Pilot Knob

If you will give me space in your valuable paper I will write a few items from this part.

Health is not very good in this vicinity.

Hilery Essex and Alpheus Parison are improving after having a spell of fever.

Mrs. John Daniels is no better. Fodder pulling seems to be the order of the day.

Sister Lucy Wigginton of Weatherford, Texas, I was sure glad to see a letter in the Herald from you. I live two miles from Cookeville at the Pilot Knob, sister Haley Scarlett lives in Jackson county, Mayfield is her post office, sister Elizabeth Morphew lives in Kentucky near Bowling Green I don't know what her address is. Lucy there are only five of us living and it looks like we ought to write to each other oftener.

I would like to see a letter in the Herald from my son, G. W. Jackson of Weatherford, Texas.

Hello, Mollie Dahuff, would like for you to come down the second Sunday in October to the decoration at the West cemetery.

The 16 of October is my seventy-second birthday.

MRS. JANE JACKSON.

"I have been somewhat costive, but Doan's Regulets gave just the results desired. They act mildly and regulate the bowels perfectly."—Geo. B. Krause 306 Walnut Ave., Altoona, Pa.

Route Two

Health is very good at present. Mr. and Mrs. Ritchey Bray, Bob Montgomery and Herbert Gentry spent Sunday afternoon at John Bray's.

Alice Randolph spent Sunday night with Rebecca Roberts.

Billie Franklin and wife visited her mother, Mrs. Letha Bray, who is quite sick.

Quite a crowd of young folks spent Sunday at John Bray's.

Henry Grimes and daughter, Miss Eliza and Delmer Adams are visiting at this place.

Pleas Jones returned from Kansas Friday.

There will be decoration at the Ray graveyard Sunday.

Miss Melonee Grimes died at her home in Cookeville last Sunday morning and was buried at West cemetery Monday, funeral services were conducted by Rev. W. B. Gentry. Melonee was a christain girl and dearly loved by all who knew her. LIZZIE BRAY

Hilham, Route Two

I think the Herald the best little paper in the world.

Fodder pulling is the order of the day.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Boles visited the writer last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Boles visited Isaac Gore and wife last Sunday.

Mrs. Martha Gore and Mrs. Mary Masters are down with fever. William Boles is on the sick list.

School is progressing nicely at Pleasant Hill under the management of Prof. Will Brown.

Willie Gragg spent last week with home-folks and returned to Fentress county Sunday where he has been hauling stave bolts.

Miss Lura Boles visited Miss Florence Pigg Sunday.

MRS. ALBA GRAGG.

Obey City

Mabel of Frankfort, how are you getting along?

Polly, if you want to see us in Tennessee you had better come down before the middle of October, as we will go to Texas about the 20th. Would be glad if you Morgan count people could all come before we leave.

Rev. Flemingdoor will preach at Obey City Sunday. Everybody invited to come and hear him.

Bettie S. I would like to hear from you.

Mrs. Alice Wilken is on the sick list and has been for several weeks. Mrs. Dora Ashburn is also sick.

A. L. Gracey is moving his sawmill to the Sinking Cane.

W. A. TUDOR.

Pleasant Hill

School opened last Tuesday with a large enrollment. Several of the old students have returned to school.

The little child of Mrs. Cross has been quite sick for the past few weeks.

Mrs. Joe Gooch and children have returned to P. H. after spending the summer at their home in white county.

Mrs. W. M. Lee is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Cora Cooper at Cookeville.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Smith have returned to their home after attending the association at Fairview. They spent a nice time.

Miss Georgia Hickey visited friends in P. H. Monday.

The C. E. meeting was very interesting with Miss Roberts as leader.

A. Boyce has returned from Michigan where he spent the summer.

Clay Bean was the guest of Oscar Gentry Sunday evening.
