I arrived here July 7th and am liking this part fine.

It is dry and hot here and corn is almost burnt up.

Hello, Hollis, how are you liking Texas by this time?

Mrs. Bedwell visited Mrs. Hudson a few days past

Miss Marie Bartlett went to Atcheson one day last week.

Cousin R. L. Pendergrass, come on with your news.

Hello, Dewey, do you miss me?
KELLEY WEST.

Notice

To the stockholders of the Cookeville Home Telephone Co., remember that we will be at Cookeville every Saturday and Monday, every week, for the purpose of receiving and receipting for assessments and rentals. Please be prompt and pay up rents at the end of each month, and the assessments at once, before we are forced under the order of the president to put them into the hands of an officer for collection. Both rents and assessments are legal and binding and must be paid, so please meet us at said dates and settle and save costs, and oblige,
J. N. KING, Secretary.
