Call for Executive Committee

To the Members of the Democratic Executive Committee of Putnam County:

You are hereby notified to meet at the courthouse in Cookeville on Monday, Sept. 4, 1911, for the purpose of transacting such business as may come before the committee, such as fixing a date for a primary election for the purpose of selecting a nominee for Sheriff, Trustee and Assessor.

J. A. CARLEN, Chairman,
D. E. SLAGLE, Secretary.

Labor Day in Cookeville

The citizens of Cookeville will celebrate Labor Day in great style this year. A unique program has been prepared as may be seen by the posters and adv. in this paper. It will furnish fun for all, and then some.

One of the greatest events in the history of Cookeville and this section of the state will be the laying of the corner stone of the University of Dixie. Senator Taylor, Gov. Hooper and other distinguished citizens of the state are expected to be here and deliver addresses.

Every person in the whole upper country is cordially invited to come to Cookeville on Monday, Sept. 4, and enjoy a day of genuine pleasure.

Successful Meetings

Rev. M. Judd reports that together with Rev. Duncan of Nashville he held a meeting at Lone Oak beginning Aug. 7 and lasting eight days, which resulted in ten additions to the church and eight baptisms.

A meeting held by M. Judd at Macedonia began last Saturday and continued several days resulting in eight conversions.

WANTED—At once, 25 good cats; any kind; 75c each next Monday Aug. 28th. TOM LOWE, Cookeville, Tenn.

Mrs. D. S. Allen and baby have returned to their home in Nashville, after a months visit with her sister, Mrs. L. B. Allison.

Trading Day at Algood

The citizens of Algood have set aside Saturday, Sept. 2, as a gala commercial day, and invite the people generally to come to their hustling town on that day.

An elaborate program has been arranged that will furnish ample amusement for the crowd, and valuable prizes will be given to winners in the contests of various kinds. Read the program as printed in the Herald, take your family to Algood Sept. 2 and spend a happy day.

Messrs. Will and Daley Slagle and families of Chicago are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Slagle and other relatives in Cookeville.

The Greatest PRIZE CONTEST of the Season OPENS SEPTEMBER 1, CLOSSES JANUARY 1, 1912

On Sept. 1st, we will open the greatest contest of the season for the benefit of our customers, consisting of three prizes, as follows:

FIRST PRIZE—BED-ROOM SUIT

To the person receiving the greatest number of votes will be given a Bed-Room Suit, consisting of three pieces, one Bed, one Dresser and one Toilet Commode. The Bed is full 80 inches high, 74 inches long and 54 inches wide, with one panel foot end and extra wide panel head with massive roll on top and sides of both head and foot ends. The handsome scroll design carvings are exceptionally attractive, smooth cut and perfectly executed. The beautiful Dresser, with 48x22 in. base, carrying a French plate mirror 36x30 in. supported by roll frame and massive roll standard with deep, smooth-cut carvings, is a beauty. The Wash Stand is made same style as Dresser, with French plate glass mirror, 26x16 in., supported by a beautiful roll standard to match roll on Bed and Dresser. This suit is made of selected quarter sawed oak; selected for the beautiful figure of the grain; rich, golden piano finish. The trimmings are solid brass, highly polished. You could not duplicate the suit anywhere for less than $125.00. Yours for nothing.

SECOND PRIZE—DINNER SET

To the person receiving the second largest number of votes, will be given a beautiful 130 piece Dinner Set, decorated with a border of beautiful pink roses and light green forget-me-nots, interwoven with a delicate green leaf background. The handles are decorated and striped with gold. Each piece is attractively scalloped and embossed, which adds to the beauty of the set. The beautiful flower decoration has heretofore appeared only on the most expensive sets and this is also true of the shape. Words cannot picture to you the real beauty of this set. To see it alone will enable you to appreciate it. This Dinner Set could not be bought at any store for less than $25.00 or $30.00.

THIRD PRIZE—RUG

Choice of any $20.00 Velvet Rug in the store, either floral or oriental design.
