Threshing wheat is the go. Wheat is good this time and corn looks well considering the dry weather.

The people in our community were shocked to hear of the death of Donald Hampton. He was drowned and his body was laid to rest at Dotson Branch.

The writer and Miss Martha Dickerson attended the children's day at Dotson Chapel last Sunday.

Walter Langford and Miss Mary Dickerson attended the Dotson Branch Sunday.

Come on, Lola Lee West, your letters are fine.

Hello, sister Lorety, I guess you will be much surprised when you see Kelley.

ROSA WEST.

Whitson Bros' special is proving a great success, and is still going on. Read their page ad. and take advantage of the low prices they are making on standard goods.

Bro. Gentry, I would like to have that song you played and sang for Bro. Pruett at meeting. The title of it is, "Hold Out to the End".

Wheat is good and corn is looking fine. Oats and hay are short. The sick have all about recovered.

Early Freeman and family attended the children's day at Dotson Chapel last Sunday.

S. A. West, you wanted to know who Lola Lee West is, she is Fletcher West's daughter I think, and Lizzie West is Fate West's daughter; my maiden name was West.

Sister E. of Poplar Springs, I will look for you during the fair.

Loretty of Kansas City, I wish you would write to the Herald.

Johnnie Lee made a flying trip to Jackson County last Sunday.

MYRTLE LEE.

Carbondale, Illinois

I do not live in Tennessee but did about ten years ago, and would like to see the dear old place.

I like your newsy little Herald and could not resist the temptation of trying my skill.

Thank God for the little shower, and I hope it will pour down. The weather has been very dry, although it is raining at this writing.

W. Marcus Judd has the finest wheat in the country.

The writer had her first experience in milking a cow about a month ago and can now milk three.

Little Melvin Judd has not been well for about a week, but is better at this writing.

Marcus Judd and family visited Will Ball last Sunday.

The country is fine and I think it is the only way you can enjoy natural living.

Say, you Single Boy of Baxter, tell W. C. Hughes to wear a bonnet next time and tie it tight.

Houston Proffitt of Sale Creek, your letter was first rate. Write again soon.

Wheat stacking seems to be the order of the day around here.

The balloon did not ascend the Fourth on account of it being too rainy.

Nobody's Darling, I pity you on the third Monday of July.

Lola Lee West, write again as we haven't heard from you in so long a time.

Mrs. W. M. Judd would like to hear from Route 2.

Herald circle, remember me the 30th of July and send me a card. I will send my name before then.

ROSE BUD.

"Generally debilitated for years. Had sick headaches, lacked ambition, was worn-out and all run-down. Burdock Blood Bitters made me a well woman."

-Mrs. Chas. Freitoy, Moosuy, Conn.

Kearney, Mo.

Dear Herald readers as I haven't written to this paper for some time I will give you people a few items from this section.

We are certainly needing rain. Haven't had any rain to speak of for 8 weeks.

Wheat crops are very good and corn is looking reasonably well. Fruit is a little scarce here.

It looks favorable for rain tonight. Glad to hear you Putnam County people were having rain.

Mr. Owen Rector, Mr. Sam Willett received your letter all right.

You wanted to know who Sallie Willett is. She is wife of Henry Willett. The writer is the daughter of Henry Willett.

Cousin Pairzetta I enjoyed reading your letter, and hope you received many birthday cards. Mother received several nice cards. She wishes to thank the ones who sent them. It was her 50th birthday and a very enjoyable one. Quite a number of friends and relatives were present. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Stafford, Mrs. B. B. Stockton and daughter, Miss Mary Harmon, Hilrey Eldridge, Mr. Sid Willett and family, Mr. Sam Willett and wife, Mrs. Mary Amos, John H. Gragg and wife, and Bill Willett.

John Matthews and family visited the writer's home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Qualls are the happy parents of a baby girl.

Cousin Fred Noah, it looks like you might write to your cousin once in a while.

I suppose some of you people have read about the balloon as-censions. There were nine balloons started from Kansas City, Mo, which is 27 miles from where I live. Three of them passed over the town. The others were visible. The news reached here this evening that four of them had fallen.

Mrs. Perry Deck and Mrs. Henry Willett spent Tuesday with Mrs. Sid Willett.

Clark Freeman is on the sick list this week.

Mrs. Burr Qualls, I am still looking for an answer to the letter that is due me.

Wake up, Cousin James Lee, and tell us about the Fourth at Livingston. We had a very quiet Fourth here us there were no fire works on account of the dryness.

EUNICE WILLETT.

Elmer, Okla.

We had a good rain yesterday; farmers say it will make lots of cotton in this part of the country.

The writer with family attended the Masonic picnic at Odell, Texas, Saturday.

Prof. S. B. Starnes and family have moved to Hereford, Texas, or near there, where S. B. will teach school for four months and return to his school at Yellow, Okla.

Misses Bertha and Bulah Nance attended the picnic at Odell, Texas.

Uncle Doc Woods finding no windows in this part of the country interested in matrimony has moved farther east.

Would like to see a letter in the Herald from M. J. Starnes, Van Alstyne, and Lee Foster at Celina, Texas.

Sam Robinson at Frisco, Texas, wake up and write our little paper a long letter.

HARRISON STARNES.

Buy your summer and fall suit now. They are going at cost during our great reduction sale.

WHITSON BROS.

Silver Point

As my time is nearly up I guess I had better send in my 25c for one more year subscription, and I will add a little more to it for which please send the Herald to Thomas and Alfred Carr, Fate, Texas.

Jim Carr and wife are on the sick list this week.

We are having some dry weather and corn is needing rain.

Protracted meeting begins at Hopewell Monday. Everybody invited to come.

Mr. Editor, I see in Mr. Smith's Piano contest adv. that every dollar paid to the Herald counts 100 votes for a candidate, if I am entitled to any votes on this please give them to Miss Bessie Kinnaird.
