

Hard-working in the order of the day.

Capt. Clem Arledge will soon remove to his farm near town.

Miss Myra, daughter of Mr. Jno. F. Vaughan, is quite sick with typhoid fever.

The Mary Sharp College opened with a boom Monday, the names of 145 pupils being enrolled.

We have had but one little fall of rain in this section since the 3d day of August.

Our streets were thronged with good country people Monday. The best order prevailed.

Esqr. Mac Crabtree, of the 16th district, is quite sick—not expected to live with heart disease.

Mr. Thomas A. Embrey and wife are among the health and pleasure-seekers at Cascade Springs.

Prof. A. Jourdan is anxious to buy a copy of the Life of Lafayette, and a copy of Marseilles Hymn.

Mountain Council No. 694, American Legion of Honor, meets to-morrow—Thursday—night, Sept. 4.

It is predicted by some that unless our streets and alleys are cleaned up we will have considerable sickness this fall.

Mr. Albert D. Marks, of our town, left last Saturday for Lebanon, where he will take a course in the Law School.

Mr. G. C. (Pony) Logan has rented and moved into the house of the late Mrs. Mattie Simmons, on High street.

We learn that Shadow's Sons & Co., of Cedar Grove Nurseries, near town, have nearly 7,000 orders on their books.

The agent of John B. Dorris' Great Inter-Ocean Show was here last week and made arrangements to have the bill-boards put up.

The candidates for Senator and Representative will soon commence mixing with the "dear people." See list of appointments in this issue.

Mr. John Arledge is again quite sick with typhoid fever. He was recovering from the fever, but ventured out too soon and relapsed.

Miss Virginia Jackson left last Friday to accept a position as teacher in a flourishing Female College at Collierville, Tenn.

Come early if you want goods cheap. We are closing out the remainder of our stock at prices that will astonish even the closest buyer. W. H. WILSON & CO.

Mr. James M. Baker, while hunting on the mountain last Thursday, killed eleven rattlesnakes. They were real snakes, we know, because Mr. Hamp says he saw them, and of course Hamp knows real snakes when he sees them.

Mrs. Mary Jarrett, daughter of Mr. B. Templeton, of our town, died at her home in Rutherford county Monday night. Her remains were brought here and interred yesterday. Deceased graduated at Mary Sharp College in 1874. She was a most estimable lady, and we deeply sympathize with her bereaved husband, children and parents.

If you want bargains in goods call on W. H. Wilson & Co. Read their conspicuous advertisement. Mr. Wilson and his partner, Mr. James Francis, are clever and reliable gentlemen to deal with, and it would do us pleasure to have our people patronize them liberally.

We call especial attention to the advertisement of I. W. Grizzard & Co. in this issue, and take pleasure in recommending them to all who may need anything in their line. Mr. J. B. Guest, who has charge of the house, is an adept in the bakery business, as all will testify who have patronized him, and we hope and believe that he will soon build up a good trade. But—read their advertisement and govern your selves accordingly.

Mr. Wiley S. Embrey is having a large cistern dug on the lot in the rear of his office. Nearly every person who has seen the work going on has found fault. Some say it is too narrow, some too broad, some too large, some too large enough, some that it is not headed in the right place, &c., &c. And again, there are many who inquire of the laborers how much they get for their work, how much they dig per day, how long before they finish, and even ask how much Mr. Embrey will be "out of pocket" when the cistern is finished. O, tempora! O, mores!

Our newly-elected Sheriff (C. A. Majors) and County Trustee (A. J. Skidmore) qualified Monday. The following are the Sheriff's bondsmen, together with the amount each is bound for: T. B. Fanning, $3,000; Henry Weaver, $1,000; J. S. McClure, $4,000; J. W. Smith, $300; G. W. Abbott, $2,000; F. Rice, $12,000; M. Millsaps, $1,000; I. M. Turner, $1,000.

The Trustee gave three bonds—one for the collection of State tax, one for County tax, and one for School tax. The following are the names of all the bondsmen—the same being on all the bonds: Thos. Foster, Sr., $4,000; F. Rice, $12,000; B. F. Holder, $1,000; Benjamin Sells, $2,000; Wm. Payne, $1,500.

The Candidates for Governor

Their Speeches Last Friday.

We purpose to be impartial in a brief notice of the political exercise last Friday between Gov. Wm. Bate and Judge Frank T. Reid. We hope our notice will not be affected by the fact that we are a Democrat, and not from partisan purposes or hopes, but from faith founded upon close reading and careful observation.

We cannot give—for our space does not allow—a resume of what each one said. Nor will we notice any bitterness, or episodes of a personal nature. They are unworthy of consideration when grave matters of State are pending. All who read, know that both the aspirants are gentlemen of courage and of worth. But all of us cannot understand how it is that Judge Reid (for whom we have the highest personal respect) can find it in his heart to antagonize such a man as Gen. Bate. Both of them were Confederate soldiers, and both have a record that neither can be ashamed of. As to Gov. Bate, he is a man before whom we could almost bend the knee. Politically we are not in entire accord with the Democratic platform so ably defended by Governor Bate, but our difference is non-essential. We do despise the foolish extravagance of the useless Railroad Commission, not for the money wasted, but because of the anti-Democratic policy and dangerous precedent. But this objection obtains as to both parties, and the Republican party has nominated men for Commissioners, and yet Judge Reid condemns the law as wicked, thereby showing an inconsistency which cannot be said of Gov. Bate, who stands by his platform.

In their speeches here we honestly think that Judge Reid lost. He is an able man, but his youthful passion led him astray and gave gain to the bold, conservative and noble remarks of Gov. Bate. Thinking him could but think that such an honest man as Bate—a man who went to Mexico to fight for the United States; a man who rose from private to Major-Generalship in the Confederate army; a man who came home bankrupt financially; and a man who has sacrificed financial gain in behalf of his party, and in behalf of the State;—they could but think that such a noble Roman should not be displaced to satisfy the demands of the Republican party who have selected a brilliant but erratic Confederate soldier to champion their detestable cause. And we feel sure that Judge Reid will have to submit to a bigger defeat than Hawkins had in his tilt with Bate.

No genuine Democrat will vote against Bate.

The Coleman Boys.

Next Friday night, at the Mary Sharp College, there will be a Concert given by the Coleman Boys, under direction of Rev. J. T. Curry. These boys—Felix, Mabra and Tommie—are all blind. Our people know their misfortune. But they are musicians, and will entertain any lover of music. We feel sure the small price of admission will not prevent them from having a full house. If you cannot go send the price of admission by some one to Mr. Curry. The following is the programme for the occasion:

- 1. Piano Duet—Russell—Felix and Mabra.
2. Cornet Solo—Thou Art so Near—Felix
3. Piano Solo—The Shower of Pearls—Mabra.
4. Piano Solo—Lauterbach—Felix.
5. A reading.
6. Cornet Solo—Flower Dance—Felix
7. Piano Solo—Stony Brook—Mabra
8. Piano Solo—Angel's Serenade—Felix
9. Duet—Vienna—Felix and Mabra.
10. Song—Good Old Sweet Home—Tom.
11. Piano Solo—Annie Laurie—Felix.
12. Mocking Bird—Mabra.
13. Piano Duet—Bolia's Waltz—Mabra.
14. Cornet Solo—Love's Request—Felix.
15. Gallop of Bravura—Mabra.

Stander.

Yes, you pass it along, whether you believe it or not; that one-sided whisper against the character of a virtuous female. You don't believe it, but you will use your influence to bear up the false report and pass it on the current. Strange creatures are mankind! How many reputations have been lost by surmise! How many hearts have bled by whisper! How many benevolent deeds have been chilled by the shrug of a shoulder! How many chaste bosoms have been wrung with grief by a sudden nod! How many graves have been dug by false report! Yet you will push the slander along. You will keep it above the water by a wag of your tongue when you might sink it forever. Destroy the passion for tale-telling, we pray. Liep not a word that may injure the character of another. Be determined to listen to no story that is reported to the injury of another, and as far as you are concerned the slander will die. But tell it once, and it may go as on the wings of the wind, increasing with each breath till it has circulated through the town, and county, and State, and has brought to the grave one who might have been a blessing but for your tattling.

Dr. Davis' colt show came off Monday. Seven of "Fleet's" colts, ranging from 4 to 6 months old, were entered for premium. J. H. Hessey, B. F. Bennett and William Haley acted as judges. The first premium ($10) was awarded to Mr. Wiley S. Embrey. J. F. Stafford, of the 14th district, received the second premium—$5. Nathan Garner had one of Fleet's colts (five months old) on exhibition, for which he was offered $100.

Our Roads.

We have been notified (and very properly, too) that we must work the road, or furnish a hand, or pay the penalty of one dollar a day. When we say the road, we mean a so-called thing of gullies running from Winchester to the river near Mr. Dardis', where there is a bridge. It is known as the Bridge road. Travel it once and you will not travel it again, presuming, of course, that you do not lose your life in the first travel. The long hill that leads down to the bridge is enough to bring a sigh to a pedestrian, even. It is so narrow—the road is—that two vehicles could not pass, nor one, as for that. And we warn all who go that terrible way to first send a forerunner to find out if any one is coming from the other side. A collision would necessarily result in one or the other going over into a gulch some 75 or 100 feet precipitous. And we have most kindly, but foolishly, we fear, supposed that you got to the hill. To get there you must have a very fine horse, one that is not afraid to put his foot right into the spaces between rails thrown into a gully as a substitute for a plank crossway that would not cost over two dollars. This is the road we have to work, and we propose to do our part. We have no corporation now—no corporation taxes to pay. We carry off dead hogs and dogs that die or are killed near our home, and this we do regardless of no law. But our expenses are not so great, and, as we are getting too infirm and too obese to work, we have to economize. Consequently we are inclined to oppose any effort to have our town re-chartered. But we do want a good road law. And it is a remarkable thing that the people cannot have an improvement on the present abominable road law. If our Legislature would only pass a law taxing PROPERTY to keep up good roads, all would be well. There is no sense in making a poor fellow, white or black, work the road as many days as the fellow who owns lands and whose teams traverse it. The poor fellow does not care whether the road is good or not, nor do we blame him. The Home Journal has for many years tried to awaken the people to the necessity of sending some man to the Legislature who had a little road sense, and we do hope and pray that our next General Assembly will give us a good Road Law, a good Dog law, and a good Fish law. Abolish nearly all the other laws, and make it obligatory upon our public schools to teach the Statutes of Tennessee, and general good will result. Good roads, more sheep, fewer dogs, more fish, fewer seines, fewer laws, more knowledge! This is the Home Journal's creed.

Hon. Jno. R. Bessley, independent Greenback candidate for Congress in this district, is the only man in the district who is for "Beast" Butler for President. If there are others for him we would be pleased to have their names. And "still our wonder grows" that so amiable, intelligent and honorable a gentleman as Mr. Bessley could be such a crank. We believe he would do what he believes to be right, though the Heavens fell. But does he not know that Greenbackism is now a dead issue?—that Butler is rich by means and actions that honest men shrink from, and that his appeals to the laboring people are the appeals of a dirty demagogue, as he is? And does he not know that Southern Democrats could conscientiously support any honest soldier of the Federal army, but could not support such a demagogue as Butler—a man who deserves the execration of men, women and children? Ah, John! You are too honest, too intelligent, too good a man for such.

There having been complaint made by Hon. Richard Warner's friends in Marshall county that Hon. Jas. D. Richardson was not fairly nominated, the Congressional committee met at Tullahoma last Friday to examine into the matter, and declared that the nomination was legal and proper. There was but one dissenting voice, and that was given by the member from Marshall. The committee also adopted a resolution to the effect that in making appointments for discussions only the regular nominees of the Democratic and Republican parties should be recognized.

The Republicans of this Congressional district will meet in convention at Shelbyville on the 9th inst., to nominate a candidate for Congress.

Sept. 3d, 1884.

Tullahoma special to the American, Aug. 30: Hon. Richard Warner was in Tullahoma to-day, on route home from the springs. In reply to the question whether he would make the race for Congress, he replied in substance most emphatically "No." That while he had every assurance of support from warm friends, and felt confident of his election—having gone before the convention in good faith and pledged himself to abide by the action, and as the committee which met here yesterday had ratified the nomination, he valued his honor too high to violate the pledge there given. Therefore he would not be a candidate.
