Celebrates 81st Year

Last Sunday Hon. D. L. Dow was 81 years old, having been born Nov. 19, 1830. Mr. Dow is a native of Illinois but has lived in Tennessee since he was a young man. He is one of our most highly respected citizens, a Christian gentleman in the fullest sense.

Mr. and Mrs. John B. Dow gave a dinner in honor of the event to members of the family and a few guests.

Card of Thanks

We desire to express our sincere thanks to our friends and acquaintances for their sympathy and kindness shown us during the sickness and death of our dear husband and father. May God bless each and every one of you and if ever in our power to show our appreciation in any way, we are ever ready; they will ever be remembered by us.

MRS. SILAS SCARLETT AND CHILDREN.

The Death of Cora Robinson

Little Cora Robinson the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Quin Robinson, age five years, entered into rest Nov. 12, 1911 after an illness of a few days of dyptheria. She leaves a father, mother, a little sister and many friends to mourn her loss.

By her sweet disposition and smiling face she won a place in many hearts that deeply deplore her death. Cora was an exceptionally sweet girl and she will be sadly missed and long remembered by her father and mother who tenderly loved her, and by her friends whose sweet companionship they had.

She has gone to that beautiful home there to dwell forever with God and the sweet Angels. FANNIE BOHANNON.

United States Court

United States district court has been in session in Cookeville this week with Judge E. H. Sanford on the bench, assistant attorney J. R. McCall looking after the government's interests. The term ran three days, adjourning Wednesday night.

Most of the cases tried were for violating the revenue laws but there were two postal cases. The most important case was against Geo. Wilkinson for counterfeiting, who plead guilty and was given a penitentiary sentence.

The next term will probably develop considerable business in civil cases.

NATURE TELLS YOU

As Many a Cookeville Reader Knows too Well

When the kidneys are sick, Nature tells you all about it. The urine is nature's calendar. Infrequent or too frequent action, Any urinary trouble tells of kidney ills. Doan's Kidney Pills are for kidney ills.

People in this vicinity testify to their worth.

B. G. Keath, 223 Morgan St., Harriman, Tenn., says: "Whenever I feel in need of a kidney medicine I get Doan's Kidney Pills and they never fail to bring me prompt and positive relief. When I first obtained Doan's Kidney Pills, I was suffering from lame back and weak kidney but it did not take this remedy long to give me complete relief. I take pleasure in confirming all I said about Doan's Kidney pills when I publicly endorsed them in 1907"

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
