

Smith Chapel

There was a large crowd met at the Cox graveyard last Saturday for the purpose of cleaning off the graves, they certainly enjoyed the day and had a nice dinner for all.

Last Sunday fifty persons eat dinner with Mary McGhee it being her fiftyninth birthday. The following persons were present: B. D. Welch and family, Uncle Perry Smith, Winburn Owen, Ira McGhee, O. F. Wassom, Owen and Malcom Jaquess and all thier families, Leaner, Minervia, Jennie, Donald, Pearl and Bertha Owen, Clay Masters and wife, M. A. Stockton, Tennessee Maynard, Avo and Vergie Farmer, Carrie Jaquess and Luella and Perry Bartlett. We had a nice time and a watermelon feast; made away with about fifty melons.

Uncle Joe Jaquess, Charles Langford and Luther Gentry are on the sick list.

Lucy Jaquess is able to be up some after a spell of fever.

A few words. Someone has said that man lived in the past and as time passes how easy we can see those things that we gave only a passing thought at that time, but we look back on those happy days of our youth and rejoice that we have been a boy. How often we think of our schoolmates, especially when we see so many names in the Herald that scattered to the four winds, that I learned to like so well in those days, and how good it makes one feel to hear of them. J. F. DYER.
