

William T. More, a graduate of the Phoenix Indian School, class of 1915, has been appointed to an assistant's position at Fort Yuma, Arizona.

Elmer Prophet has recently become the financial clerk at Hayward, Wisconsin.

Supervisor Newberne was a recent visitor at Haskell.

Haskell was the recipient of a call from Dr. Carlos Montezuma during the past month.

Supervisor Peairs is at Haskell making arrangements for the summer institute.

Miss Alice Guest who has been one of the matrons at Sherman Institute has resigned and is taking a course in the state normal and domestic art and science school at Santa Barbara, Calif.

Miss Benily has been transferred from Toreva, Arizona to Oraiba, Arizona as field matron.

Miss Florence Stiensmeyer assumed the duties of teacher at Flandreau, February 24th.

Supervisor Coon spent ten days at Flandreau, leaving on the 19th of the month for Genoa.

Mrs. Thresesa Bonga has resigned her position as assistant in the Girls' building at Flandreau.

On March 4, Miss Ethel Knox became small boys' matron at Chemawa, having been transferred to that position from the Umatilla school.

Special Agent H. T. Brown recently inspected the school and agency at Lower Brule.

Superintendent J. F. House of the Rapid City school, who is the Supervising Superintendent for the state of South Dakota west of the Missouri river has been at Lower Brule in connection with the work of getting the course of study installed.

Mrs. Gertrude Jandreau is the new seamstress at Lower Brule.

Indian Missionary Will Go to Bombay, India.

Ravina, S. D., March 10.—Rev. Father Henry Westropp, Indian missionary of the Indian reservations of South Dakota and Nebraska, was unexpectedly called by a telegram by the provincial of the Jesuit order, of St. Louis, Mo., to sail from San Francisco on March 14, for Bombay, India, to do missionary work among the Hindus. He left Ravinia Thursday morning for San Francisco.

Save Indian Babies,

Plea of Government

Washington, D. C., Jan. 13.—In an appeal "Save the Indian Babies," sent out today to every employe of the United States Indian service, Cato Sells, commissioner for Indian affairs, cited statistics to show that approximately three-fifths of the Indian infants died before the age of 5 years. The commissioner urged the elimination of what he termed "the intolerable" condition that infest some Indian homes, and extension of the educational propaganda against disease.

Fort Yates Land Sale.

Morristown, S. D. Feb. 10.—Another sale of Indian lands will be held at the agency at Fort Yates on Saturday, February 19, the next subsequent sale being on March 25.

Payments are required as follows: Cash on all bids of $1,000 or less; bids