes of the country. Only yesterday he secured the passage through the House of Representatives of his "Lever Cotton Warehouse Bill," which will "result in the establishment of uniform warehouses and uniform warehouse receipts for agricultural products throughout the country." We are glad to see that this bill is so likely at this time to become law. The United States government has been spending money to help the farmer to study his soil and try to produce more crops and more economical crops, but this measure of stabilizing the value, and aiding in the marketing, has been lacking. In our opinion this bill is indeed very timely, and will result in much good to the producing classes of the country.

EVIDENCE OF BLOODHOUNDS

We notice that the number of bloodhounds, after a suspect has been captured usually sends him and several others into the woods, but has the suspect alone to climb a tree. The dogs follow and bay the man up the tree. Many people would have more confidence in the dogs if several were required to climb trees and the dogs would then select the right one. We do not charge anybody with practicing any tricks, but a man can do tricks with bloodhounds as well as through any other agency. For instance, the dog's master, after having his hand on a suspect, might let the dog smell his hand for a clue to the trail to be followed. Detectives are often suspected of tricks which make false evidence look plausible. The detective may even cause a bloodhound to give false evidence.—Pee Dee Advocate.

that an extraditable crime was charged and the only question before the supreme court was the legality of the extradition of a prisoner so charged.

Legal authorities who have followed the case predicted today a wide field of controversy would be opened up when the New York courts were reached.

Calls Son on Telephone. PITTSBURGH, Pa., Dec. 21.—"I can not believe it," exclaimed Mrs. William Thaw, mother of Harry K. Thaw, when informed today of the decision of the United States supreme court. Mrs. Thaw immediately called her son at Manchester, N. H., on the telephone. She declared the fight had not yet ended.

William A. Stone, former governor of Pennsylvania, and one of Thaw's lawyers, said he had expected a different decision.

Ends 16 Months of Litigation. NEW YORK, Dec. 21.—The supreme court's decision in the case of Harry K. Thaw marks the end of 16 months of litigation to get Thaw back a prisoner in the Matteawan State hospital.

With the aid of five conspirators Thaw got away from the institution in an automobile and made for the Canadian border. He was caught two days later just after he had crossed into Quebec in a farm wagon. He was arrested and taken to Coaticook, Quebec, where he was kept in jail pending efforts of the New York State authorities to have him deported.

Thaw immediately engaged counsel who, by various court processes, blocked efforts of the New York State representative.

William T. Jerome, who acted as deputy State attorney general, said that as soon as arrangements could be perfected, Thaw would be brought to this county and tried on the conspiracy indictment before he was returned to Matteawan.

Received Announcement Without Comment

MANCHESTER, N. H., Dec. 21.—Harry K. Thaw received without comment today the announcement of the supreme court's action. He has been staying here for the last three months.

Cared For Big City.

TOLEDO, O., Dec. 21.—Fifteen thousand men, heads of families, out of work will be cared for by the city. Council tonight appropriated $50,000 to employ the unemployed cleaning snow from the streets.

Army of Two Million Men.

LONDON, Dec. 21.—England has more than two million men under arms and before spring a half million fresh British soldiers will join those in France and Belgium, according to David Lloyd George, who gives an interview to the London representative of the Paris Humanite.

Will Be Brief.

PARIS, Dec. 21.—The ministerial declaration on the military situation to be read tomorrow at the reopening of Parliament is understood to be unusually brief, sketching the situation only in outline. Many members desire to question the government in detail concerning various phases of the military operations. It is quite likely a secret session will be demanded that confidential information may be communicated.

Some "heavy thoughts" are in reality too light to be turned over in your mind—they get away so easily.

A RELIEF COMMITTEE HAS BEEN APPOINTED

TO TAKE UP MATTER OF RELIEVING LOCAL CONDITIONS

MEET SOON

Mayor Godfrey Says Committee Will Be Called Together After Christmas.

"The general committee which has been appointed from city council, the various churches of the city, the Civic Association and the chamber of commerce for the purpose of devising ways and means of relieving suffering among destitute and worthy people of the city will not be called together until after Christmas," said Mayor Godfrey last night. In the mean time efforts will be made to procure from other cities certain information as to how matters of this kind are handled. "The committee," said the mayor, "desires to go about this matter in a thorough and systematic manner and get results, and we are going to get all the information possible on the matter before we set out. We do not want the committee to be imposed upon and at the same time we wish to make our efforts as offensive as possible."

Members Appointed.

Last Saturday the mayor issued a call for the pastors of the several churches to appoint representatives for a general committee which would take in hand the matter of devising ways and means for relieving the distress which will surely be upon the city before the winter is over.

The following committees were reported yesterday to the mayor:

First Presbyterian—E. W. Brown, W. J. Muldrow and W. A. Speer. Grace Episcopal—G. Cullen Sullivan and P. A. Whaley. A. R. P.—J. A. Cook and J. I. Brownlee.

First Baptist—G. H. Bailes and Rufus Fant.

Bethel Methodist—F. J. White, W. H. Fennell and Amos Heston.

Central Presbyterian—J. L. Sherard and John K. Hood.

St. John's Methodist—G. H. Geiger and B. B. Bleedley.

Civic Association—Mrs. Rufus Fant, Mrs. C. S. Sullivan, Mrs. O. L. Martin and Miss Minnie Wilson.

Chamber of Commerce—J. S. Fowler, Archie L. Todd and R. J. Rhames.

Offers of Help.

Several business men of the city have expressed their willingness to assist in this worthy enterprise. Mayor Godfrey stated yesterday that Mr. Chas. A. Gambrell, president of the Petroleum Oil Company, has offered that he was considering giving one-half cent on each gallon of gasoline sold at the Anderson plant during the month of January, a donation which would amount to about $100.00. The mayor said that Judge J. S. Fowler had stated that he would be one to give a liberal donation.

Matter Endorsed.

The committee in charge of the Belgian Christmas fund movement here, which held its final meeting yesterday at the chamber of commerce, heartily endorsed the undertaking of the general committee.

German Cruiser Reported Sunk.

LONDON, Dec. 21.—(4:45 p. m.)—Persistent rumors are current that a German cruiser has been sunk off the coast of Scotland.

It is also rumored that two British destroyers arrived at Leith, Scotland, badly damaged.

There is no official confirmation of these reports.

GERMAN EMPEROR AND HIS STAFF HAVE GONE TO THE WESTERN FRONT

actively participate in the war.

(By Associated Press.)

LONDON, Dec. 21.—In Poland and Galicia battles are being fought between the Russians and the German and Austrian allies amid deep snow in bitter cold. In Belgium and northern France the German and the French, British and Belgian allies are contesting to the mud fields, foot by foot.

No news of any decisive gain came from either arena today. The Russian and Germans are directly contradictory.

The Germans in Poland again are making a fierce attack toward the capital and the Russians are opposing them on the east bank of the Bzura river, 30 miles west of Warsaw. Grand Duke Nicholas' army, here holds a natural strategic line 50 miles long, running, roughly, north and south along the east banks of the Bzura and Rawka rivers.

The Petrograd official report claims that the German force in North Poland has retreated across the boundary into East Prussia in a northwesterly direction. It asserts also that the Austrian advance through the Carpathian passes to the north has been checked and attempts of the Przemysl garrison to break through the lines have been repulsed. According to this report the Austrians have been driven into the fortifications with heavy slaughter.

The Austrian communication claims successes in the Carpathians but admits that the Russians again occupy Galicia and South Poland in force. Apparently, therefore, the Cracow and Przemysl investments are proceeding and have not been broken.

Serious fighting between the Russians and Turks around Erzerum, Turkish Armenia, has been stopped by a six-foot snowfall and intense cold, from which the Arabs are suffering bitterly.

Berlin publishes what purports to be an order issued by General Joffre, commander-in-chief of the allied forces in the west, dated December 17, exhorting the soldiers and telling them the hour has come to "clear the invaders from France."

A late Paris official bulletin describes small gains all along the line, particularly in the center between the Argonne and the Meuse. British ships again have been bombarding Zebruggie and Heyat, as well as the coast beyond, where the Germans have established many shore batteries.

Political developments in Hungary, whose people are reported to be deeply discontented because they think that Germany and Austria are falling to give Hungary a fair share of protection, are the subject of much speculation and deep interest in England.
