Beau and Mrs. M. E. Hill have leased Midway for a year.

The following notices were published in this issue:

FOUR PAGES OF ANARCHIST

With Proper Effect, Fort Mill Take Over One or Two Places

The editor of the paper stated that he would not be bound by any law which would interfere with his freedom of expression. He further stated that the paper would not be bound by any law which would interfere with his freedom of expression.

HORSE, MONDAY, NOVEMBER 25, 1817

The horse was not permitted to cross the street without a license.

The following notices were published in the newspaper:

ROCK HILL, S.C.

SANTA CLAUS Has Arrived

And made headquarters at Massey’s, as in the past 25 years. Our stock is a little different this year. The Christmas presents are of more substantial type than anything usual as well as ornamental. It is needless to mention prices, as you all know that our prices are always the lowest.

Our stock of Waistcoats, Cloaks, Jewelry, Silver, Cut Glass and China is especially attractive. Come and see the goods, the prices will do the rest.

L. J. MASSEY.

Parks Drug Company.

Horses, Mules, Buggies, Wagons and Harness.

We are now here in our new stable ready to do business. We sell only the best of everything we handle and as cheap as can be bought anywhere. All we ask is that you look at our line before purchasing, and then know we can do business with you.

We sell the celebrated STUFEBAKER and NESSON WAGONS, ROCK HILL, CORTLANDT and other BUGGIES. OUR HARNESS line is complete. Come to see us.

S. J. Kimball & Sons, Mill, S.C.