HOW TO KEEP STRONG AND HEALTHY

Thinks Epidemic of "Flu" Found Many With Low Vitality.

Matter of Precaution—Take Tonic of Iron, Herbs and Roots.

If your health is perfect this may not interest you. If your health is not perfect, logically you are either sick or "partially sick." If sick, you need a doctor's advice, and medicine. If "partially sick" you surely will benefit by taking a real medicine tonic, containing no alcohol or habit forming drugs. If you are weak, nervous, tired, sluggish and get no strength from your food you need a tonic. If you are this, anemic, "bloodless" and ill nourished, if you catch cold too easily, if you tire with slight exertion and you are melancholy because of your inability to live and enjoy life as others do, surely a tonic of iron, root and herb extracts will help you. Thousands like you, have found strength and cheerfulness by taking three grain Cadomene Tablets, the tried formula of a good physician. If "partially sick," you may increase your risk of fatal ailments attacking your weakened vitality. Be sensible and wise by toning up your health, right now, is the time to begin. Ask your druggist for Cadomene Tablets and take as directed by the label, adv

REUNION OF C. O. V. APPEARS ASSURED

Majority of Sixteen Department Commanders Express Themselves as in Favor of Memphis as Meeting Place.

It is not unlikely that Memphians, sometime in the early spring, probably in May, will turn their attention temporarily from the heroes of today to the memory of the heroes of yesterday. It is not unlikely that Main street will witness again the thin gray line, which Southerners, before the big war, used to say "the line of which the world will never see again."

If the reunion of Confederate veterans is held in Memphis, an effort will be made to consolidate it with the plans for celebrating the 50th anniversary of the founding of the city. Authorities differ upon the exact date, but the best of them, including Judge J. A. Young and Judge James H. Malone, agree that the month of May will suffice. It is understood that the city officials contemplate an appropriate observance of the centenary of the founding of Memphis, and if the two events are consolidated, they probably will find a feasibility for holding it.

The place for holding the 1919 reunion has not been decided upon. At the Tulsa reunion last year it was decided to leave the selection of the next place to the department commanders. There are 16 of them, many of whom have expressed a willingness to select Memphis while others are enthusiastic over the proposal. Some are committed to their own cities, but slight opposition is expected from any source.

Would Bring 150,000.

It is estimated that a reunion would bring to Memphis not less than 150,000 visitors. It is planned to establish the veterans at the Tri-State fairgrounds, where they could be comfortably housed and well cared for. At Tulsa, the people of the city purchased large quantities of material, such as mattresses, for the use of the veterans, and this might be obtained at a reduced price.

Not less than $75,000 will be required to properly entertain the visiting veterans and their matrons and made of honor. Some of the local organizations desirous of taking up this feature within the near future.

George B. Bowling, quartermaster in chief of the Sons of Confederate Veterans, Monday had a letter from Gen. K. M. VanZandt, general commanding, in which he said: "I will have Gen. Mickle address the members of the committee officially immediately. I have no doubt Memphis will be selected. I thank you very much for the interest you have taken."

Memphis is Favored.

In the course of his correspondence with the division commanders on the subject, the unofficial expression is largely favorable to Memphis. Extracts from letters received by Mr. Bowling are as follows:

"It meets with my warmest approval to hold the next reunion in Memphis,"—Gen. Calvin B. Vance, commander Tennessee department.

"I would be glad to vote in favor of Memphis for the holding of our next reunion. I believe it will give general satisfaction to all the veterans,"—Gen. Julian S. Carr, commander army of Virginia department.

"In my opinion Memphis will be highly satisfactory to the veterans on account of the location and the fact that Memphis has always taken good care of the veterans,"—Gen. W. T. Shaw, commander trans-Mississippi department.

"It seems to me that Memphis is the logical place above all others. Its location, excellent capacity for entertaining and the splendid hospitality of the goodly city, which we have tested before, all argue in favor of Memphis as the place,"—Gen. W. B. Freeman, commander Virginia division.

"It is my opinion that the Texas division will be greatly pleased to hold the next reunion in Memphis,"—Gen. E. W. Kirkpatrick, commander Texas division.

"I would prefer Memphis to any place for our next reunion. The veterans of Missouri would favor Memphis and all veterans have a warm interest in their minds for the elegant manner in which they were entertained at former reunions in Memphis. I believe you will win over other places,"—Gen. W. C. Bronaugh, commander Missouri division.

"I think Memphis a very suitable place. It is centrally located and a city of such size as to comfortably entertain. I have an idea that the suggestion of Memphis will be favorably received by the Confederates and their friends throughout the country,"—Gen. W. J. Stone, commander Kentucky division.

"I am heartily in favor of Memphis. I have attended two reunions there before and both were highly satisfactory to me and other veterans,"—Gen. W. M. Woten, commander Mississippi division.

"I am sure Memphis would take good care of the veterans and see that they have a good time,"—Gen. D. M. Halley, commander Oklahoma division.

"Memphis is the proper place to hold the reunion. Thank Memphis for the kind invitation,"—Gen. W. Hooper, commander Alabama division.

"I am sure the Louisiana division will be delighted to learn that Memphis has offered to entertain in May, 1919,"—Gen. Geo. H. Theodor, commander Louisiana division.

"The Tennessee division and myself heartily endorse Memphis for the next reunion. Command me in any way I may serve Memphis,"—Gen. John P. Hickman, commander Tennessee division.

"Of the number of cities that have been mentioned, my division would cheerfully vote for Memphis, and you are hereby authorized to use this letter for that purpose,"—Gen. W. A. Clark, commander South Carolina division.

The past commander-in-chief: "I am of the opinion that Memphis would be a suitable place for our next reunion and I would be pleased to see it selected,"—Gen. Geo. P. Harrison.

The past commander of the army of Northern Virginia: "I am in favor of Memphis and will do all I can to see that she gets the reunion,"—Gen. J. Thompson Brown.

The past commander of the Mississippi division: "I think Memphis is the best located city in the South for this reunion and I am very much in favor of having the next reunion there,"—Gen. G. W. Price.

CLAIMS BODY OF SON MISSING FOR ONE YEAR

J. L. Miller, of Trenton, Tenn., Sunday claimed the body of his 14-year-old truant son, Jack Miller, who died of pneumonia at the General hospital after being missing from home for more than a year. The body has been forwarded to Trenton for burial.

Miller told hospital attaches that his son left home in company with a tramp who begged something to eat at the Miller home. Since then he had not been heard from. He was found in a room on North Third street, where he had started to board. It is presumed he was attempting to obtain a job in Memphis. The boy told hospital attaches before he died that his father resided in McKenzie or Union City, Tenn., and messages to those places brought no response.

TWO PATROLMEN DOZE ON DUTY; SUSPENDED

Patrolmen J. T. Gaskins and B. J. Bryant, two of the old men of the police force, were suspended Monday on charges of sleeping on duty Sunday morning at 4 o'clock. Capt. O'Hearn, night officer, stopped in on the officers in a basement at Gay street and Main street and found them snoring.

Patrolman H. L. Bryant and his partner, Hooks, were under fire Saturday night for alleged disregard of duty. Capt. O'Hearn, it is said, found Bryant missing from the ward and Hooks refused to divulge his whereabouts. An investigation revealed he had been requested by a young woman who was frightened at the late hour, to escort her home.
