REVISED AT MADISON, WASHINGTON COUNTY

STATE NEWS

Rapidly expanding, Central methodists have started a drive to secure $100,000 for the construction of a new church building for the district, with special emphasis on the work to be done in Madison. The drive is being led by the Reverend Mr. Smith, pastor of the Central Methodist church.

J. M. Ziegler, the local Methodist minister, has arranged several concerts and dances to raise money for the new building. The concerts will be held in the local school auditorium, while the dances will take place in the local hall.

The drive is being endorsed by the local businessmen, who have pledged to support the cause. The goal is to raise $100,000 within the next year.

The Reverend Mr. Smith expressed his gratitude to the community for their support, and he urged everyone to contribute to the drive.

TOWN HAS EATING "CHAMPS"

Kasville, Tenn.—The town of Kasville is home to a new and unusual restaurant, the Kasville "Champs." The restaurant is popular with the locals, who enjoy its unique menu and atmosphere.

The "Champs" offers a variety of dishes, including homemade pies, sandwiches, and hamburgers. The restaurant is open from 5:00 p.m. to 10:00 p.m., seven days a week.

The "Champs" is owned and operated by Mr. and Mrs. Smith, who opened it in 1921.
