

SUFFRAGISTS MEETING ON LOOKOUT MOUNTAIN

VIEWING GRANDEUR OF SCENERY TODAY.

Meeting at the Home of Hon. and Mrs. Newell Sanders Saturday.

Members of the state executive board of the Tennessee Suffrage association are being entertained in homes on Lookout mountain. They are fifteen strong and entered into a business session this morning at the Mountain club which was exclusive, only members of the board being present.

At noon an informal luncheon was served at the clubhouse, and later the program includes a trip around the mountain in automobiles which brings them in very close touch with the grandeur of the mountain scenery and the pleasure of riding on the splendid roads built on its heights, as well as a scenic view of the river and Moccasin bend, which encircles the mountain like a double S.

The city lying beyond is in very plain view. The ride around the mountain ends at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Nottingham on the west brow. From here can be seen Taccoon and Cumberland mountains.

Address at Luncheon. Saturday morning the board will meet at the home of Hon. and Mrs. Newell Sanders, where a feast of scenery is afforded, which they may enjoy from the broad porch, fanned by the mountain breezes wafted through the tall trees surrounding the home.

Returning from Mrs. Nottingham's the guests will be entertained at dinner by Mrs. George F. Milton at her mountain home, "Piney Wood."

towering beyond the intervening green valleys. The mountain sides show a fringe of wild ferns and flowers at this season of the year. Mrs. Nottingham's guests will consist not only of the delegates, but of her hostesses, Miss Louise Whitten, her house guest, will pour tea. Mrs. R. E. Uhlricht will assist Mrs. Nottingham.

Col. and Mrs. Uhlricht, of Havana, Cuba, who have been the guests of Hon. and Mrs. J. C. Evans, went today for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Nottingham. Vases and baskets of sweet peas cut from the mountain garden will adorn the rooms.

Among the visitors present will be: Mrs. Guilford Dudley, Mrs. John M. Kenney, Nashville; Mrs. G. S. Lanham, Mrs. John M. Ransom, Tullahoma; Mrs. Howie, Rockwood; Mrs. L. T. Hill, Chattanooga; Mrs. Lee Fox, Murfreesboro; Miss Mary Skiffington, Dyerburg; Mrs. Isaac Reese, Mrs. W. B. Miller, Nashville; Mrs. Reuben Mills, Tullahoma; Mrs. R. B. Cooke, Johnson City; Mrs. H. the national association. This is Mrs. Guilford Dudley, one of the national vice-presidents of the suffrage association. Mrs. Dudley not only possesses an attractive personality, but is one of the most convincing speakers, with a decidedly womanish and clever manner, with culture and refinement expressed in every line, that it is the pleasure of the public to hear. Mrs. Dudley and others will speak at the luncheon. Senator F. T. Carter, and Representatives L. D. Miller and Lynn will be the guests of honor of the hostesses' association. Mayor-elect Chambliss will make the welcoming address, and Mrs. John M. Kenney, of Nashville, will respond on behalf of the suffrage association. The luncheon will be served in the grill room at the Patten, so that by speaking the room exclusively, the speeches may be better understood.

THEATRICAL HAS PLEASING BILL

Rialto Program Offers Many Laughs. "Home Guards" Clever Act. One of the most pleasing bills offered local vaudeville patrons in some time is featured at the Rialto for the last part of the week. Without being sensational, the acts are altogether entertaining from the first number to the last. Jimmie Allman's "Home Guards" is the stellar feature of the bill. The scene is a camp in New Mexico. The clever offering proves to be a real laugh producer. Sampel and Leonhart in a singing musical offering present an exceptional act for its particular class. The Sterling Saxophone Four received long applause. The Gilbert sisters, in a good act, were the singing comedy girls of the evening. Miss Lingrade appeared in a classical plastic posing act.

MISS JESSIE COMBS

To Wed Herbert F. Gauiding, of Jacksonville, Florida. R. D. Combs, of Adairville, Ga., announces the engagement of his daughter Jessie Clayton Combs, to Herbert Frank Gauiding, of Jacksonville, Fla. The wedding will take place in the near future. Miss Combs is well known in Chattanooga, and numbers her friends by her acquaintances. She has spent much time in the city, and is a sister of R. B. Combs, formerly of Chattanooga, now of Rome, Ga. The family is well known throughout North Georgia.

MORAL PLAY AT LYRIC

"Fit to Win" Frank Depiction of Soldier Life and Temptation. "Fit to Win," the latest production of the United States Health service, will be featured at the Lyric this next week. The picture is very extremely frank in its depiction of the temptations of military life. While it deals particularly with the soldier, its strong message will be heeded by civilians. In a vivid way it shows the great suffering and misery caused by social disease. It traces the lives of these young men who are mustered into the service, showing the influences of the underworld at work. The picture hammers home the fact that the clean man is better fitted to survive the life of a soldier as well as the life of a civilian.

The curtain will rise promptly at 8:15 o'clock.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Mrs. W. A. Boyles entertained Thursday afternoon at her home on Vance avenue honoring her little daughter, Olla Lee, on her eighth birthday anniversary. The home was brightened with daisies and ferns, and merry games and exciting contests were enjoyed. A bean and a bird contest and various musical interests. Charles Babe won the first prize, Charles Craig the second and Katherine Copeland the third. An ice course in pink and white was served. About thirty friends of the young honoree were present.

Make Wrinkles Go "As If by Magic"

Want to banish every wrinkle—from face, neck, hands—easily, quickly, completely? Try the famous saxolite formula. Nothing else so nearly meets every requirement. Why? Because it is correct in principle and really, truly assists Nature. Possessing remarkable astringent and tonic properties, it both tightens the skin—thus naturally smoothing out the lines—and improves cutaneous circulation and nerve tone—tending to strengthen loose tissue and bring about a healthy condition. Yet, powerful as the saxolite lotion is, it won't harm your skin in the least. And it's easy to get the inexpensive ingredients at your druggist's, and so easy to mix them. Just dissolve one ounce powdered saxolite in one-half pint which hazel—that's all. Bathers your face in this—immediately every wrinkle and crease are affected, even the deepest. You are perfectly astonish and delighted, with the result. You look like you've lost years from your age.—(Adv.)
