

Gamaliel, Kentucky

I have many relatives and friends in Putnam county and the Herald is like getting a letter from home.

I was born and reared in Putnam county and lived there for a good many years near Boma. I then came from there to Clay county, near Celina, and lived there for six years; from there to Monroe county, Ky., five miles from Tompkinsville, Ky. and lived there for 6 years; for the last two years I have been living at Gamaliel.

Hello, H. W. Cole, I wrote you a letter some time ago and have not had an answer.

My health is not very good at this writing as I haven't been able to do anything for about five weeks.

Crops are fine in this country.

Mizell and James Cole visited the writer Thursday.

The occupation of the people is building and repairing their dwellings.

Misses Sarah and May Bray, Eve and Christena Deckard and Mrs. Della Deckard visited at the home of the writer Sunday.

Mrs. Letha Bray has returned home from Red Boiling Springs where she has been visiting relatives and friends for the past two weeks. JOE COLE.

"Doan's Ointment cured me of eczema that had annoyed me for a long time. The cure was permanent."—Hon. S. W. Matthews, Commissioner Labor Statistics, Augusta, Me.

Lewistown, Montana

Heavy rain and hail fell here today.

Jack Long left here Monday for Canada.

Ned Petty is out again after a brief illness.

Alex Burton of Heath spent Saturday night and Sunday in town.

John Tubbs has been on the sick list, but is better.

Lee Vickers, you wanted to know if King Ferrell was too busy to write; if you could see him you would think so.

Walter Maddux is in town again after a visit to the country.

Miss Nora Grayce spent Saturday and Sunday very pleasantly with homefolks here.

Miss Eliza Robinson and Jim Byrd made a flying trip to the country Sunday.

Walter Grayce and Cleveland McBroom are at Glengary this week.

Mrs. Jno Robinson is on the sick list.

Alvin Grisham and F. C. Duke went fishing Sunday and caught several nice fish.

Polly, of the Lancing items, what are you doing? Would be glad to hear from you again as I am a Tennessee girl and am especially interested in your letters. Come again and tell us the news from all around in old Morgan county.

The county fair begins here Monday, the 14th. The writer expects to see all of the Tennessee people out. Am sure most of them would rather it was the Cookeville Fair instead of Lewistown.

Dock Sadler, Alec Burton, King Ferrell, Bethel Sadler, Lon Sutton and several of the boys are going back South to spend the winter. DIXIE.

Shipley

I take down my receiver for a short chat with the Herald family. I know not where to go for an hours enjoyment that I might be more successful than to the printed pages of our Herald for here we can read a nice letter from a friend in Texas, Oklahoma and so on throughout the Union.

As for me we have but little general news this week.

The weather is ideal and crops are fine so we are well up with our grunting.

I have been attending church for the last two weeks.

C. F. I was glad to hear from you and C. L. it did me good to read that letter from you may joy and peace attend you.

Bettie O. am still looking for that letter. Don't forget.

Mrs. Green you spoke in regard to the Shipley graveyard, I will answer you by saying it is kept in good condition at all times, it is under a good woven wire fence and is kept cleaned off nicely. There is quite a number of graves there now. I have some friends who have gone on before me to the Gloryland, and whose remains are resting there, I also have some relatives whom I loved resting there, and more I have an infant who was as pure as the angels in Heaven and who was the pride and joy of my home resting there and last but not least I have a sainted mother who is the best friend I can ever hope to have resting there. I once thought I loved my mother and I think I surely did, but young men and women let me insist just here that you will never know the worth of mother until you take her icy hand in yours and bid her farewell as she passes over the mystical stream of death.

Well friends I must bring my letter to a close lest I weary the Editor and the readers, but let me ask you when you have a leisure hour you just write us a good letter through the Herald, you don't know but that you might brighten someones pathway and now with best wishes to all who may chance to see this in print I remain. JOE C. KING.
