

Ahloso, Oklahoma

We have not had a good rain since the 28th of May.

Corn is burnt up around here, but cotton is good.

The writer and family spent the day at W. C. Lollar's Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McCord are the father and mother of a new baby girl.

The writer and family and several others enjoyed eating ice cream at W. M. Davis' Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Green are the father and mother of a nine pound boy.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Davis and little children spent the day at Jim Freeman's.

W. C. Lollar and family and Mattie and Argo Davis visited the writer and family today.

Sunday school is progressing nicely at this place.

Mrs. Nan Davis and Mrs. Mary Freeman visited Mrs. Jesse Green one day last.

Hello, J. L. D., of Lexington, Okla.

Mrs. Dahuff, I would be glad to read a long letter in the Herald from you. I sure do enjoy reading your letters.

Lola Lee West, I like to read your letters.

You said a cloud would come up and look like it was going to rain, but it would just pass on over, that is the way they do here.

What are all you Monterey people doing? I would like to read a letter from there.

Miss Oma Swallows of Monterey, I wish you all would write to me.
MAY DAVIS.

Stuttgart, Arkansas

Health is very good and people are very busy with their rice crops.

Corn crops look fine here and there will be more raised than has been in years.

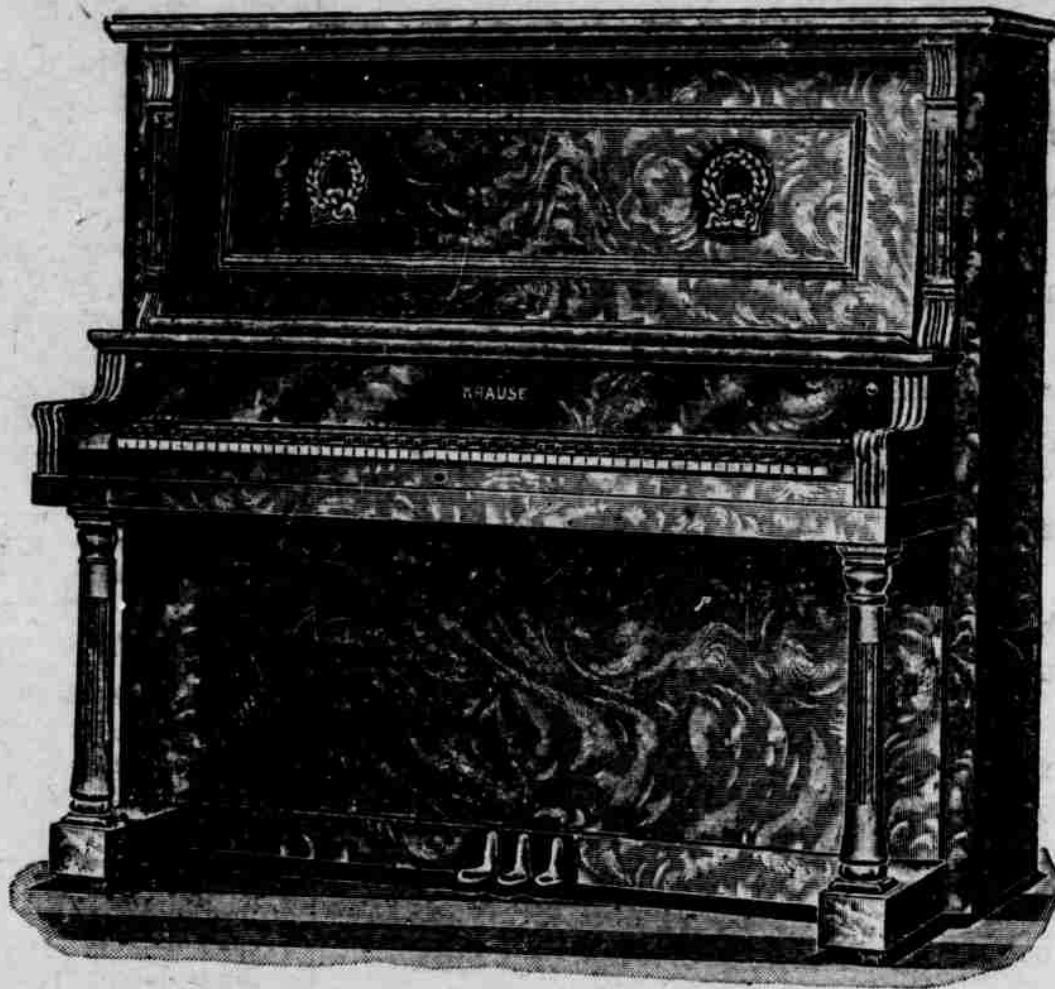

I was born in Tennessee and lived there until I was thirteen when we went to Illinois. J. P. Burroughs and papa have been living in Arkansas five years and I have been here two years. I like Illinois and Arkansas both, but I like Tennessee the best of all.

I had never been to Tennessee since we left there until this summer when we made a visit there. I have two sisters living there, in fact all my folks except my father and mother.

I love the name of Tennessee. I met so many of my old friends it made me think of old times. The people were all so nice to me I never will forget my visit there. I never thought I would like Tennessee until I went there, and now I wish I was back.

We are having nice rains now.
MRS. MARTELIA HUBBARD.
