

The Home Journal.

PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY EVENING AT TWO DOLLARS PER ANNUM.

AGENTS FOR THE JOURNAL. S. M. PETTINGILL & CO., New York.

Subscriptions for a shorter time than one year must be paid in advance.

When credit for the paper is given to the end of the year three dollars will be invariably charged.

Clabbing.—We will supply either Harper's Magazine, or Graham's, or Godfrey's and the Home Journal, one year, for four dollars.

Hill's Almanac is for sale at Wm. Stewart's, at ten cents each. Every person should have one.

At the election last Saturday for Mayor, Aldermen and Town Constable, the old board was re-elected, and R. P. Darrell Town Constable.

At the election on last Monday for Tax Collector, Thos. J. Jackson was chosen to succeed Mr. Foster.

THAT OYSTER SUPPER, given by our good Mayor, F. T. Estill, at the Court House, on Saturday night last, was a well-attended affair.

We call especial notice to the advertisement of James A. England, in another column. Let every capitalist weigh well this chance for a speculation.

TO PRINTERS FOR AN OFFICE. We have an excellent South Hand Press—plate 31x21 and bed 37x25.

On the occasion referred to, Harry Carr, the Clerk of the Board of Mayor and Aldermen, officiated as main manager, and the fact that the oysters, and so forth, come from his grocery establishment, was ample proof that they were "number one," and would "do to tie to," as well as to eat.

Smith & Carr have on hand a few barrels of a new sort of berries, for making pies. They resemble raisins, and would make splendid desert, we surmise.

Mr. Thos. L. Estill, Chief Engineer on the Winchester & Alabama Railroad, informs us that 560 tons of iron for his road arrived at Charleston on the 27th inst., and will be here soon.

Our Drawer is full of Communications, consisting of poetry and prose, but we cannot attend to them this week.

TO CORRESPONDENTS. The following pieces are accepted:—"Lines on the Death of Emma, by R****"; "The World's Progress," "Lines by Moonlight," "A Song of Love," and "Love."

Never before in our life have we been so confident of the future success of our town. New buildings are constantly going up—more business is done, and the people all seem to be in better spirits.

The Journal this week is printed as neatly as ever, but does not contain quite as interesting matter as we desired it to.

MARKET REPORTS.—It is our intention to keep a regular record, after this week, of the Nashville, the Cincinnati, the Atlanta, and the Mobile markets if we can possibly procure them.

The beautiful address on our first page, by Mrs. Adelia C. Graves, is worthy of higher commendation than we are able to bestow upon it.

It will be joyful news to many to know that the Trustees of the Female Seminary, under the charge of Rev. E. B. Crisman, as Principal, have secured the services of Mrs. C. W. Donnell, widow of the late Rev. Robt. Donnell, as Governess in the school.

We call especial notice to the advertisement of James A. England, in another column. Let every capitalist weigh well this chance for a speculation.

Nashville Bank Note and Exchange List. Bank of Tennessee, Nashville, Tenn. 100.00. Commercial Bank, Nashville, Tenn. 100.00.
