

HOME JOURNAL.

Mountain Council No. 604, American Legion of Honor, meets to-morrow (Thursday) night.

Our County Trustee, Mr. R. G. Smith, informs us that, upon settlement, he will be square with the State and county taxes for 1882.

Grand Lecturer John T. Iron will visit Cowan Lodge No. 517, F. A. M., June 9, and will lecture at 2 and 7 1/2 o'clock p. m. An invitation is extended to all Masons in good standing.

We understand that the public school at this place will be taught by Prof. J. W. Syster and Miss Maggie March, both of whom are experienced teachers. Exercises will begin during the present month.

The lady members of the Good Templar Lodge at Decherd have the gratitude of our warm heart for a large, sugar-coated cake, and we defy any artistic baker in the world to manufacture a better one. Heaven bless you and your cause, dear ladies!

Ice-cream Festival.

The ladies of the Methodist Church will give an Ice-cream Festival in the Courthouse to-morrow night, June 7th. Proceeds for the benefit of the church. We hope they will be liberally patronized.

A clever friend and subscriber, of Huntland—Mr. L.—sends us a bouquet of ripe raspberries and strawberries, and we are much obliged, more so than if it had been a bouquet of flowers; because, like the little bug that makes its nest at dewy eve in the corolla of a flower and gets up in the morning and devours its bed-clothes of petals, pistils, &c., so we and our "little ones" have done by the bouquet of luscious berries, with mingled thanks.

Death of an Octogenarian.

Mr. Josiah Swain died at his residence in Winchester last Saturday, at the advanced age of eighty years. "Judge" Swain, as he was familiarly called, was partially paralyzed about one year ago, since which time he has been in feeble health. He was a member of the Methodist Church, and very exemplary in his conduct. He abstained all his life from the use of intoxicating drinks; in fact, we have heard him say he never tasted a drop of whiskey in his life. He leaves a widow and several children.

Please give heed to the new advertisement of Embrey, Bros. & Co., who certainly have, and always keep, a splendid line of goods to suit the tastes of our people. While all the members composing this firm are fine business men, the senior member, Mr. Wiley S. Embrey, is, we repeat, second to no one in the mercantile line as to good judgment in all the details of merchandise needed by his many customers. Besides, we cannot refrain from throwing in our commendation of him as one of the most enterprising, liberal-hearted and worthy citizens we have. He deserves all the success which has attended his efforts, and the high esteem in which he is universally held.

"Commencement," or, examination exercises, began at the Winchester Normal last Monday morning. We arrived at the building about nine of the clock and found the recitation hall literally crowded, and to procure a seat involved more push on our part than was agreeable to either desire or the feeble condition of our health. The general interest manifested in the exercises was intense, and it is safe to assert that it will increase until they are over. As our paper must go to press by Tuesday at one o'clock, we must forego further mention than to say these will be, perhaps, more interesting than any previous exercises of this kind at this splendid institution, and the Home Journal congratulates the President and other teachers upon the flattering evidences of popular appreciation in their behalf.

Another Card from Captain Gregory.

Editor Home Journal:

My only purpose in troubling the public with the question of the removal of the Mary Sharp College was to do all in my power to protect and sustain the college in the high reputation it has reached, and by doing away with any attempt to injure it in any way, and to sustain its reputation and its benefits to the community which had built it up and to which it belongs. To remove it, according to the opinion of the best legal talent we have, is an impossibility, and the attempt to do so is nothing more or less than an attempt to practice a first-class fraud upon the community and the institution by those who originated the idea. As to who they are I can't say definitely, because I have been unable to learn, notwithstanding so much has been said.

In reply to Dr. Barrett's request, I most emphatically say No. I will not undertake to lug Prof. Bledsoe in this controversy by asking him to make a public statement or any other statement as to what was said. Such would certainly be a "third class absurdity" when there has been no issue (denial) made to my statement. Were I to commence that I should most certainly call upon other gentlemen also, to whom similar statements were made.

The effort to remove the college, I am happy to say, is now dead, and it is no longer important for the public to know whether Dr. Barrett was "for or against the mill-dam," as his past opinion is of no consequence now to the public.

There were some intimations in Dr. Barrett's last card which I thought unfit for public notice, but demanded that I should call his attention specially there-to in a personal interview, which was done, and if the Doctor is satisfied as to its result I certainly have no cause for complaint.

And now, until the necessity again arises to do what I can to save the Mary Sharp College to Winchester and from anything being done which may reflect upon its reputation or stability, this subject, so far as I am concerned, is dismissed.

TOM GREGORY.

Decherd Items.

In my last to the Journal, which did not arrive in time for publication, owing to the forgetfulness of a kind friend, I gave you a short sketch of my trip to Nashville during the drill week, and how I took in the drill and got took in myself, as did several thousand others, and how the traps were set to "gobble up" the people's money. But in this I propose to give a sketch of a trip to the top of Cumberland mountain, far away from the scenes of the dashing military, and the booming of artillery, and the clatter of drums, and the sounds of bands of music, and the jams, and tramp, tramp of thousands upon thousands of people.

By invitation, and in company with quite a number of the Masonic fraternity, on last Friday morning we boarded the train at Cowan bound for Tracy City. The occasion was the laying of the corner stone and dedication of the new Masonic Hall recently constructed at that place. Upon arrival at Tracy City we were cordially received by a committee of the brethren, who, by previous arrangement, had been appointed to receive visiting brethren and consign them to their respective places of abode during their brief stay in the city. It was our good fortune to fall into the hands of our clever and esteemed friend, Mr. John A. Law, and we assure you that the hospitality of himself and his excellent lady cannot be excelled anywhere. The ceremony of laying the corner stone took place at about three o'clock. Ten neighboring lodges were represented, and one hundred and thirty Masons were in procession and marched from the old lodge-room to the new hall to take part in and witness the ceremony. The Grand Master of the State, Judge N. W. McConnell, with other officers of the Grand Lodge, performed the ceremonies, which were very inspiring. An organ had been procured, and some excellent music was had. After the ceremony Grand Master McConnell delivered a most excellent address, which was listened to with marked attention.

The dedication ceremonies took place at night, and were grand and imposing indeed. After a brief address by the Grand Master, followed by one or two others, the brethren repaired to a room below, where an excellent supper had been prepared, and all feasted to their appetites content.

We must say that we found the brethren and the good people of Tracy City to be as full of hospitality and kindness as at any place it has ever been our good fortune to visit.

We had a splendid shower here yesterday, which refreshed the gardens and growing crops very much.

Mr. C. T. Blair preached at the Presbyterian Church last night. He resigned his superintendency of the Sabbath School yesterday, and will very soon enter the fields of the ministry.

The Good Templar's lodge at this place is in a flourishing condition. The festival last Thursday night was a perfect success.

Our Colored School.

Editor Home Journal:

Please allow me a small space in your valuable paper to say a few words in behalf of our colored school of Winchester under management of Prof. D. A. Townsend, who is laboring so earnestly for the promotion and education of our people, and whose services they cannot well at present dispense with.

The examination exercises commenced on the 30th ultimo, and closed in the afternoon of Friday, June 1st. The students acquitted themselves in a very scholarly manner, which plainly showed that they had not been idling away their time, and that Prof. Townsend had discharged his duties in a way that called forth the plaudits of his patrons.

And, judging from the interest manifested by the patrons, it was plain that they were not unconscious of the great benefit he had been to them in educating their children. The classes all did exceedingly well. The musical department, under the control of Mrs. E. A. Townsend, added much to the occasion.

I noticed a few of our white friends in attendance, which pleased me much.

THE FIFTH ANNUAL SESSION

Begins August 25, (Tuesday) 1882. The outlook for the future is full of promise. The enrollment was 347 the past year. The growth from the first has been steady and healthy, and today the Normal is the largest school of its age in Tennessee.

A FULL FACULTY

Of earnest, experienced, and successful teachers are employed. Besides the seven regular teachers, several assistants, full of vigor and enthusiasm, render valuable help.

Dr. Joseph Baldwin, author of School Management, says of the President, J. W. Terrill: "As a teacher and manager, he has few equals. His school at Huntsville impressed me as the best I had ever visited."

Dr. W. R. Ethwell, of William Jewell College, Mo., says: "Few men of his age in Missouri, or the West, have won and sustained a higher reputation as a successful, practical teacher and College President than Mr. Terrill."

Prof. W. P. Nason, President of North Missouri Normal, says: "He is an educator of the very first rank; that as a presiding officer and teacher he has very few equals."

Prof. A. CLARK is a native of Tennessee and a christian gentleman of the highest type. He has studied and taught for twelve years in the town of Winchester, and his work and success in the classroom show him today one of the most accomplished teachers in Tennessee. While he is a self-made man and teacher, and no graduate, yet none of our college-bred teachers will dispute or test his ability and skill by competing, or comparing results, with him. From the restraints of the old college he has readily accepted natural, or Normal, methods.

Miss Mattie Estill graduated in Mary Sharp College in 1875, and that institution honored her with a position as teacher, giving to her work and scholarship much praise. Since then she has spent two years in the Normal preparing herself for the grand work of teaching. She is a lady of fine ability, and an indefatigable student and worker. Her fine social qualities, her long training in Theory and Art of teaching, her scholarship, and her experience in actual work of the school-room, combine to make her a very superior teacher. Her fitness, both natural and acquired, will be admitted by those who witness her work.

Mrs. Colie Terrill, Principal of Preparatory Department, has had an experience of twelve years in teaching primary branches and little children. Only after years of arduous study and training did she enter upon this work. Since 1876 she has taught in Winchester, and it will be admitted by all that she has fitted Primary Teaching to a higher plane of excellence, thus conferring lasting benefits on our youth and schools. In Primary Work she is without a peer, not only in Winchester, but we believe, in this portion of the State.

Miss Jessie Beanchamp, of Texas, takes the place vacated by Prof. Wm. McIlheran. She has several years experience as a teacher. We assure our patrons and students that no mistake has been made in her selection. She is for years a student of President Terrill's in Missouri.

Miss Lillie Bledsoe has taught the Music for the past two years, and her success has warranted the Faculty in purchasing new instruments throughout for her work in future. In this Department she will compare favorably with teachers of other schools.

Miss Mamie French takes charge of an Art School in the Normal. This is a new and valuable feature to which we call special attention. She is well qualified, and comes to make permanent and successful this Department of the school.

Miss Maud Terrill, well known to the students and friends of the Normal, will teach half her time in the various Departments, as may be needed.
