A Comprehensive View of the Important Happenings of the Week

The National Reform Association has had a meeting in St. Louis, and the radical wing of the party has been making considerable noise. The reformers are agitating the question of the tariff, and they are calling for a reduction in the duties on imports. The party is also demanding the abolition of trusts and the promotion of small businesses. The radical wing of the party is gaining strength, and it is feared that it may soon take control of the movement.

Western News

Washington, D.C.

The gates of the executive mansion are once more thrown open to the public for the purpose of inspection. The grounds are now a veritable sea of green, and the flowers are in full bloom. The statues and monuments are all in good repair, and the general appearance of the place is most pleasing. The gates are open every day from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., and the public is invited to come and take a look around.
