Weston is the man who has two soles and but a single thought.—Detroit News. An exchange says: "Peru will pay off her national debt with guano—scant for cent. John Ryan died in Boston Saturday from the effects of a prize fight, with Michael Carney. Governor Stanford, of California, owns Lulu, the fastest piece of horse-flesh in the world. Wendell Phillips is out with a rejoinder in reply to Carl Schurz' letter of the 8th. W. P. wants more greenbacks. Leverrier keeps on discovering planets. He has found a half-dozen. They're a good thing, too; we can't have too many planets. William Allen, says the only men not spoiled by being lionized are himself and the prophet Daniel. He was quite intimate with Daniel. Noah paddled his own canoe, says Bill Allen, and had no hierarchical notions. Noah and the ancient William used to counsel together. Good placer gold mines have been struck very recently in the streams of the Wind River and Big Horn mountains, 100 miles north of Camp Stambaugh. Says the Sheldon (Iowa) Mail:—"Charley Mesner, a farmer of Sioux county, saved the parings from two bushels of potatoes and planted them. This fall he dug ninety bushels, besides using from the patch since the 4th of July." This is Taunton (Mass.) Gazette poetry: "There was a nice little girl in Squawbetty, a little inclined to be fretty; says she, 'Wal, I guess, if I pin back my dress, it is nobody's biz in Squawbetty.'" An exchange says: "Senator Jones, of Nevada, is in Connecticut visiting his wife. And that's right. We think a man should visit his wife once in a while, even if he is a senator, just for the sake of keeping up the acquaintance."—Norristown Herald. The rectifying house, residence and all the property of J. P. Kissenger, of Milwaukee, has been seized by the collector of internal revenue for an assessment of $236,000 against the Union Copper Distilling Company of Chicago, of which J. P. is a stock holder. Intense excitement continues at Concord, N. H., over the Josie Long-made murder. Circumstances point strongly to Drew as the guilty wretch who committed the diabolical murder, and it is very probable that he will be strung up without the formality of a trial. Stumbling into his room he sat down on the edge of the bed, and soliloquized thus: "Eet wet, tight boots, a sore on one hand an' a felon on 'other, and no boot-jack in z' house. S'ings got to be different. E'ther I mus' get married, else get a boot-jack; w'ishall I do?" When a boy has been off all day, contrary to the expressed wish of his mother, and on approaching the homestead at night, with an anxious and cautious tread, finds company at tea, the expression of confidence and recititude which suddenly lights up his face cannot be reproduced on canvas. The Saginaw Courier says that the death of Miss King, at the burning of the Herndon hotel at Marshall, Mich., is ascribed to an overweening feeling of modesty, which prevented her, in her unclothed condition, from stepping upon a ladder upon which a fireman stood waiting to rescue her. When the Hon. J. P. Jones, of Nevada, was running for lieutenant governor, there stepped up to him a free-born American citizen, a little unsteady in his walk, and said, "Where's J. P. Jones? I want to see him. I want to know who I'm votin' for before I vote, I do." Jones struck an attitude, saying, "I am J. P. Jones." "You!" said the voter, taking a deliberate survey from head to foot and from there back again. "Ah! you won't do, won't do—No. 5 hat and No. 14 boots." And he turned and staggered away in sadness too great for tears.

THE NORTH POLE.

Tidings from the Exploring Expedition up to August 9th.

An Improvement in General Business Reported.

The Ohio Elections—Both Parties are Confident.

FOREIGN.

THE NORTH POLE EXPEDITION.

NEW YORK, Oct. 12.—A special from London says that letters have been received from Capt. Allen Young and one of the officers of the Pandora, dated Disco, August 6th, and Waygart Straits, August 9th. The letters describe the voyage as pleasant. The Pandora coaled at Disco. There had been some collisions with icebergs, but the vessel was not injured. The officer's letters describe the crew as working well. All on board fare alike. At Ovigial Bay they saw the Fox.

A DUEL.

Another London dispatch states that a duel was fought with swords at Vesignet, near Paris, Sunday, between two young Americans named Riggs and Paine. The cause was an old family vendetta, which was renewed last Thursday night in the Renaissance Theatre, where blows were exchanged. The result of the duel was that Paine was wounded slightly in the arm.

Business.

NEW YORK, Oct. 12.—The Evening Post, reviewing the state of trade here says: "Every firm heard from reports larger sales this year than since the panic. One of the largest dry goods houses reports sales during September of $1,300,000 ahead of corresponding month in 1874. This is an exceptional case. Railroad tonnage never was larger than now on the trunk lines."

Ohio Elections.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 12.—Election absorbs all other interests to-day. Indications are that a very large vote will be polled. Both parties are confident. Attempts at repeating in the 18th and 19th wards were promptly frustrated.

Liquor Tax Constitutional.

DETROIT, Oct. 12.—The state law taxing the liquor business was to-day decided by the supreme court to be constitutional.

Beautiful Snow.

COLLINGWOOD, Canada, Oct. 12.—About six inches of snow fell here last night, and still snowing.

The First Centennial Accident.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 12.—The wind blew down the unfinished agricultural hall, injuring eight laborers, five seriously, one fatally.

The Best Farmer.

The best farmer is he who raises the best and largest crops on the smallest surface of land at the least expense, and at the same time annually improves his soil; who understands his business and attends to it; whose manure heap is very large and always increasing; whose corn crib and smoke house are at home; who is surrounded by all the necessities and comforts of life; who studies his profession, and strives to reach perfection in it; who keeps a strict account of his outgoes as well as his incomes, and who knows how he stands at the end of each season. Such a farmer, in nine times out of ten, will succeed, and not only make farming a pleasant and profitable occupation. Try it and see how it is yourself, reader.—Farmers' Indicator.

How to Select a Gardener.

One of Boston's best known merchants, noted for his shrewdness and penetration, had a test case recently, and came off victorious. It appears that the merchant wanted another gardener upon his country estate near Boston, and an individual presented himself for that office. "Understand the business?" "Yes; been in it for ten years." "Whom had he lived with last? The applicant mentioned a gentleman the merchant was well acquainted with; stated that he left for no fault, but that his former employer was going to Europe and sold his estate, and had no further use for him. "What wages do you expect?" "Eighteen dollars a month." "This was astonishingly low for such a promising looking, sober man; and the shrewd business man rubbed his chin thoughtfully and reflected that it was a bargain at last. But wasn't there something wrong about it? His habitual business caution, even in this comparatively trifling negotiation did not forsake him. "Call to-morrow at this time, and I will have seen Mr. , your former employer, and give you an answer." The gardener turned and began to walk slowly away. As he did so, he displayed two patches on the seat of his pantaloons beneath the line of his roundabout jacket. "Hallo! here! Come back here!" called the merchant. "You needn't apply to-morrow. I see I shan't want you." The applicant stammered out something about his knowledge of gardening and good character; but was cut short by this practical observation: "Don't want you, sir. The patches on your breeches are on the wrong side. A gardener's breeches ought to be patched on the knees, not on the seat. You won't do for me."
