LAND SALE

In County Court at Cookeville, Tenn. R. C. BOATMAN, Administrator, et al., vs. INA CARR et al.

In obedience to a decree of the County Court at Cookeville, made at the March term, 1911, in the above styled case, I will, on Saturday, the 1st day of July, 1911, at 1 o'clock p. m. in front of the depot at Algood, Tenn., sell to the highest and best bidder, the property in said decree described, being a house and lot known as the W. H. Carr, deceased, home place, lying and being in the 19th Civil District of Putnam County, Tennessee, adjoining the lands of Ed Cannon on the east, Graham on the south, by Streets on the west and north, containing one acre more or less.

TERMS OF SALE
Said sale will be made on a credit of six, twelve and eighteen months, except 20 per cent. cash, to be paid on day of sale, and in bar of equity of redemption. Notes, drawing interest from day of sale, with good personal security, will be required of the purchaser, and a lien will be retained on the property sold, as further security.
This 8th day of June, 1911.
W. O. WATSON,
Clerk and Commissioner.

SHERIFF'S SALE OF LAND

In obedience to a decree of the Circuit Court of Putnam County at Cookeville, Tenn., made in the case of H. D. Whitson et al vs. A. Stamps, I will on Saturday, July 15th, 1911, at 1 o'clock, in front of the courthouse door in the town of Cookeville, sell to the highest and best bidder for cash in hand, the tract of land in said decree described, and levied on as the property of A. Stamps, which levy and boundary of land is in the words following:
Came to hand in due time and after diligent search, I find no personal property of the defendant's in my county, I therefore levy this execution on all the right, title and interest the defendant, A. Stamps, has in and to the following real estate in the Second Civil District of Putnam County, Tenn., and bounded on the north by the lands of Pinkston, on the east by the lands of Holman, on the south by the lands of Clark, on the west by the lands of Nicholas, containing 137 acres more or less, said land levied on as the property of the defendant herein, subject to his homestead right, and I summons T. B. Jackson, County Surveyor, A. J. Dudley and W. C. Maxwell, three disinterested freeholders of said county, who being sworn according to law, went upon said premises and duly set apart and laid off said homestead, which will more fully appear in their report as such commissioners and their certificate of same, which is here referred to, and made a part of this return.
This Feb. 14th, 1911.
Returned to Clerk Feb. 24th, 1911.
J. M. LOFTIS, Constable.

Report of Commissioners
H. D. Whitson et al vs. A. Stamps.
There being two cases as here indicated. The undersigned commissioners duly summoned by J. M. Loftis, Constable for Putnam County, Tennessee, he having heretofore levied two executions issued by J. R. Douglass, Esq., upon all the right, title and interest of the defendant in both the above styled causes, in the premises set out and described in the return on said executions, we being summoned for the purpose of allotting and setting apart a homestead in said tract of land for the defendant, A. Stamps.
We each being duly sworn by said J. M. Loftis, Constable, as required by law, have allotted and assigned to the said A. Stamps the following portion of said tract of land as his homestead: Beginning on a rock in H. M. Nicholas' east boundary line, it being 10 poles north of his and said Stamps' dogwood corner, thence north 11 degrees east 27 poles to a stake, north 50 degrees east 18 1/2 poles to a black walnut stump, north 30 degrees east 27 poles to a stake near the barn, east 10 degrees south 20 1/2 poles to a stake in Josiah Brown's line, thence with said Brown's line 44 poles to a stake and corner near the head of Brown's spring, south 90 poles to a rock corner with pointers, east 20 1/2 poles to a buckeye and dogwood, south 56 poles to a rock in the east boundary line of the original tract, thence west to the beginning, containing 70 acres more or less, including the family residence and appurtenances. We also exclude from the above boundary a right of way for road, 18 feet wide, parallel with the west boundary line of said homestead, running north from the beginning corner to the road.
Said homestead, together with the remainder of said premises, are shown on the plat herewith exhibited as a part of this report marked "A."
Respectfully submitted,
W. C. MAXWELL,
A. J. DUDNEY,
Commissioners.
T. B. JACKSON,
County Surveyor.
