THE FOURTH

An Old-Fashioned and picturesque Celebration of the Fourth of the Republic—Everywhere at the Front.

Luminous Crowd of Firemen at the Old Fair Grounds—Speakers at granite pillar, Forest and Others.

Speech at Court Square — A Solemn Gathering of the People — Reports of the Fairground and St. Peter's Village.

Sons and Daughters at the Newer Fair Field — A Forty-eight Hour Free and Liberally Depicting at Bethlehem.

[Continued...]

[Many paragraphs follow discussing various events, music, prides, and celebrations around the city.]

[Adverts for local businesses, such as the Royal Havana Lottery, New Couples' School, and other notices.]

[Financial notices and legal notices throughout the paper.]