MEMORIAL DAY TO SEE OPENING OF SOLDIER CEMETERY

Decoration Ceremony This Year in France To Be Marked by Dedication of Burial Place of 25,000 Yanks.

BY FRANK H. SIMONIDES

(Related to The News, 1919)

PARIS, May 29—Decoration day for Americans in Europe this year will have a new meaning. More than 25,000 of our soldiers are buried on French battlefields, and there is perhaps no other American action since the war which will have more weight and impressiveness than the day on which it was announced to the American people that the men and boys of American cemeteries in France. On this Decoration day the long record of American fighting and sacrifice in France will be honored by the laying of a wreath on the grave of the Unknown Soldier at the little town of Meuse, where the first American soldier was killed in action.
