NIBS AND PLOUGHS TO MEET SATURDAY

Important Contest Booked for Hodges Field and City Championship May Hinge

The Nibs and Ploughs will meet on Saturday afternoon at Hodges field at 2 o'clock, in a game that will have much to do with the winning or losing of the city amateur championship.

MIXUP RESULTS IN WESTERN ASSOCIATION

TULSA, Okla., Sept. 17.—J. C. Leicher, of Tulsa, president of the Western association, last night announced that club owners of the association would meet here next Wednesday to consider the controversy resulting from the seventh game of the post-season championship series played at Enid Wednesday and won by Enid from Okmulgee. Leicher declared last night that as he had ordered the game played at Okmulgee, it was only an exhibition contest and did not decide the championship of the association.

CLUB DISBANDED.

ENID, Okla., Sept. 17.—No more games will be played in the Western association post-season championship. J. H. Shaw, acting president of the Enid club, declared yesterday. He said that Enid players were demoralized by the season after Wednesday's game and that Dick Cooley, manager of the Okmulgee team, had his men and disbanded the club until next year.

ED GEERS BADLY HURT IN SYRACUSE

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Sept. 17.—Edward P. (Pop) Geers was injured here yesterday afternoon when he was thrown from his sulky in the third heat of the 207 trot at the Grand circuit races. He drove Wilkie to finish in second place and just as the horse crossed the finish line he tumbled and fell, throwing Geers heavily to the track. His condition is said not to be serious.

VOLS BEAT CHAMPS; GEORGE DISTELL HURT

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Sept. 17.—Statham held Little Rock to four hits and Nashville won 5 to 2. Poor support in the fifth and a series of scratch hits in the sixth enabled Nashville to score five runs off Robinson. In the first inning Distell, Little Rock second baseman, broke a bone in his right foot sliding into the plate. The injury will put him out for the year.

New Orleans Lad Will Tackle Local Flyweight Monday Night in Main Event of Weekly Card at S. A. C.

Kid Kelly, of New Orleans, is the next test for Young Dempsey, the Memphis flyweight. The invader will tackle Dempsey Monday night in the main event of the weekly card at the Southern A. C.

JOHNNY DUNDEE TO MEET WELLING FRIDAY

NEW YORK, Sept. 17.—The first important boxing match under the new Walker law, Matteson finished for New Orleans over the Bears by the score of 5 to 4. Two games had been scheduled but rain prevented the second contest. Mobile lost the game despite the fact that they drove Dixie Walker and Day Vance from the box in the early innings. Matteson finished for New Orleans and won over Hald who was entitled to win but lost through loose fielding.

BATTLE TO 1-1 DRAW.

ORLANDO, Fla., Sept. 17.—Tampa pennant winner of the Florida state league, and Columbia, winner of the annual of the South Atlantic association, battled 11 innings to a 1-0-1 tie here Thursday in the fourth game of a seven-game series for the bantam championship of the southeast. The series stands: Columbia, 2; Tampa, 1. The next three games will be played at Jacksonville. Score by innings: R.H.E. Tampa 0-0-0. Columbia 0-0-0. Craig and Nance; Whitney, Gaslin and Wendell.
