

APRIL NUMBER

The Oglala Light.

OFFICIAL ORGAN OF PINE RIDGE RESERVATION

14th. Year

Number 7.

Contents:

The Truth About The Nevahoe, Some Facts About His Land	3.
By E. A. Allen
The Essentials of a Teacher of Indian Children	6.
By Bessie M. Minnis
Our Fight against Trachoma & Tuberculosis at Rosebud	8.
By Dr. William A. Rebout
Pictorials
Different Points to be Considered in the Promotion of Pupils— By D. Clinton West	13.
A Plan to Rid a Community of Flies By Clifton F. Hodge	15.
Our Exchanges	26.
News and Rumors of Pine Ridge.	24.
Boarding School News Items.	22.

THE OGLALA LIGHT is issued from the Printing Department of The Oglala Indian Training School which is located at Pine Ridge, South Dakota. The mechanical work on it being done by student-apprentices under direction of the school printer. Ralph H. Ross, M. D., Editor — Francis Chapman, Manager and Instructor.

The Light has a wide circulation both in and out of the Government Service. It is an excellent advertising medium and the quickest way of reaching employees of the U. S. Government. Subscription price Fifty Cents per Volume. Ten numbers will probably constitute a volume. Back Numbers Ten Cents Each.

Address all communications regarding subscriptions and other subjects relating to this magazine directly to THE OGLALA LIGHT, U. S. Indian Training School, Pine Ridge, South Dakota.

Entered in the Pine Ridge post office as mail matter of the second class.