

PUTNAM COUNTY HERALD

VOLUME IX.

COOKEVILLE, TENNESSEE, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 16, 1911.

NUMBER 46.

Mt. View Lodge, No. 179, I. O. O. F. held a very harmonious meeting on Nov. 11th, 1911, with a good attendance, considering the extraordinary blustery evening.

The usual routine business was disposed of.

Bros. Staley, Buck and Pippin were reported about as usual for the past two weeks. Bro. Dank Garrison was reported no better.

One application for 1st degree was balloted upon and declared duly elected thereto.

The soliciting committee for the sale of stock in the Auditorium building reported progress. The chairman called the committee to meet on the 16th inst.

The Rebekahs contemplate a sumptuous banquet on the 30th, thanksgiving.

No one should think or feel that the Lodge asks or expects them to give money for the Auditorium. The Lodge hopes and expects to pay back to every one the amount that he puts into the building. If all the Bros. will use their influence and energy for the Auditorium as it seems they should, there is no question but that the enterprise can be completed in due time—lets all try.

Our next meeting will be on the 17th inst. Let all attend and renew interest in the order.

Milligan—Bohannon

A quiet marriage of interest to many friends was that of Miss Mary Ann Bohannon and Mr. Leslie Milligan last Thursday.

The ceremony was simple but beautifully solemnized with Rev. G. B. Brown officiating, and was witnessed only by the immediate family. The bride is a beautiful girl and much loved by all, while the groom is a very popular young man.

George W. High

George W. High of this city died in a Nashville hospital Sunday evening, Nov. 12, 1911, after an illness of about two weeks, and was brought to this city for burial. He leaves a wife and two small children. George was the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. B. V. High, and about 37 years of age. He had been an employe of the city for several years and was a man of sterling character.

Meeting at Paron

The board of stewards of Paron M. E. Church South met recently and requested the pastor to hold a church conference at Paron on Saturday before the fourth Sunday in November, and request every member to be present in order that they may know their members. All day services will be held and dinner served on the ground.

To Discuss Bonds

A meeting of citizens of Cookeville will be held in the courthouse next Tuesday night for the purpose of discussing the question of issuing city bonds, which is to be voted on Nov. 25. It is hoped that a large attendance may be had.

Wanted

We always have a place for the right kind of man and woman, several good positions now open. Write or appear at Singer Sewing machine Co., Gallatin, Tenn. C. B. ALLEN, Mgr.

We have sold store house and lot to A. P. Barnes & Co. Mr. Barnes will take charge the first of January. Hence the reason for the Great Reduction sale to be found elsewhere in paper. Our present stock must be sold, regardless of price. WHITSON BROS.

Dr. F. A. Baker, who left Putnam county some 12 years ago, has recently moved to Shreveport, La., where he has built a two-story house of 10 rooms with all modern conveniences, including electric to natural gas. The doctor retains his cotton farm of 800 acres at Greenwood. Master Talmage Baker has been with his brother since his father has been on the road. He is now in school at Shreveport.

Don't fail to come to Nashville next Saturday Nov. 25, and attend the great TOY AND HOLIDAY GOODS OPENING of PHILLIPS & BUTTORFF MFG. CO. Santa Claus himself will be there for the purpose of entertaining the children, and such a display of Toys and Xmas goods as will be shown has never before been seen in the South.

Tuesday and Wednesday were taken up with the taking of depositions here in the Bartlett will case. The Walkers were represented by B. G. Adcock and H. S. Barnes and the Verbles by Algood & Finley, Worth Bryant, Boyd & Boyd and O. K. Holladay. This promises to be one of the most hotly contested law suits in the history of this county.

A wedding that greatly surprised the many friends of the contracting parties was that of Miss Lena Terry and Mr. Oscar Ferguson, which took place at Nashville last Thursday. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. H. Terry, and the groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Ferguson.

Campbell Bohannon was elected justice of the peace for the Third district at a special election last Saturday and W. H. Barr for the eighth district. Both gentlemen have served in the County Court before, and are among the best citizens of the county.

The Sunday School convention held at Shipley the last Saturday in October was one of the best ever held in this county. A large crowd attended and the bountiful dinner was enjoyed by all. The officers who have served for the past year were elected.

Fred Glover and family of Lavina, Mont., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Glover of this city, having arrived Sunday for a month's visit. Fred has been in the northwest about nine years and has prospered in his new home as a farmer and stockman.

Last Monday was the coldest day of the season so far, the thermometer registering 14 degrees above zero in the early morning. Saturday was warm as summer, and that night a gale blew from the south, but did no damage in this section.

Mules! Mules!

Since having sent out circulars that I would buy mules in Cookeville next Tuesday, the 21st, I find that it will be impossible for me to be there on that day, so don't bring your Mules Tuesday.
