Stubborn Case

"I was under the treatment of two doctors," writes Mrs. R. L. Phillips, of Indian Valley, Va., "and they pronounced my case a very stubborn one, of womanly weakness. I was not able to sit up, when I commenced to take Cardui.

I used it about one week, before I saw much change. Now, the severe pain, that had been in my side for years, has gone, and I don't suffer at all. I am feeling better than in a long time, and cannot speak too highly of Cardui."

THE MONTEREY MERCANTILE CO.

Buffalo Valley, R. 1

Well, I suppose as I am now a full fledged citizen of this town, town and being a Route carrier, a small bunch of news from our town and the route too would not be out of place.

We kinder think we are it now —2 pikes leading out of here under construction and a third leading out to the old Walton Road from Cookeville to Lebanon all finished. Oh! I forgot to tell you we have a railroad too—the T. C. —runs all the way from Harri-man to Nashville via this place.

Maddux and Maddux recently purchased the entire business of C. B. Maddux and will run an up to date mercantile establishment.

W. W. Jared returned from Nashville Saturday night, he shipped a carload of stock.

Miss Rettie Cowan is visitihg friends in Cookeville.

Mrs. Altie Lancaster of Lan-caster is in town visiting rela-tives.

Dr. Lamb, the dentist, is locat-ed over Jones' store working on everybody's teeth that needs work and are willing for it to be done.

Lee McDearman of Gainesboro and little daughter, Stella, visit-ed his sister and family, Mrs. R. G. Apple, on Route 1 last week. He went to Nashville Saturday.

Albert Elrod, foreman of the new pike, has moved his family from Cookeville and are now oc-cupying the Charley Maddux house near the depot.

Mrs. C. H. Clark, the substi-tute rural mail carrier for No. 1, made her first trip alone carrying the mail last Saturday.

At last the drouth has broken. Have had nice showers for a day or so past which has done much good. The farmers are proud, indeed, of the nice rains.

Misses Carrie Owings and Paul-ine Huddleston of R. 1 are visit-ing their cousin, Mrs. Charley Ballard at Franklin, Tenn.

O. B. Short and family, the new depot agent for the T. C. Road, have moved into town and taken charge of the depot. We welcome Mr. and Mrs. Short to our town. C. H. C.

Poplar Springs

Crops look very well this sum-mer.

Wheat is good but oats are short.

People are about half through laying by corn.

Garden stuff is short on the ac-count of dry weather, although we had a good rain about a week ago and it is raining today.

Mrs. Nora G. of Miller, Mo.,

why don't you write to the Her-ald once in a while as you write good letters. I wish you would pay us another visit this fall, No-ra, I often think of the good days we have spent together.

There isn't much fruit through this part of the country.

Cousin Ina, why don't you write? I I sure would like to see you and your children.

There has been lots of sickness here this summer.

M. M. L. of Cookeville, R. 6, you may look for me about fair time as I aim to go to the fair and as you live there close I will make that my head quarters. E.

NOBODY'S DARLING.

Bells, Texas

Mrs. Alice Allison, your letter was fine.

I think our paper gets better every week.

It is real hot and dry here. Corn won't make an ear, and cotton is dieing for the want of rain.

People sure do look blue in this part of the country, and everyone is still hauling water and no-where to haul it from so you see we are in a bad fix.

The writea spent last week with Fred Noah and family. Everett, their only child, who has never been well, is worse at this writing.

Austin Choat and family are well, but Austin looks blue.

Hello, Eunice Willett of Kear-ney, M.

Say, Linnie Staley, let me com-plement youand your boy's photo, it was fine.

Whitewright was visited last Monday by a fire which originat-ed in a trash heap. Forty-three business houses were destroyed and from sixty to seventy-five residences totally lost or badly damaged.

Hello, Z. B. Saylor of Cooper, Tex., I received your letter and will answer soon.

Readers of the Herald, remem-ber me on the 11th of July and send me a card.
